LINDSAY, FRIDAY JAN. 19, 1883.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

The remains of Gambetta were interred at Nice on Saturday with municipal honours.

A branch of the Bank of Montreal was opened at Regina on the 3rd instant.

Reports of preparations by the Mussulmans for a rising in Eastern Roumelia are confirmed.

Mr. A. C. Matheson, of the Perth Expositor, was elected mayor of Perth by acclamation.

A young Kingstonian is said to have lost between $30,000 and $40,000 by Winnipeg speculations.

A project is on foot for rendering the Mississippi navigable for ocean steamers at a cost of twenty millions.

A movement is on foot to form a citizens' associations to watch the Montreal city council proceedings closely.

James Caverhill was killed in the township of Loho by the bursting of a driving-wheel of a wood-sawing machine.

In Ontario there were fewer mortgages registered during 1882 than during 1881. The farmers are getting better off.

President Arthur has signed a bill permitting grain to be brought into the United States by Canadian farmers to be ground.

The Albany moulder's union has decided not to accept the 15 per cent. reduction of wages proposed by the stove manufacturers.

Over a hundred thousand persons settled in Canada during 1882, being more than three times the number of arrivals during the previous year.

The Hudon Cotton Co., of Hochelaga, will apply at the next session of parliament for powers to increase the capital of the company to $3,000,000.

The drought in Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont is causing serious loss and distress. Mills have been compelled to shut down. Hundreds of workmen are idle.

It is stated that Stanley, the African explorer, who is now on the Congo, is prepared to give M. de. Brazza a warm reception should the latter poach on his preserves.

The loss of life by the Milwaukee hotel horror is now said to be not less than seventy, and the value of the property destroyed is placed at three hundred thousand dollars.

Twelve German square miles of territory surrounding Raab, Hungary, are submerged. The emperor of Germany has increased his subscription to aid the sufferers to 100,000 marks.

In the unfortunate Hungarian town of Raab, which has especially suffered by the inundations, ten thousand persons are homeless and between three and four thousand houses inundated.

Russia's assurances of pacific intentions do not appear to satisfy Bismark, who has ordered two officers of the general staff to strategic points in the eastern provinces to watch Russian movements.

Three thousand cases of smallpox are under treatment at Baltimore outside the pest houses. Great alarm is felt, and other cities are taking precautions against the spread of the loathsome disease.

James and Henry Leonard, aged twelve and fourteen years respectively, were roasted alive last night in a boiler house near Karns City, Pa., from crude oil that was used to assist in firing the engine.

Mr. Davitt, speaking at Birkenhead last week, referred to the distress in the west of Ireland. He said it was humiliating that Ireland should stand before the world from time to time as a mendicant people. Ireland had had enough futile agitations and semi-insurrections; they were going to fight it out this time.... A lively correspondence is again progressing between Mr. Egan and Mr. Pigott concerning the land league funds. Mr. Pigott declares that £100,000 have not been accounted for.

Lady Florence Dixie writes that the whole of the £50,000 she received for the relief of small farmers and cottiers in the west of Ireland has been expended. The amount kept a roof over 20,000 persons' heads. She declines to raise another fund on the ground that it is the duty of the government and land league to help the people ... A deputation of Catholic priests waited on Earl Spencer, lord lieutenant, on Wednesday. They pointed out the present privations of the people in the west of Ireland, and represented that severer distress was impending in the future. They suggested that the board of works should advanced loans to all holders of land in order to enable them to improve their farms. They said it would be expedient to establish arterial drainage for the reclamation of waste lands. They deprecated emigration, and pointed out the repugnance of the people to enter the workhouse. Earl Spencer promised to give the matter earnest consideration.

—A parcel of dynamite was mailed at the Limerick post office last Friday, but was discovered before any damage was done.

—A couple of drunken ruffians who grossly insulted two sisters of charity on the Intercolonial express, were promptly ejected from the train by the conductor.

—Cattle and sheep in the county of York are scarce, and there has consequently been a rise in the price of beef and mutton. Farmers are holding their stock for high figures.

—The Chicago and Alton railroad is discharging its conductors. It is claimed they have been giving the company only a third of the cash fares collected. The profit from that source has been nearly $50,000, a year.

—On the Bellvidere railroad at Trenton the other day an unknown man deliberately placed his neck across the rail before a passing train. His head was almost severed from his body. It is believed he was starving.

—The Russian government, it is reported, will speedily construct a railway from Orenberg to Tashkend, with the intention of continuing it through Bokhara and Afghanistan to Peshawar, upon the frontier of British India.

A suit has been begun by John P. Forsyth, against Miss Eliza Jane Sharpe, both of Brussels, for breach of promise of marriage. This is a novel change in the old routine. It is about time the men asserted their rights in these cases.

A little daughter of Mr. Thoms Bland, of London, on Wednesday swallowed a cent while reaching upward to hang up a pair of scissors. What the result will be is as yet unknown; the doctors have been unable so far to relieve the sufferer.

The czar of Russia has signed a decree abolishing all secret societies in his dominions. Judging from past events the news that the secret societies had passed a decree abolishing all czars would be more likely to be actually enforced.

A Manistee, Mich., despatch says John Coady died after fasting 103 days. He was aged 60 years. His weight was reduced from 190 to 107 pounds. His habits were temperate. The supposed cause of his fasting was ulceration of the stomach.

Austria is earnestly preparing for the struggle with Russia which appears inevitable in the near future. Under the recent reorganization her artillery arm has been greatly strengthened, and the army raised to an effective strength of a million and a quarter men.

A Brooklyn jury in the case of Mary A. Livingston against Henry Fleming for breach of promise of marriage and seduction returned a verdict of $75,000 for the plaintiff, the full amount claimed. The verdict was received with a storm of applause by the spectators.

The man O'Donnell, alias O'Reilly, who is now in jail at Albion, N. Y., because he confessed to participation in the murders of Lord Cavendish and Mr. Burke, is apparently a crank. There are many innaccuracies in his story, and he has denied it in toto to the authorities.

A couple of blacklegs going by the names of E. W. Wilson and J. Goodman, were brought before Judge Baxter, at Welland, on Thursday. They had duped George Carpenter, a farmer, out of $20 at three card monte, and being found guilty were sentenced to one year in the common gaol.

At the assize court at Toronto last Thursday the jury returned a verdict against the Grand Trunk railway, awarding damages to the extent of $6,000 to the various members of the Valentine family, who lost their parents by the fatal accident at the Kingston road crossing. The case will go to appeal.

Thomas Leitch, aged about seven years, son of J. A. Leitch, insurance agent, of Brantford, while attempting to jump on a sleigh Thursday afternoon fell, and the hind bob passed over his leg, breaking it between the knee and ankle. Boys ought to take warning by this accident, but of course they will not.

Claim jumping around Brandon is assuming a very serious character. Cases have come under observation where parties have made affidavits in support of cancellations. Afterwards, conscience-stricken, or through fear of the consequences, they have made affidavit setting forth that their first statement was false.

The feeling of terror created throughout the Ottawa valley by the Cook murder is something extraordinary. Several persons are prostrated by nervousness, and two of these are not expected to survive. One little girl has already died of fright caused by the appearance at the door of her uncle's house of a man carrying an axe.

A case of suspended animation was made public one day last week in Washington, D. C., which is exciting much interest in medical circles. Mrs. Regan was supposed to have died on Sunday morning, and was laid out and all the preparations for her funeral had been made. The funeral was to take place Tuesday, but during the afternoon signs of life were discovered and efforts made to resuscitate the woman, which proved successful. She is now alive but very weak.

An observant farmer of Abbottsford, Que., noticed that his pigs failed to respond to the generous diet apportioned to them, as the time for marketing drew near, but rather grew thiner than more obese. His observations revealed the fact that immediately after the scalded corn and barley were placed in the trough a host of rats swarmed into the pen and feasted ravenously. He at once removed the pigs and filled the trough with corn and paris green, and next morning had eighty dead rats to get rid of.

Angus Lamont, of Mount Forest, fell into the hands of a gang of sharpers between that place and Orangeville on the train. First one of the gang got the unsuspecting Angus to stake $20 on the ability of a pal to open a certain lock, and of course, he failed and the $20 was "gobbled." On reaching the station the "boss" sharper took him aside and out of pity gave him a dollar, but while doing so managed to take his watch, leaving the chain. The last act of the fleecing was the buss drivers taking the chain for the fare up town.

—About the close of November Mr. John Sutherland, brother of Mr. Hugh Sutherland, M. P., left Fort Frances on snowshoes with two halfbreeds, for Prince Arthur's Landing. They had with them five dogs and a sleigh, and, as they supposed, sufficient provisions. When about seventy miles from the Landing they ran out of provisions, and in attempting to shorten the distance by cutting across country, lost their way and for six days wandered about with little or nothing to eat. For three days they hadn't a bite of anything, and on the other three only a little fish and some wild rice. They were in a very exhausted state when they reached the Landing.

—When Mr. Davitt appeared before a meeting at Oldham last Saturday evening to deliver an address on the Irish question, he was howled down by an organized gang who attempted to storm the platform, but were repulsed with chairs by the occupants of the platform. A free fight enseued, in which chair legs and brass knuckles were used, and many persons were hurt. Mr. Davitt called the disturbers a cowardly crew, and declared that if twenty men would follow him he would clear the hall of the gang. He advanced toward the latter for that purpose, but was restrained by a policeman. Addressing his opponents again, Davitt said they were "miserable, contemptible, cowardly dogs." When they were sitting in taverns he was fighting the British government; they were drunken blackguards, and a disgrace to the name of Nationalists; if Ireland were made up of such she would earn the contempt of the civilized world. He had travelled throughout England, and Englishmen, although his enemies, gave him a hearing. What a spectacle for the English was afforded by these professors of blackguardism at a time when Ireland was asking for self-government. The police finally succeeded in removing the disturbers, and a vote of thanks to Mr. Davitt was then passed.

—A new telephone company is to be started in Montreal, the promoters being New Yorkers.

—The execution of Patrick Higgins, one of the murderers of the Huddys, took place in Galway gaol Monday.

—Polk, a nephew of the president of that name, and state treasurer of Tennesee, is short in his cash over $400,000.

—In Moscow persons frozen to death are found in the streets daily. There were four deaths from cold at Kharkoff recently.

—Mrs. Coupar, wife of Mr. Coupar, of Craig-st., Montreal, fell down stairs, a distance of twenty feet, and was killed instantly.

—The heaviest snow storm of the season occurred Sunday at Kingston. A funeral started for the cemetery but got snowed in and had to stop.

—During the past two years manufacturing establishments have been instituted in Kingston, the pay rolls of which aggregate $260,000 per year.

—Forty-one lives, it is estimated, have been lost by the present Rhine floods. It is estimated the losses in Germany will amount to 80,000,000 maks.

—Two miscreants were captured near Frankenthal, Germany, while trying to cut the dams with the object of creating fresh opportunities for plunder.

—During a circus performance at Berditscheff, Russian Poland, on Saturday, the building caught fire and was destroyed. Three hundred spectators perished.

—A basket containing a living infant about 2 days old was brought to the Toronto police station Monday. It was found in a culvert in the western section of the city.

—Nearly a hundred and fifty persons have been arrested in connection with domiciliary visits at Rome, charged with socialist practices. A trial for high treason is impending.

—A Montreal lad named Knox, only 11 years of age, son of a widow, robbed his mother of $120 in cash and absconded. It is believed he has gone to the United States.

—Four informers will be examined at Dublin castle on Saturday, when it is expected they will reveal the existence of a plot to murder Earl Spencer and officers of his staff.

—The man O'Donnell, now in gaol at Albion, N. Y., who confessed to participation in the Phœnix park murders, is likely to be released. It is believed the whole affair was a whiskey freak.

—Intense excitement has been caused in St. Louis by the abduction of Sereide Garrison, a beautiful girl of seventeen, while on her way to a convent. She was held several days for ransom, but managed to escape.

—A keg containing fifty thousand dollars in gold, forming part of the shipment from the sub-treasury in New York to the United States fleet on the Pacific, has disappeared from the railroad office at Aspinwall.

—A white man, woman and three children were found frozen to death in the woods between Kingston, Ga., and Atlanta. The victims were clothed in rags and their faces pinched from hunger. Names unknown.

—Some Circassians attempted on Sunday to assassinate the sultan of Turkey. A woman divulged the plot, and the Albanian bodyguard met and defeated the Circassians in the vicinity of the sultan's apartments. Several men were killed.

—The report of Prof. Dawson upon the coal deposits in the Bow and Belly river districts, North-west territory, contains an approximate estimate of the quality of coal which can be easily mined. The extent and richness of the coal fields guarantee an abundant supply of fuel in these districts for many years.

—A pamphlet entitled "Russia and War," published at Pesth, has excited considerable sensation. The author is a prominent member of the Hungarian opposition. He asserts that ever since the Berlin congress Russia has been determined on war with Austria, and that the latter's army is numerically inadequate.

—The mayor of Boston, who is a democrat, has received the following letter: "Mayor Palmer,—I am going to kill old Gov. Butler in five months and twenty-eight days from to-day. Then I will chose you for governor of old Massachusetts. I sent him warning. I have sworn it. CHAS. GUITEAU 2nd." It is probably a hoax.

—The appeal of Grant v. Beaudry has been dismissed by the supreme court on the ground of insufficiency of notice. The court declined to express any opinion upon the legality of the Orange association in Quebec, and Mr. Justice Gwyne censured censured the judges of the court of Queen's bench for exceeding their functions in expressing an opinion on the general question.

—The friends of Mr. Frechette, the tory M. P.-elect for Megantic, are much alarmed at the prospect of the disqualification of that gentlemen for corrupt practices, and strenuous efforts have been made to effect a compromise, and an offer has been made to allow Hon. George Irvine's return by acclamation if the petition is withdrawn and Mr. Frechette saved from the disgrace of disqualification. The offer has been declined, and very little doubt remains that Mr. Frechette will be disqualified.

—The prisoner Mann, the Hawkesbury murderer, at the preliminary investigation wore the same indifferent air and throughout the progress of the trial seemed to be uninterested in its particulars, in fact he appeared to be more absorbed in studying the facial expressions of two young ladies whose curiosity led them to occupy seats in the justice hall, than in listening to the testimony of the witness. So deepy engaged in this direction was he that on more than one occasion when he met their gaze he smiled interestingly.

—Twenty-one persons, including a member of the municipality, were arrested in Dublin on Friday night on a charge of conspiracy to murder certain members of the police force. Two of the conspirators turned approvers, and seventeen of the number were subjected to a private enquiry at Dublin castle, the result of which was their committal on the above charge. Two of the prisoners are alledged to have been concerned in the Phœnix park murders, and it is announced that behind the house of one of these the police found what are believed to be the identical knives used by the assassins on that occasion.

—Some months ago a young man named Kelly, of Ottawa, found his teeth falling out through inhalation of sulphur fumes while employed in Eddy's match factory. On examination by a dentist it was also discovered his jaw-bones were decaying from the same cause. All his teeth were extracted, but the progress of decay not being stopped, a Montreal surgeon was consulted, and the latter decided that one of the upper jaw bones should be removed and replaced by a silver plate. Mr. Kelly underwent the operation, which was successfully performed. Thirty-two doctors and medical students witnessed the operation, Mr. Kelly has returned home, and is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

—A cablegram to a New York paper says the rumours of a probable outbreak of war between Russia and Austria with a contingent prospect of Germany joining in, and possibility of France becoming involved, are apparently without foundation. Whatever the future may bring forth, at present there is no casus belli between Austria and Russia, and none whatever between Germany and Russia. There is a standing cause of quarrel, however, between the Austro-Hungarians and Russian governments. Austria and Russia, since the treaty of Berlin, have been in a state of latent hostility as to which should have paramount influence in the Balkan peninsula. During the past twelve months unaccredited Russian diplomatic agents have been busy in France, and fairer and more seductive influence has been at work endeavouring to obtain from France an assurance that the aggressive policy of Russia will be supported by France, but without success.

—The emperor and empress of Russia on their arrival at St. Petersburg last week visited the Kasan fortress and cathedral. An increased number of detectives and spies have been placed around the Winter Annitichkoff palace, and strict orders have been issued to hotel proprietors to watch new-comers.

—One of our best citizens would say to the public that he has tried Hall's Catarrh Cure, and it is all that is claimed for it. Price, 75cts. per bottle.—15-13.

Rest and Comfort to the Suffering.

"BROWN'S HOUSEHOLD PANACEA" has no equal for relieving pain, both internal and external. It cures pain in the side, back or bowels sore throat, rheumatism, toothache, lumbago and any kind of pain or ache. "It will most surely quicken the blood and heal, as its acting power is wonderful." "Brown's Household Panacea," being acknowledge as the great Pain Reliever, and of double the strength of any other Elixir or Liniment in the world, should be in every family handy for use when wanted, "as it really is the best remedy in the world for cramps in the stomach, and pains and aches of all kinds;" and is for sale by all druggists at 25 cents a bottle.—72-1y.

A Physical Wreck.

A hacking cough saps the physical constitution not alone because it destroys the tissue of the lungs and developes tubercles which corrode and destroy them, but also because it ruins rest and impairs digestion. How important, therefore, is a resort to judicious medication to stay its ravages. A total physical wreck must inevitably ensue without this. In the choice of a remedy the pulmonary invalid is sometimes misled by specious representations, to the serious prejudice of his bodily well-being. The only safe resort is a tried and highly sanctioned remedy. The credentials of Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda entitle it to the place it occupies, namely, that of the foremost cough medicine and lung invigorant sold on this continent. The testimony of veteran physicians, and a popularity based on merit, combine to give it the prestige of a standard medicine. In cases of asthma, weak chest and lungs, bronchitis, laryngitis and other throat and lung complaints, it may be implicitly relied upon.—19-eow-21.
