Communication received. From Mr. A. O'Leary, P.M., asking for alterations and improvements in the police silowed in the town, instead of four, as in court room, to give larger accommodation. Referred to committee on town prop-

From Mrs. F. Baldwin, asking that cerhain amounts of back taxes be comitted. From Mr. Jas, Hamilton, asking for exemption from taxes in his carriage mannfacturing business, in accordance with the resolution passed by the council in support of the arrangement made with the committee on manufactures. He now employed the number of hands called for. Referred to the finance committee. From A. O'Leary and others, petitioning for improvements on Colbornest., and that the ditches along Colborne and Adelaidests, be deepened to carry off flow of water, which accumulated in the spring. Referred to street and bridge committee.

From Mr. B. F. Jewett, giving a list of taxes amounting to $123.81, due against persons from whom it was impossible to Reeve DEVENS on behalf of the committee appointed to look after some means of regulating the town time, asked for a wrok's delay, at which time there would be a scheme brought forward.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMUNICES. Reeve Dracon, as chairman of the finance committee, laid on the table detail. tures of the town for the last year. Also the auditors' report and tabulated statements dealing with the floancial position of the last year, $360.—The motion was carried.

of the town. In connection with the finance report, a coport from the town auditors was read. stating that a large number of police fines were uncollected. Alany of these were of we years standing. The report recom-mended that the defaulters be notified; and if not then paid the names be published in one of the town papers. Reeve Divices pointed out that this A by-law was introduced extending the matter had been under discussion two time for the collection of the balance of years ago, and that the question of outstanding times was referred to a commitseveral cases, and up to the present time the warrants had no been returned. The finding of a later committee had been that no one fully understood whose duty it was to collect these fines from time to The financial committee recommended that a book be got and a record kept of police court transactions, and all Anes must be paid to the town treasurer each week. It seems that this had not been done, and the arrearages had accumument of a few accounts. A paragraph of the report stated that a number of arrestages due on livery stable ticenses had been pand in to the treasurer. Heeve Dracon read an elaborate comparative statement of the expenditure of the town during the years 1881 and 1882, showing a cush balance in favor of the town of $1,179.85, at end of year.—On mo-tion the r port of the finance committee

BEMFFFINIS TATES The question of remitting the sums of the collector was taken up and discussed. Reeve the council going into committee, Coun. Crandell in the chair. The collector, Mr. B. F. Jewett, was lost.

The taxes of Lawrence Duke, $13.58, were ordered to be registered against the land, and that he have two months to redeem it. The committee rose and reported the above remissions, and instructed the treasurer to credit the collector with the amounts which had been remitted. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TOWN PROP-

The report of this committee on the im provements in the market buildings, amounting to $272.95, was read by Coun. Winters, chairman. The details of the Glass, Patty. Paints and report gave the items of expenditure on the refitting of the butter market; the ceiling and sheeting of the additional room; the platform and railing in the council chamber, and other matters.

Coun. ConnoLLY asked for the items of expenditure, seriatim.

Coun. WINTERS said that the committee had had the items before them, and had checked and compared the accounts.

Coun. Crandel questioned the economy of the committee in expending the money. He had brought a copy of the bill of expenses of this job with him, and also a corresponding bill got up by a practical mechanic. He was here to do justice and how through the land. He did not wink at anything. Not much not any. The at anything. Not much; not any. The councillor went on to read the bill and to comment on the items, which he averred vere elastic. He referred to an estimate he had made, and claimed that $114.55 more had been paid for the work than it should have cost. And the work had been done without asking for tenders, which would have got the work done lower. He expected the council to keep their hands clean, and to give poor men a chance to get a share of work and not gobble everything up; and read from a Toronto paper an item of news regarding pulling the wires in the city council. He denounced the expenditure as extravagant and uncalled for. Dep.-Reeve Inche asked Coun. Crandell to read out his estimate again, which he did. The estimated expense, as held by Conn. Crandell, was $108.32.

Dep. Reeve INGLE said that Conn. Crandell allowed nothing for carpenter work. and even at the councillor's own figures he did not show anything like what he con-

A noisy contention followed. Coun. Crandell wanted to know the why and wherefore. He wanted to know more. He insisted on being posted, and said he would keep on the track of these contracts. Coun. Weese said that the work was done under the direction of the chairman of the town property committee of last

Coup. WINTERS denied that the committee had paid the amounts without authority. The account had came before authority. The account had came before the council, and had been referred back to the committee to be paid if correct. The committee had examined thoroughly all the accounts and found them satisfac FINANCIAL REPORT RESUTTING TAXES tory. As far as he was concerned, he had done the painting for Mr. Cook, and not for the council. The charges for the joiner and carpenter work were reasonable, and the material was bought as low as it could be got.

the members of the Mechanics' Institute had concected that thing for the purpose of getting more members.

Dep.-Reeve McLennan said he believed that the council, in adding to the number of licenses to be allowed, were moving backwards. He did not object to the game, but from the associations and sur-roundings the effect was evil. Mayor WALLACE was in favor of allowing the Institute to put in such tables as they desired.

The committee rose and reported, and the by-law was ordered to be signed and

The matter was discussed at some length, the council being of the opinion that owing to arrangements made with Mr. Bradburn the charge could not be made. The matter was left over until the next meeting.

Tenders for the position were considered by the council in committee, and that of Dr. Herriman, being the lowest,

Coun. Winters gave a verbal report as to the cost of desks and fittings for the council room, the amount necessary being about $100. Upon putting a proposition to go on and put in the furniture was lost

The council then adjourned.
