PERLIN.
 [Correspondence of The Post.]
 Ont.—John McNabb, an old resident, died last week at the advanced age of seventy-five. He was very much respected.

LUTTERWORTH IRON MINES.
 [Correspondence of The Post.]
 Recovered. We are happy to note the recovery of our teacher. School opened last week.

NOT YET BANNISHED.
 The measles are not entirely banished. The children of Mr. Foster (keeper of the boarding house) have them. All others are recovering as fast as could be expected.

NEW MILL.
 There is some talk of building a new shingle mill at Park's Dump on the Victoria railway.

LAWYERS.
 Some honours have been running in the woods here lately. Hunter and his party were out on a hunt. They found the horse north of Derryville, minus its rider. Who the party was that took it is as yet a mystery.

PERSONAL.
 Mr. James Conboy, who has been living in Michigan for the past few years, has sailed for his native land. He is looking well and speaks of going farming in Thorah.

SUNDERLAND.
 [Correspondence of The Post.]
HORSE STOLEN.
 Last Thursday morning Mr. John Valentine found on entering his stable that one of his horses had been taken the previous night. He at once telegraphed to different parts, and having secured the assistance of Constable Wadell, started in search of the robber.

MANILLA.
 [Correspondence of The Post.]
 A PATIENT. According to a very sad accident occurred near this village on Monday, the 16th. Mr. Hugh Carmichael and several others were sawing wood on Mr. R. Edwards' farm, when the log rolled from the place and broke his leg below the knee. Both bones were badly broken. He was taken home and Dr. Luke with the assistance of Dr. Rundle promptly dressed the wound. The patient is now doing well.

BOHAYGIRON.
 The London World says that after a day's fatiguing exercise the right food, restorative and nourishing because of its richness, is a tame duck braised with turnips. Right you are, dear World. We can strongly recommend it as a suggestion for this our regular grub. Only as a rule we dispense with the duck.
