LINDSAY, FRIDAY, JULY 13, 1883, THE SOUTH VICTORIA ELEC-TION CASE.

Notwithstanding the wild and extravagant charges of bribery and corruption made against the successful reform candidate in the recent local election, and the repeated boasts that he would be unseated of this desirable union will be much longer without the least difficulty, the case delayed. against Mr. McIntyre resulted in a complete and humiliating fizzle. Not one of the hundred and ten charges set out with considerable detail was able to stand a few minutes investigation in court. The result was somewhat of a surprise to the judges. It seemed to them not unlikely that out of such a long list of charges there would be a few things that were illegal, if not corrupt; and when they found that the election had been properly and purely conducted on the reform side they extended their warm congratulations to the candidate and his supporters, as well as to the riding. The result is no surprise to us and to others who were active in the campaign on the reform side. It is a made up. The charge was promptly dissource of surprise and amazement to the conservative wire-pullers and leaders in town who took a part in working up the protest. They have been accustomed to indulge in corrupt and illegal acts, and the fact that the reform candidate could conduct a campaign honorably and properly, and still win, passed their comprehension. It is quite true that a great many conservatives did not approve of the protest, and did not take much stock in it. The responsibility for the proceeding is now thrown on a few in Lindsay. These men must have known the flimsy nature of the charges; but they were determined to go ahead, with the hope that something fatal to the respondent might be fished out during the progress of the investigation. Quite a number of respectable conservative voters were charged with being bribed. and charged, too, up on grounds of the flimsiest kind. Such charges have natufally caused a igood! deal of indignation on the part of the voters so charged and their friends. We do think that a little more care—not on the part of the petitioner, for he was ready to put his hand to anything —but on the part of those local tories who got up the case, might have saved a good many voters the indignity heaped upon them. The voters have gone out of court the had received $125 from him that Mr. Titus and Mr. Stanley, the petitioners, were uccurring him (Mr. Ferris, cose and stated that a short time before he had been sent for by Morrison) to sever their head received $125 from him the Mr. Titus and Mr. Stanley, the petitioners, were uccurring him (Mr. Ferris) to treat the electors. Morrison them. The voters have gone out of court with unstained characters, and the indignity and the humiliation have been put upon the rightful parties who broughts foundationless charges. The judges very estrongly consured the bringing of the closes respect, from which we quote charges saided the table. Mr. Stanley, the petitioner's side of the table. Mr. Stanley was observed while Mr. Ferris that he did not want to go into the box for any such purpose. tried to use the "influence" of his company, and, finding that it failed, tried to foist the charges on Mr. McIntyre! We think it is to be regretted that Mr. McQuade did not save his Emily friends from the indignities put upon them by the Lindsay tories. He owed them that much at the very least; and if he had put his foot down he could have stopped the reckless.

In the Welland case against Col. Morin, liberal, a man named Chrysler testified that he had been given $7 out of $10 promised for his vote. The $7 was said to have been given by Mr. Guinter, an active supporter of Col. Morin, in Haney's mill, and was stated to have been dropped on the floor such a way that Chrysler knew what was "up" and got it. Guinter denied this statement, point blank and Haney and another witness gave corroborative testimony. Judges Patterson and Ferguson decided that the evidence was worthless, and both severely censured Chrysler and the manner in which the story had been

After three days investigation at Cobourg before Judges Boyd and M. C. Cameron in the East Northumberland election case against Mr. Ferris, Mr. Hector Cameron for the petitioner had to ask and beseech for an adjournment. The petitioner was not showing anything except what looked like very hard swearing by some evidently questionable characters. A peculiar and locally characteristic incident marked the second day's proceedings. Mr. Hector Camer on, who was plainly feeling that his case was very weak, rose and read an affidavit by the petitioner, stating that his solicitor had been informed in a letter just received from his clerk in Brighton that G. Morrison the bar tender who gave evidence the first day, could swear that the respondent had given money to him (Morrison) to spend in treating the electors. Mr. Bethune objected. He charged Mr. Titue, petitioner's solicitor, with having approached Morrison and endeavoured to persuade him to swear

A New Band.—A new band has been organized in this village, called the Trent Valley canal band. No instruments are to be used in this band except cow-bells, tin horns, flutes, and drums. The hours for practice are from midnight to daylight. A BIG LIME KILN.- The Pulp Mill company, finished their lime kiln last week, and commenced burning lime on Monday. The kiln is 18 ft square, and 24 ft high, but with wood sheds, etc, attached, measures 54 feet square. The hearth in front of the kiln, is 16 ft by 54 ft. In addition to this, a building 16 ft by 31 ft is to be built, in which the surplus lime will be kept until needed. The total cost will be about $3,000, and it is said it will pay for itself in six weeks. It will burn ten bushels of lime an hour. The pulp works, will require about 1,759 bushels a month, the remainder, 5,250 bushels, will find a ready market. Personal.—At the recent entrance examination here Miss Mary Prior, of s. s. No. 19, succeeded in winning an important laurel. There were fifty candidates writing, many of whom were her seniors in years, yet she obtained the highest number of marks in the important subject of grammar. This is very creditable to Miss Prior and her teacher, Mr. Herron.... Our brigade of teachers are home for their vacation, with some additions from outside places. Among others Mrs. Stone, from East Peterboro, is staying at her cousin's, Mr. Gurnston's; Mr. and Mrs. Drader, Petrolia, and Mrs. Edwin Housey, of Housey's Rapids, Ryde, are visiting at Mr. W. A. SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The second quarterly examination of the Uptergrove public school, was held on Friday, July 6th. The attendance of ratepayers was not as large as it should have been, owing to the amount of road work just then being done. Among those present were the Rev. Mr. Robinson, Atherley, Miss Gatting, Uptergrove, Messrs J. Malone, teacher, Brechin, and J. W. Hart, teacher, Point Mara. Shortly after one o'clock p. m. the examination was opened by Mr. Gillespie, the teacher, and was conducted by himself, the rev. gentleman, and the other self, the rev. gentleman, and the other teachers, present. At the close of the exercise addresses were delivered by a number of the gentlemen present. The different classes were thoroughly examined and the manner in which the pupils acquitted themselves was creditable indeed. Many of them distinguished themselves not only by the correctness of their answers, but also in the manner in which they compiled them, speaking volumes for the energy and efficiency of their teacher. The work on which the upper classes were examined was of a more advanced class. examined was of a more advanced class than that done in the majority of public schools.
