ALL ABOUT THE MARA WIDOWS -- Your correspondent "Fair Play," of "Maple Hill," Mara, as place that has no existence outside of the hald head of "Fair Play") wrongfully accuses your Uptergrove and Darrymple correspondents of amusing your readers at the expense of the widows of There is no expense in connection with this well managed concern—all it requires is incorporation by act of parliament. It is in fact a sort of a free "marriage aid association" without the pickings of the latter. Had it been in existence "Fair Play" would have had the pleasure of merely wooing but never winning one of our buxom widows long ere the hair be-tween him and heaven had disappeared. We are proud of the Mara widows, their charms and virtues are many, therefore we were constrained to sing their praises, and it Senator Burr x Plumb was here he would join in the chorus, and we will continue to sing their praises to the Little

CANNINGTON.

[Correspondence of The Post.] A GRAND CELEBRATION .- The Orangemen of the county of Ontario have decided to celebrate the 12th of July in this village. An invitation has been extended to the lodges in North and South Victoria, and not a few have signified their intention of assisting the brethren in this county. A committee consisting of Messrs, Wilson and Sinclair of this village waited on Mr. White, traffic manager Midland railway, Peterboro, and succeeded in making suitthle arrangements with the failway company for the day. In addition to the regular trains carrying passengers at one fare two special trains have been secured, one to leave Sutton and call at all intermediate stations and arrive in Cannington one hour later than the regular morning train: the other will leave Coboconk an hour later then usual and arrive about ten. As the Wick branch will be opened the brethren from Little Britain and Cakwood will come by the regular morning train. Sharp's grove, a little south of the village, has been secured and the speaking and entertainment will take place there. As Messars. Marshall, Revnolds and Sincisis of this village have charge of the entertainment it is needless to say that it will be well looked after, and they have now secured the best string hand in the county. Large posters have been issued and a few days previous to and on the 12th small dodgers containing the program and full particucome by the regular morning train. Sharp's

The band will also be in attandance and contribute M. Osterhaut of Brighton was in the bute to the evening's enterthinment.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Bulley, for some time accountant in the Standard Bulls, has been accountant in the Standard Bulls, has been removed to the new branch new opening is Brighton. Mr. McGaw of Port Perry takes his place here.

LACROSSE MATCH.—The Caunington lacrosse club will cross sticks with the Woodville club on the 2nd of July on the grounds of the latter. grounds of the latter.

BEAVERTON. PURCHASED.—Mr. D. H. McRae has pur-chased from F. W. McRae the beautiful homestead on the lake shore near the vilage for the sum of $8,000. SWAMPED.-Much land in the vicinity has been completely swamped from the rains and grave fears are entertained as to the result of the grain crops. OBIT.—The "grim measenger" has been visiting among our aged inflabitants lately. Mrs. Arch. Gillies of town line Thorab and Eldon, died last week after a residence Thorah of fifty years.....Mr. John Mc-orthur, another aged citizen, and Mr. W. Underdown have passed away. The latter had been a resident for nearly fifty years and died very suddenly. He was fishing on the morning of the day he died.

The Whitby Gazette says the egg trade at that point is considerable. So far this year about 90,000 dozen have been handled there, of these 62,733 dozen valued at $9,141, were shipped to the States between the 17th of April and 5th of June. About 16, 000 doz. went to Montreal, Toronto and other Canadian points, and the balance were consumed by the local trade. This speaks well for the enterprise of Whitby mer

-The Port Hope News says: Mr. Gillard, of the Summit station, saved a fellow from an almost certain death a day or two ago. He was waiting at the station with a bundle under each arm. As the train came in from the north he ran to jump on the first car. Mr. Gillard observed the motion and grabbed him. Had he jumped he could not have caught the railing on the car, but would certainly have fallen between the platform and the train with prospects of being carried under the wheels.

-A rad accident occurred at Myersburg on Thursday morning, causing the death of a young woman named Kessler, daughter of a Mr. Campbell of Norham. The young woman, with her husband, who were on their return home after having been mar-married at Campbell ford that morning, stopped to give their horses some water. The young man took the bits out of their mouths, and left them standing while he went to get some water. During his absence the horses became restive, and the young woman, being much frightened, endeavored to get out of the buggy, but fell and broke her neck, and expired instant-
