LINDSAY, FRIDAY, JULY 27, 1889. AN APPEAL IN THE SOUTH VICTORIA CASE.

What has come over our conservative friends in Lindsay who are managing the South Victoria protent? Are they posessed with some cvil spirit? They have been foaming about seeking whom they might devour, and seem to be unabashed by complete and humiliating failure at every turn and point. The spirit of unrest that animates the souls of a few of the tory wire-pullers in town has not been communicated to the party at large, to its credit he it said, for great numbers of respectable conservatives have assured us and by the Great North-Western Co. in and our friends that they "took no stock" in the protest and did not approve of the attempt of a few of the party leaders to unseat Mr. McIntyre, And they were gratified that Mr. Mointyre retained the seat after the honest and honorable manner he had fought the battle at the polls, The Lindsay wire-pullers have actually entered an appeal to the full court! One would have thought that they were heartily sick of going to law about the matter by this time. They applied for a recount and were going to reduce Mr. Mc-Intyre's majority to a minority, but they increased his total vote. They entered a "protest," and were going to make a fearful exhibition of "grit" bribery and corfuption; but here again they not only failed ignominiously, but some distinct revelations of corrupt and illegal practices on their own part were incidentally made. This was much more than they bargained

They have now entered an appeal on the ground (1) that the giving of the railway tickets by Mr. Hugh O'Leary and Mr. Thos. Stewart was a corrupt act; and (2) that the letter written by Mr. McIntyre to Duncan Carmichael regarding Mr. Carley, was an exercise of undue influence. With regard to the first allegation Mr.

Justice Patterson said "the giving of the "tickets had not affected the result of the election, and the evidence "clearly showed that there was no con-" nection between the three tickets given "to bring Caulin, Hoolihan and Mullens
"from Haliburton and any general system
"to supply voters with tickets." The charges in regard to that matter were therefore dismissed. Even if the charges were sustained by the court of appeal as an illegal practice it would not unseat the an illegal practice it would not unseat the member; and the only object of the tory wire-pullers now in going on with the case can be a hope that they may get Mr. Hugh O'Leary muleted in a $200 fine. Our tory friends are evidently determined to go for the O'Learys, the Mulcaheys and the Flahertys. The was consequently will have to be carried into Africa. It would be interesting to put the tory caudidate, the president and secretary of the conservative association and some others under a rigorous cross-examination as to their tured by the Warder, just as in illegal and corrupt practices! How would the case of the council meeting where they stand the ordeal? As they seem dis- Coun. Connolly was lied about and misreptremity it would only be fair to go for them a little. A turn about would be simply fair play. They are, of course, responsible in their individual and not mere. posed to push matters to the utmost ex- resented and then attacked for something sponeible in their individual and not mere- said he gave $10 to Hoolihan for his ex- well, and the same parties complained show a factions spirit.

The second charge at letter is simply absurd and frivolous. We are amased that the conservative council and camp could, after the strong censure of the judges, take this letter as the basis on this point should be read again:-

on this point should be read again:—

"Mr. Justice Patterson severely consured the petitioner for bringing such a charge, and exposing the private business affairs of Mr. Carley on such a filmsy pretext. He said with respect to the charge as appearing in the particulars, that of assistance to relieve Wm. Carley in regard to his liability on a mortgage to a loan company, the facts as stated were those upon which the petitioner had on Monday applied to amend the particulars, making the charge one of threatening and istimidation. There was no ground whatever for the charge. The letter had been received by Carmichael and produced in court, and certainly contained nothing in it warranting such a charge. Mr. Carmichael swore that he did not communicate the latter part of the letter to Mr. Carley, but even reading the whole letter it contained nothing whatever to suggest any connection with Mr. Carley's private business affairs, and he (the learned judge) could not dispose of the case without expressing his great regret that the private affairs of a gentleman like Mr. Carley should be made the subject of inquisitorial investigation in an election court, without the slightest protext in the evidence to connect him with the charge. How the petitioner could make such an affairs in the evidence to connect him with the charge. How the petitioner could make such an affairs of a gentleman for the court on Monday morning, or could bring himself to believe he had reasonable grounds for believing such a charge passed his comprehension. He thoughtit would be wrong to dispose of the charge without expressing his very strong disapproval of the course pursued in exposing the private affairs of a respectable citisen without the slightest protence of justification.

Mr. Justice Ferguson quite agreed with the remarks of Justice Patterson. Looking at the facts, the whole proceedings were improper and very tinfair to Mr. Carley. Such a course was reprehensible, and the provisions of the law showed it was an improper one.

reprehensible, and the provisions of the law showed it was an improper one The appeal will be heard in Toronto some time in September; and it is quite likely that the appellant will be sent out of court with a flea in his ear. WILLIAM ELDER.

We deeply regret to have to chronicle the sudden death of Hon. William Elder, provincial secretary of New Brunswick, and for many years editor and proprietor of the St. John Telegraph, the leading paper in the province. Mr. Elder was an able journalist, an earnest liberal, a friend and supporter of all good causes, and an active and public spirited citizen. He was a cap-marked capacity in public affairs, and was filling a position of great usefulness for which his fine talents fitted him and where he would undoubtly have won fameas statesman and political leader. He accompanied the Canadian Press excursion to Manitoba last year, and won the esteem of SAVINGS BANK all by his geniality and kindly demeanor. To many the news of his sudden death will come as a personal loss, for:-"None knew him but to love him, None named him but to praise,"

DOMINION BANK, LINDSAY. None named him but to praise, His genial presence was anticipated with pleasure at the coming reunion and his unexpected death at the age of sixty-two is universally regretted. His name, his work, his character, his many good qualities of heart and mind will cause him to be long remembered not merely in his own province, but by all others who knew him or

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Warder has a bad attack of O'Leary on the brain. If it keeps on it will have a worse attack of Mulcahey on the lug!

We print on our seventh page a number of extracts from our cotemparies re the recent South Victoria election trial.

We understand Mr. G. R. Patullo of Woodstock and Capt Burden are the Ontario commissioners at Rat Portage. These are two excellent appointments. Both are veteran newspaper men, and therefore competent and ready for anything. Capt. Burden has had considerable military experience as well, and will be able to "hold

The army officelegraph operators employed by the Western Union Co. in the States Canada "struck" last Thursday to enforce a demand for an increase of wages and shorter hours. This demand was resisted by the companies and a general strike all along the line was ordered. The message "Gen. Grant died suddenly to-day" was flashed over the continent by arrangement as the signal, and in many places it was for some time supposed the warrior had gone to his rest. Telegraphing to a limited extent is still carried on, but it is believed the companies will have to grant the demands of the operators, as business the demands of the operators, as business of many kinds is almost suspended or seriously impeded. Public opinion sides largely with the operators. The Western Union is a bloated monopoly, the stock of which has been "watered" many times by Jay Gould and other speculators, and it gets very little sympathy.

The Peterboro Review tardily and unright in his contention regarding the Mercer estate, but thinks that the property escheated should be handed back to the "heir." We are surprised that the Review of all papers should take this ground. For be it known that the Review has reached such depths of depravity as a political organist that it has been condemned to twelve months lucarceration in the Mercer reformatory, "and may the keeper have mercy on its vile body." The Heview is neat, stylish, and attractive, but that makes its immorality and wantonness all the mere dangerous to the community.

Our attention has been directed to several gross perversions of the truth in the Warder's report of the election protest case. The whole report is a mere travesty, made evidently with the view of tor there now is not fit for the position. suppressing facts and statements damaging to the tory case and bringing out matters damaging to Mr. McIntyre and the O'Learys, Mulcaheys and Flahertys. But there was nothing damaging to them, and so suitable statements had to be manufactured by the Warder, just as in the formula to the tory case and statements had to be manufactured by the Warder, just as in A RESIDENT. ters damaging to Mr. McIntyre and the O'Learys, Mulcaheys and Flahertys. But statements to Mr. Cox regarding the tick- have brought the matter before the notice sts and the railway situation are also misted, to tally with the Warder's and insinuations. Mr. O'Leary did not say to Mr. Cox that Mr. McIntyre was suffering a good deal for his action in the amalgamation matter and if he could do McIatyre any good he should do so;" and Mr. Cox did not thereupon say "if that was so he would give the tickets." This is a complete fabrication of the Warder's. No such words were used or statements made. Equally false is the report of Mr. Thos. Stewart's evidence, where Mr. Stewart is made to say that he wrote to the Andersons in Toronto that they must come on their own expenses and vote "and he would arrange afterwards." If the Warder's report were true there would be two clear cases of corrupt practice. We need not specify other instances of gross lying, for everyone knows Ananias of gross lying, for everyone knows Ananias by this time and will put no confidence in the Warder's statements. But however the Warder may in its editorial columns lie and try to stab under the fifth rib it should in common decency try to give truthful and correct reports. The strong remarks of Judges Patterson and Ferguson condemning the opposition tactics in the Carley case and complimenting Mr. McIntyre at the close are smoothed down by the Warder into a couple of empty sentences.

MOSSOM BOYD.

Death has at last called away Mossom Boyd of Bobcaygeon, the well-known "lumber king," at the age of sixty-seven. Mr. Boyd for the past two or three years had been in failing health and for the last year had been nearly helpless. He was a man of great physical vigor and of marked enterprise and business capacity. He was born in England and came to this country as a young man. He was one of the earliest settlers, and by his energy and capacity built up a very large business in lumber, timber and other products. He early became wealthy, and his wealth increased steadily under careful and shrewd management. He was a conservative in politics. and in his day an active and public spirited citizen. He was twice married, and leaves a large family. The funeral takes place to-day at Peterboro.

THE SOUTH VICTORIA ELEC-TION APPEAL.

Another Attempt to Oust Mr. McIntyre. Following is the text of the notice of appeal served on Mr. McIntyre by Cameron & McPhillips, agents for John McSweyn, solicitor for the petitioner, Mr. John C.

Take notice that the petitioner being dissatisfied with the decision of the judges on the questions hereinafter more fully stated and being desirous of appealing from the said decision has deposited with the registrar of the court the sum of one hundred dollars by way of security for

And also take notice that the matter of the said petitioners has been set down to he heard in appeal as aforesaid, as provided by the statute.

And also further take notice that the said appeal is limited to the following special subjects:

1. That the furnishing of railway tickets by Thomas Stewart and Hugh O'Leary, admitted agents of the respondent, to Patrick Caulin, Michael Mullins, Robert Fee and Michael Houlihan, voters at the said election, to enable them to come to vote and to return from voting thereof return from voting thereat and the pay-ment of the travelling and other expenses of the said voters in going to and returning from the said election by the said Stewart and O'Leary, as said agents, and by one Connors, the agent of the said respondent, and specially appointed for that purpose by the said Stewart and O'Leary, were illegal acts and corrupt practices.

2. That the hiring of teams for the con-

2. That the hiring of teams for the conveyance of the said voters to the polls by George Mulcahey to carry them from Irwin's shanty to Haliburton, by the said Connors to carry them from Fenelon Falls to Lindsay, and by Henry O'leary and George Mulcahey, agents of the respondent, to carry some of the said electors from Lindsay to Downeyville, were i'legal acts and corrupt practices and that such amendment of the particulars as was necessary to meet the case proved by the evidence should have been made by the learned judges who tried the case.

3. That the letter from the respondent to Judges who tried the case.

3. That the letter from the respondent to one Duncan Carmichael in reference to one William Carley was an attempt to exercise undue influence and a corrupt practice by the respondent personally, and any amendment of the particulars in that case required in accordance with the evidence ought to be made.

5. That the learned judges at the trial erred for the reasons herein stated in dismissing the petition with coats.

COMMUNICATIONS.

A Protest About the Warder.

(To the Editor of THE CANADIAN PORT.) STR, -Is it possible the squib labelled 'Tremendous Puffing" is all the explanation the Warder has to offer for the overwhelming defeat the clique suffered on the 11th inst. No excuse why the judge felt called on to compliment Mr. McIntyre on willingly admits that Mr. Mowat was the purity with which his canvas was conducted. No explanation of how it came the petitioner was censured by the same judges. No explanation of how it came about that not one charge out of a hundred and some odd had the slightest foundation in fact. No attempt at an explanation of anything. Simply a maudlin attempt to slander Mr. Hugh O'Leary, and an imbecile slander Mr. Hugh O'Leary, and an imbecile insult to the witnesses brought to court by the petitioner, and Catholics generally. This is palmed off on the readers of the Warder as an explanation why their cause did not succeed in court on the 11th inst. A greater exhibition of meanness and imbecility combined I have never seen 'in public print. The conservative party cannot be congratulated upon the course pursued by the Warder in this matter or in fact in any other. Why do they not file a protest against the Warder's miserable course.
