

THOS. ROBSON,

FATHER.

CASH FOR HIDES!

I am pleased to PAY CASH for any number of

FEET AND STOESdelivered at the Old and Well-known store, Waterford, Ontario. Premium paid and HIGHEST PRICE always for all kinds of leather.

Leather to be shipped by railroads.

I have decided to start a good line of the instruments of shoemaking. My line will be well-arranged and of the best quality and will be convinced.

THOS. ROBSON.

May 20, 1883. 1813.

Publisher's Notice.

THE CANADIAN POST or PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING at the printing office, Keenagh Block, foot of Main Street, Lindsay.

ADMISSION RATES: ten cents per line each subscription. Advertising Rates known on application. Notices in lead or other columns not less than five cents each sub-scription. Less than five lines for a single column. Charge for other accounts set and money in every issue monthly. Printed temper of delivery of printing on first insertion of advertisement.

CHAS. D. PAIR,
Editor and Proprietor.
Lindsay, May 2, 1883.The Canadian Post.

LINDSAY, FRIDAY, JUNE 22, 1883.

LOCAL NEWS-LETTERSEDWARD T. BROWN, Editor of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN, We learn with grief that our esteemed townsmen, Mr. Edward Wilson, left this week for Delaware, U.S., to enter the business of fruit evaporating. Mr. Wilson has been doing business in this place for the past seven years and has made a success of his business and his family has raised the good will of the community where such men always make their mark.

JOHN F. GARNETT,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
An old man, Mr. John Wallace, of Penetanguishene, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very

fine. Crops looking splendid.

J. E. COOPER,
Correspondent of the Post.EDWARD T. BROWN,
Last evening Mr. John Wallace, an old man, 75 years of age, was admitted to the infirmary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday evening. He was passing the time in his room when the accident happened. The fall was so violent that he

was unable to get up again. His son, Mr. Edward Wilson, is out

with a fever. Weather warmer. Crop very