MILLINERY!

Fashion has many changes but many of the changes of Fashion are born of necessity. It is thus that Furs, Wraps and winter head wear are laid saids and SPRING MILLIN-ERY is welcomed. Fashion insists, too, that its votaries shall have new goods to adorn themselves and not the shop worn goods of a past season.

I have equipped our Millinery Rooms with a variety and assortment double that of former seasons. And though our MILLINERY OPENING is not just yet, oustomers have every opportunity for examining the goods with comfort

The ample space affords unusual display for comparison and selection. Everything in the way of tasteful, novel, Inshionable and elegant Millinery goods and superior trimmings in every grade of excellence.

The true art of Millinery is not only the creation of some beautiful form of head dress, but in the selection and adaptation of some leading style to each particular counten-

Indies visiting our Show Rooms will find a large assortment of newest and most fashionable Hats and Bonnets and will be assisted and guided in the selection of suitable and

While our customers' wishes as to shape, style, trimmings and make up are minutely followed, we also offer the assistance that skill, taste, and technical ability enable us to

We would add that in addition to opening a complete stock we have taken special pains to place within the reach of persons of moderate means stylish and snitable goods. Every reasonable desire in the way of MILLINERY we onn satisfy.

tures on the first three evenings of this week in the opera house, under the auspices of the St. Paul's church building fund committee. The audiences were not as large as they should have been. The lectures were accompanied with very fine lime-light views of Arctic places and events in the exploration—all of surpassing interest, particularly those relating to the Franklin expedition and the finding of the last traces. On the second evening Com. Cheyne explained at much length his plan of reaching the north pole by balloons. On the third evening the lecture was devoted mainly to Egypt and other eastern places. Altogether the lectures proved a very pleasing sories.

make itself heard, has been created at the City Store. Such loads of lovely goods at such extremely low prices must make a noise and speak to the public with an earnestness and truthfulness that will beget confidence. It is the intention to both surprise and delight you with our grand display of new and fashion able Dress Fabrics and trimmings to match in every

We have added Millinery, Mantle and Dressmaking to our business this season, and will announce our grand general opening of these departments in next week's Post, when we hoped to be favoured with aninspection from everybody. In the meantime if you require any Millinery, Mantles or Dresses made to order in a style you have never dreamt of before at prices that will put a lovely smile on every lady's face, come to the City Store.

Our stock is the largest, our prices the lowest and our system of business exclusively cash. Come and see us: we will treat you with courtesy and politeness whether you buy or not. We have an unusually large stock of Carpets, Oil Cloths, Mats, Mattings, Lace Curtains and general house furnishings at close in the Merchant Tailoring Department of the CITY TAILORING HOUSE OF LINDSAY. We have determined to make every suit we turn out this season a walking advertisement and a convincing argument for us as regards quality, style, fit finish and low prices, thereby creating a sensation among the male population for fine, elegantly fitted, skilfully made and artistic cut garments that was never known before. We are better prepared than ever in this department and arise with a more determined effort than hitherto to give our patrons perfect satisfaction and the best possible value for their toadskins.

N. B. please note the dressmaking department is conducted entirely under our own management. We have secured the services of an experienced City Dressmaker and gnarantee satisfaction.

We have the largest range of imported and domestic woollens to select from. Our English, Scotch, Irish, French and German Suitings, Trouserings, Vestings, and Coatings are all in stock and we have the facilities for executing our orders promptly and efficiently. We keep two cutters constantly cutting garments, and employ more men manufacturing clothing than all the other stores in Lindsay combined. Please dot these facts down, and when you want to buy your spring suit make a bee-line for the City Tailoring House of Lindsay where you can get best suited, capped, hatted, collared, tied, shirted, socked, braced and buttoned at prices that knock the socks off everything. We are not pugilistically inclined so we cannot boot you. Come and see us and when we have fitted you out with everything else you require we will direct you where you will get booted at
