Sulphur and Iron Bitters.

Oh, my Back!

is a miserable ... in the small ...

The Canadian Post.

be formally acquitted on a charge of complicity and will then be re-arrested on a charge of murder.

Farmers in Hoaquet township are setting trees along the sides of the public roads. This is a good move and in a very few years they will amply repay the trouble of planting by their grateful shade to man and beast, and by the added beauty to farms and roads.

—A pamphlet has been distributed throughout St. Petersburg in which is reproduced the programme for self-government claimed by the moderate party. The Journal de St. Petersburg says: "None but a strong government, in which the emperor shall hold power and his subjects meet him with loyal confidence, can advance towards the solution of this greatest of problems. Such a government only can deal with the work of completely organizing the country, and it alone need not shrink from granting freedom to the people."

An English battleship in the harbour at Carthagena, Spain, recently hoisted at the main mast head the Union Jack. The flag was green with a red cross in the centre. At the same time she was flying a small French flag at her foremast. The English consul sent a message to order the captain to lower the French flag, but the messenger met with no encouragement on the vessel. The consul then summoned the assistance of the Spanish coast guard, and eventually a party of armed sailors boarded the vessel, and removed the objection[able] flag. An enquiry has been instituted into the circumstances of the affair.

A Nihilist conspiracy is said to exist among the whole force of the Russian government, and the most intelligent foreigners have concentrated at St. Petersburg numerous detectives, the Nihilists having a large force of their own there, and enrolled supporters in St. Petersburg where their members are greatly increasing, and there were at the coronation officials and other under the orders of the Nihilists more ready to the czar to have struck him on the brow if the word had been given. It was even feared that some ... might throw a ...

Thursday Evanson, the young man who ... two years ago from the Whitby hospital while suffering from [illegible] case, has [illegible] discovered, ... [illegible] ... Although ... [illegible] ... which ... [illegible] ... he ... [illegible] ... which ... [illegible] ... he ... [illegible] ... which ... [illegible] ... he