The Canadian Lost.

LINDSAY, FINDAY, JUNE IS 1889. Ministra's Salaries.

The month of June has been designated the evelousastest month of Canada, as meeting of that institution is now awaited that is the month in which the synods and with almost as much interest as the budget conferences generally meet. It is no doubt speech of the stance minister. This is indispensibly accesses that such mather mainly owing to the fact that Mr. Smithers ings should take place, as in no other way has not confined his remarks simply to the can it be accordanced what the state of the laffairs of the bank, but has made a comchurch is. The Methodist church is prehensive review of the general business seculiar for its statistical records. At the and thancial situation, Last year he hung rarious district meetings each minister out the danger signal, and his warning presents his schedule, on which there is a seas headed. This year he thinks the situgreat amount of figures relating to all the ation has improved, though great care departments of his field, which are tabulate abouted still be exercised, and much deon by the accretary and forwarded to con- pends on the coming harrest. Mr. Smithference, where a full record is made of the pretakes a hopeful view of the outlook, and sed the opinion that the so-called "Ex-Priest Loranger, then lecturing in Mariposa on the "kirrors of Romanism, was a fraud and an impostor. This opinion was challenged with much vigor and biteruses by some, but in due course it was established to the natisfaction of most people that the "ex-prient" was not what he slatmed to be. Some good people thought THE FORT was "pandering" to the Cathoites in expecing the fellow, but others took the sensible and proper view expressed by the Nev. Mr. Noy that THE Port was doing the Protestants a valuable service, as it put a stop to the operations of the impostor and prevented him from bringing them into more trouble and dispute. Several Orangemen took strong ground in supfort of the ex-priest, and one or two them were active in writing against TH Port's exposure. But the "ex-priest" ha as last got to the ead of his tether. A Orange lodge in Lucan publishes in th Orange Sentinel of June 7th the aubjoine resolutions and letter. We commend then to the careful attention of the Orang brethren in Maripona, Brock and elue where, who took the "ex-priest" into thei folds. We trust our good friend, Mr.T.W. Dodds of Sonya, will now acknowledge that Title Poer was right. Some others whom we might name will also take the same view. The Warder posed for a while as the "ex-priest" organ, but it will now give him a "hoist" a "six month's hoist."

"EX-PRIMIT" LORANGER.

ORANGE LODGES CAUTIONED TO SEWARE OF HIM-FULL AND SCATHING EXPOSURE OF THE IMPOSTOR BY THE RECTOR OF

The rector of Lucan is an Orangement so that it cannot be said that he is man, so that it cannot be said that he is one of those knows he church ministers with "romanizing tendencies." We may add that the date of the resolution in the Orange Sentinel should be 183 and not 182. We communicated with the Sentinet, as the error is obvious, and receive reply to that effect.

Father St. Vincent De Lovanger, Alie Father Joseph. [Orange Sentinel, June 7.]

Hy request we publish the following copy of certain resolutions which were unanimously passed at the last regular meeting of Brooke I. O. I. No. 716, concerning the ex-priest Loranger, and also a copy of a letter sent by Rev. T. W. Magaby. of Lucan, to William II. Roane, worship-tul master of L. O. L. No. 746;-

Whereas, the man known by the title of Vincent A. De V. Loranger, ex-R.C. priest, a Frenchmen who claims to have abandoned the Roman Catholic faith and left that enomination in the county of Emex, in the year 1891, and who has been recently lecturing in this neighborhood as a mis-sionary in the interests of the Presbyterian church, and as an advocate of Orange ism, and who did assail the Anglican or Episcopal church by mirepresenting it, and did charge her with telerating and teaching Romish doctrines, and who did also assail the Methodist church after wards when in Alliston, as we are credi-

And whereas, we have heard him make several take statements otherwise, and have subsequently been assured of the fact that he had previously applied for Holy orders in the Church of England, and w with Rev. Bro. Magaby, of Lucan, for over a month as candidate on trial for the ministry, and as Rev. Bro. Magaby has sent Brother Roane a written statement concerning the ex-priest, with his consent to publish his letter at our pleasure.
And whereas, we the members of this lodge, assembled under warrant as members and adherents of the various Protestant churches, having due respect for the religious views of our brethren, cannot apreageous views of our overlines, cannot approve of the course pursued by Mr. Loran, ger in disparaging any of the Protestant churches and charging them falsely, and as we believe him to be insincere as a Protestant, and as we think that he has some secret motive for following the course has be adopted and motive for following the course. he has adopted, and wishes to deceive rotestants that he may attain his object.

Resolved,—That we do send a copy of Bro. Magaby's letter, and also of our resolutions to the publishers of the Sentinel, 'he Guide-News, London Heraid, and Free Fress for publication, and respectfully request the publishers of other papers, more especially the official papers of the various religious denominations, to copy the same.

ently cantion the members of the Loyal Orange Association to beware of him, and entreat them not to give him any tentimonials of credentials with their signa-ture or the seal of their lodge attached, or afford him any means which he may here-ster make any use of to impose upon l'rotestante.

WM. SUTTON, Secretary.

Letter from the Rector of Lucau. HOLY THINTY CHURCH RECTORY, LA CAN, May 1st, 1883. We. H. ROANE, King. Dear Sir. Your favor

prise me that the so-called ex-priest, Father Vincent Deloranger, would say or do, and I think you will be of the same opinion when you know him as well as I do. No man could be more anxious to join any church than he was to join the church of England, and when I told him that the chances of his being received into the Church of England were very sim, he said "he would no right back to his Prosbyterian friends." I said to him, "go by all means, and at once, if they went you to." He then turned round and said, "he would rather be in the Church of England," At the same time he added. "I will stop with you size or twelve months, or as long as you please, the you are fully satisfied with me. I will not no less and no more." Then without my heave, the you are fully satisfied with me. I will not not less and no more. "Then without my heaveledge he wrote to the blabop and ashed his letters which the bishop did: and then the adventurer turns about on the church that would not receive him and spends his strength for naught, for neither the church nor myself regards his false speeds. We have nothing to fear from the sinaderer. Time would fail me to give particulars of his ability to falsery. His utter disregard for truth led me to ignore him, and were it not for the secred cause of religious and Protestantism, I would not spend a moment of precious time speaking or writing about him. He went dews to Showbottom Setliement in London township, two nights, and told the people he was giving the proceeds of both lectures to me in aid of our rectors fund. Only a few weeks ago, the very man with whom he stopped as a guest at the locture down there? I never received a cent from him. Father V, said in the process of Mr. Win. Gibson, in Mr. Jacksen's honce near Trowbridge, that I wrote to the bishop to give me another garish, that I was straid to stay in facens." Why, I never once though of such a thing. I have a very important jurish of such as the first of the straid to stay in facens." Why, I never once though of more with sites of such a bear investigation in the granter of the relies of incenting the said. "I wish you would give me a few line, I am goin, in ye see, to use his own works, it is structured. I anxious to join any church than he was to join the church of England, and when I told him rector of great standing. I have been in the discrete of Huran nearly franteen years. Since I entered the stored ministry I denot run about; it is a bud sign for men to be always moving stout, especially when they go from had to worse. I have not entered much into particulars about the man, although I might well do so and write by the hour, stating nothing but facts that would startle the minds of right thinking people, so matter what branch of the christian church they belonged to. I deem it my important duty to warn the christian public to bewere of the man known by the name of rather Vincent Indoranger, alias Father Joseph. Thanking you for your letter. I remain, my dear sir, yours very truly.

N. M. You have my full consent to publish this letter is any paper you and your ledge please, throughout the Dominion or the world. I only state facts which I can prove. T.W.M.
