The midge has done considerable harm in some sections along the shores of Lake Erie, particularly to Egyptian red wheat, while the other kinds do not appear to be greatly affected. Where the midge has not worked the quantity promises to be good.

—Some mysterious disease is carrying off lambs in Western Ontario. Nothing appears to be known of its character; the only thing known is that the lambs are dying off in considerable numbers without any apparent cause. The season has been a very wet one and some weakness may have been caused thereby, but there is nothing to indicate the victims below, as a general rule, in bad condition as far as flesh goes. A similar mortality occurred in Great Britain earlier in the season, and was so wide spread that the queen, in order to preserve flocks, discouraged the use of lamb by abolishing its use in the royal household.

—Dublin Invincibles claim that none of the informers can escape them, and that their death, though it may be delayed, will be ultimately effected.

—The ten Jews who were on trial at Nyregyhasa, Hungary, charged with murdering a Christian girl to obtain her blood for sacrificial purposes, have been acquitted.

—A box of dynamite, with a lighted fuse attached, was discovered in a large linen factory at Cupar-Fife, Scotland. The fuse was extinguished. The attempt is attributed to Fenianism.

—The post office authorities are returning the money sent by various persons to the treasurer of the Louisana lottery, which now seems to be under the ban of the United States government.

—Upon the arrival of the steamer Pathon at Melbourne, Kavanagh, Joseph Hanlon and Joseph Smith, informers in the Phœnix park murder trial, were identified and prohibited from landing.

—A party of moral masked marauders took a white wood chopper and his wife from their cabin in Warhace, Tenn., on Wednesday night, and whipped them severely for keeping a disorderly house.

—At Essex Centre Wednesday evening Simon Cunningham, wife and child attempted to cross the railroad. The waggon was struck by the engine, Cunningham was killed and his wife fatally injured.

It has been ascertained that hot winds in June badly shriveled the wheat crop in many sections of California. In some cases it will not pay to cut it. The damage is estimated at twenty per cent. of the entire crop.

Myron Topliff, aged nine years, while returning from school in Brookfield township last Tuesday was bitten by a rattlesnake and died before morning, though every known means was employed to save his life.

The family of Mrs. Anna Dilts of Victor, Mich., were poisoned from eating what was supposed to be mushrooms. Two little boys aged nine and eleven and a daughter about fifteen years of age lies at the point of death.

A Texas curiosity is a well with a rope, pulley and two buckets. Without human agency or any other known cause, the empty bucket descends into the well, bringing the full bucket to the top, which remains there till emptied.

Lightning struck the wires and ran to the machinery in the United States Electric Light Company, in the Daily Post building, Washington, on Saturday evening, extinguishing the company's lights all over the city. The works are badly damaged.

A Baltimore despatch says: During a storm at Frederick last night lightning struck a horse chestnut tree in front of the residence of Col. L. V. Baughman. In the morning 260 English sparrows were found on the ground. The tree was a favorite roosting place for the sparrows.

Florida has a hen that has made a nest and hatched a brood of chickens in a tree twenty-four feet from the ground. She is accustoming herself and her brood to the environments of colored statesmen. A few generations of chicked-stealing darkies may "evolute" the hen into a high-flying eagle-like bird.

A family named Hicks—husband, wife, son and daughter—all went crazy simultaneously at Charleston, Ill., the other day. When they arrested the attention of the neighbors they had erected a cross and were about to crucify one of their number, the son, he being believed to be Christ returned to earth. They were jailed at once.

On Monday Frank, the thirteen year old son of William Vosburg, shot himself through the heart and was instantly killed. Young Vosburg, with another lad, was hunting on a farm near Lapeer, Mich., and was climbing between the rails of a fence when the hammer of the gun caught on the rail.

Hereafter the steamship Great Eastern is to be employed in carrying Scotch coal from the Forth to the Thames. She will be able to carry about 20,000 tons on each voyage, and from this fact the owners are led to hope that the scheme will be remunerative. They already talk of annual dividends of five per cent.

A Christian church now marks the battlefield of Isandulwana, in Zululand, where the Prince Imperial was killed. The church is a gothic structure of white sandstone, and was very recently dedicated. Ritualism marked the ceremony, the bishop was vested in white cope and mitre, two tapers glimmered on the altar, and a large brass cross glistened above the vase of flowers.

There were twelve deaths from cholera among the British troops in Egypt on Tuesday. The disease is spreading among the Sussex regiment at Ismalia, where twenty men, including a captain and doctor, died within three days. The deaths among the natives on Tuesday, not including Cairo, was 995. The deaths from cholera among the British troops thus far are 81.

It is said that a valuable discovery of silver has been made on the Kaministiqua river, Thunder Bay, and on property owned by Mr. L. J. Vickers of Toronto. The vein has been proved by stripping a distance of seventy-five feet, and is about forty feet in width, with well defined walls of trap and slate, and is without doubt a true fissure. The vein matter is composed principally of quartz and calcspar, carrying large quantities of silver glance and native silver.

A gentleman at Cape Vincent telegraphed to the agent of a line of steamships running between New York and France asking for rates of passage for himself, his wife and two children under three years of age. In the transmission of the message the number of the family was increased to twenty-four. The agent of the company telegraphed back that owing to the unusual number of children a special rate would be granted to them, and husband and wife could travel at the same terms.

A despatch from Antigonish, N. S., says a most horrible cold-blooded murder occurred at Tracadie on Tuesday. For some time past Frank Bowie and Randall McDonald, both farmers, have been in a dispute about a lot of land on which McDonald was cutting hay. On Tuesday a son of Bowie, aged fifteen, attacked McDonald with a gun and mortally wounded him. Young Bowie, during the past few weeks, has been threatening to shoot McDonald, and carried out his design.

The Zanesville iron mines back of Kingston, are progressing well. On lot six, con. 3rd, Bedford, about four miles from the K. & P. railroad, a branch to the main track will be laid at once. Already two shafts have been sunk in the mine, at depths of 75 feet and 60 feet respectively, and the ore is of a satisfactory character. The ore is known as magnetic, and its percentage of iron is very high. Already thirty-five men are at work night and day, and the present output is 60 tons per day. The mine is owned by Mr. F. O. Folger of Kingston.

An American lady at Ischia reports that her aunt is missing, and it is feared she is buried in the ruins at the great earthquake. One family was rescued after being entombed 36 hours. Of a Swiss family of eight only one, a daughter, survives. She heard her father groaning for several hours before she was herself rescued. A thousand are dead at Lacco, one thousand at Forio, 2,500 at Casamicciola. The damage to property is 2,000,000 lire. Fifteen hundred tons of chloride lime were used at Casamicciola during the day, but the great stench was still unbearable. Water gushed violently out of the springs again on Friday. It was almost boiling hot. A slight shock was felt on Monday night and two guards were killed.

—Returns from seventy out of eighty-eight counties in Ohio show that the Scott liquor law has resulted in about $1,405,200, and closed 1,019 saloons.

—The northern part of Monroe county, New York state, was swept last Friday night by a terrific hailstorm. The crops are ruined. The belt of the storm was two miles wide.

—The location of the new elevator to be built by the Canadian Pacific railway at Port Arthur has been settled. The elevator will have a capacity of 250,000 bushels and with the docks to be constructed will cost $250,000.

—Sir Charles Dilke states the general health of England to be very satisfactory at present; but the most stringent precautions will be taken against the introduction of cholera for six weeks, by the end of which time he thinks the danger will have passed.

—The Earl of Carnarvon, who was colonial secretary of state in the imperial cabinet when the confederation act was passed is expected in this country early next month. The leading citizens in Montreal intend inviting him to a banquet of a non-political character.

—A young man named Wilton, employed as a tumbler in Barnum's circus, and whose parents live in Hamilton, got his knee-cap fractured during the performance in St. Thomas. He was brought home on Friday week and lies at his father's house suffering severely. It will be three or four months before he is able to use his limbs.

—The thermometer was 106 in the shade in Cairo on Friday last, and several sunstrokes occurred. The London News asserts that the deaths from cholera in Egypt so far have been 16,000. It says the disease is less virulent. Of ten men attacked among the British troops on an average six survive.

—There is a well-to-do and successful merchant up at Walkerton who has a perfect horror for commercial travellers. He has lately issued a circular to the wholesale firms earnestly praying that they give orders to their travellers not to call on him in future. Instead of that doing any good they are coming thicker and faster than ever.

—Carey's assassin was committed for trial at Port Elizabeth on Friday, 3rd, on the charge of wilful murder. His trial will come off in October. Among his effects produced in evidence was a paper of American citizenship dated "Toronto, November, 1876." O'Donnell himself claims Donegal, Ireland, as his birthplace.

—Prince George of Wales in company with his governor, Captain Francis Durrant, landed from the corvette Canada at three o'clock last Thursday afternoon, and spent several hours about Halifax, N.S. The flagship Northampton, with the Canada and Dido, will likely sail for Quebec on the 20th inst., Prince George proceeding with them.

Secretary Folger authorized the collector at Boston to burn two cargoes of Egyptian rags on the steamers Bavaria and City of Boston. The captain of the latter vessel informed the port physician that there were no rags or paper stock aboard. The customs officers found 115 bales of rags in the cargo. Another steamer had 150 bales which were quarantined.

—Ellen Baker, the accomplished daughter of Sir Samuel Baker, the explorer, committed suicide Saturday at her father's residence at Newton Abbott, Devonshire. The young lady had joined the order of Sister's of Mercy, and so overtaxed her strength in ministering to the poor in London that her health broke down and her mind gave way.

—A Pullman coach costs from $14,000 to $20,000 and will last from twelve to fourteen years with ordinary wear. During this time it must be run in and thoroughly repaired every three or four years, and about once a year thoroughly repainted and varnished. The wheels alone cost $600. Then the outside painting costs another $600. Painting and varnishing the interior of the car costs $1,000.

—Last week Mr. Jonathan Graham of the 4th con. of Blenheim township, county of Middlesex, buried the last of his entire family, all carried away by the dreadful ravages of black diphtheria. His children were first attacked, and two of them died in few hours, three others following them, and lastly his wife. The neighbors were afraid to venture near the house, and the poor man was obliged to lay out the bodies and prepare them for burial unaided by anyone.

—Mr. John Kendrick of Morris met with a very painful and curious accident Sunday morning. He was bathing his broken arm, from which the splinters had recently been removed, in the river near the mill, when a large pike seized him by the fingers and opened them up to the bone from the knuckles to the end of the fingers. Mr. Kendrick jerked his hand out of the water as quickly as possible, when the fish made another effort to seize it, rising at least a foot out of the water in the attempt.

Farmers' councils were organized recently in school sections Nos. 7 and 13, Mulmur township, the chief object of such associations being to bring about reforms in the present system of weighing farmers' produce, the promoters of the councils favoring the appointment of public weighers. Petitions are now in circulation praying for action on the part of municipal officials in the counties of Dufferin, Simcoe, Grey and Bruce to this end, as farmers claim that they are frequently defrauded by unscrupulous buyers who use their own scales.

—F. Bentley, a prominent Toledo contractor, was killed on the Newhall block in a frightful manner the other day. He was superintending work on the roof of the building a moment before the accident and stepped upon the end of a plank under which there was no support. It tipped, dropping him head first down through the building to the basement, four storeys below. He struck two or three times going down, being whirled over each time with fearful force, and landed at the bottom, head first. A terrible gash was cut in his forehead, and his neck was broken short off.

—A new and improved kind of barn is being put up in Ashfield, Huron Co., Ont. The plan has been imported from the states but has been much improved by the local builder. The building is to be an octagon in form, each side being about twenty-five feet long, making the entire girt two hundred feet. The side posts will be eighteen feet high, and the distance from opposite corners about sixty-five feet. The most singular feature in the construction will be the self-supporting roof, there being no beams or timbers running across the building to support it. The whole fabric will rest on a very strong stone wall seven and a half feet high.

—The Spanish minister to the United States, Senor Barca, committed suicide by shooting on Sunday morning, at the Albemarle hotel, New York. A letter to the consul-general stated the minister intended to kill himself because his troubles were more than he could bear. The nature of the troubles was not stated. It is said he has been living beyond his means. In striving to extricate himself by speculations in Wall st he became insolvent and got in deeper difficulties. Senor Barca's wife and daughter were at the seaside when the act was committed. They were greatly prostrated.

—New York Times: No one can read the statement of the case given out for publication by the executive committee without feeling that the operators had a very substantial grievance. For several years the Western Union company has been striving to establish a virtual monopoly in the telegraph business. It has so far succeeded that it had a controlling power not only over rates for the transmission of messages but over the wages of operators. During these years it has employed every device to increase its profits, and has not only paid liberal dividends, but has several times inflated the volume of stock on which they are paid. At the same time it appears the company has been periodically screwing down the wages of its employees to lower and lower figures.

—It is stated that a stone was thrown through the window of a car in which President Arthur was riding to Louisville on Monday week, striking not far from where he was standing.

—The editor of the Mios, Mich., Northern Mail was caught in a cyclone, during which four trees fell on him at once. He sat there and made notes for an item, and then dug for the office with only a slight bruise on his head.

—According to the report of the miller's national association for July the wheat crop of the United States this year will be only 10,700,700 bushels short of the crop of 1882. The May report indicated a shortage of 93,000,000,000 bushels.

—Jefferson Davis and his daughter were seen by a reporter who visited a seashore camp meeting near Biloxi the other day sitting barebacked the other day under a pine tree listening to the sermon. Both father and daughter joined in the singing.

—A four year old son of Mr. S. W. Ayers of Toronto was drowned in a cistern a few days ago. It appears the little fellow was playing about in the back yard, when going over to the cistern he lifted up the lid to look in. In doing so he lost his balance and fell over into the water, which was five feet deep. Before the accident was discovered life had fled.

—Murphy, the Preston butcher, who has often challenged Webb, and who had always contended that Webb would never succeed in breasting the Niagara whirlpool has also met with death, similar to that which overtook the Captain. Murphy, on more than one occasion challenged Webb to dare with him the Ripple whirlpool. Murphy undertook to swim the fearful pool on the very day Webb attempted the Niagara, and he was drowned.

—One day last week a boy who was engaged ploughing on a farm near Bradford, N.Y., saw an enormous black snake lying on the ground near the fence. Frightened by the reptile the boy dropped the lines and started for the house. Reinforced there by several members of the family he went back, when one of the horses was found lying on the ground with the python tightly coiled about his neck. The snake was despatched, when it was found that the horse was dead, his life having been choked out by the snake.

—The fall wheat in Essex county is said to be struck with a blight, and a good lot of it is so badly rusted it will never ripen. The onion crop in the same county is threatened with almost total destruction by a worm which imbeds itself in the tender bulb near the root and sucks the vitality out of it, the stock turning yellow and withering. The remedies most in vogue are a dose of strong brine, applied with a watering pot, and a liberal application of unleached ashes, which are a valuable onion manure under any circumstances.

From the Times.

Editor of the Times.—The statements recently published in your valuable paper has created much excitement in this city among the class who own and use horses, and after reading your request that all should write you who had been benefitted by the letter published, from Dr. Bates, in regard to the remarkable success he always had with Kendall's Spavin Cure, I decided to write you my experience with it. My first knowledge of this remedy came through a visit to the office of the Massachusetts society for the prevention of cruelty to animals. This society was the first to use Kendall's Spavin Cure in Boston, and I was informed by Charles A. Currier, a gentleman in whom I had the utmost confidence, that they never used anything that had worked so well for spavins or any lameness in horses, and he stated that he gave it to poor men who had lame horses and would agree to use it, and in this way he was enabled to get along without prosecuting them, as it was sure cure when persevered with. Some time after this I received a very severe injury to the knee-joint, and the high recommendation which Mr. Currier gave of Kendall's Spavin Cure gave me so much confidence in it that I used it for my knee with the best of results, and since that time my faith has been so strong in the merits of this remedy that we will not be without it in the house. I have tried it since then for foot-rot, sore teats and warts on my cows teats, also for a general liniment for my horses and in my family, and I sincerely believe, with all those who have written you before, that there never was so good a liniment for both man and beast ever discovered before. Hoping you will continue to give us more light on this subject, I am, yours very truly, ROBT. C. AYER.

The Magazines for August.

HARPER'S FOR AUGUST keeps at the high standard of this ever-popular magazine. "The Heart of the Alleghanies," "American Horses," "Vallombrosa," "The Canadian Habitant" and the "German Crown Prince" are all copiously illustrated and accompanied by entertaining and instructive letter-press. The magazine furnishes capital reading for the holidays. The editorial departments are of the first class. Published by Harper Bros., New York; and for sale at Porter's and Easton's.

THE CENTURY FOR AUGUST.—The midsummer holiday number is a splendid evidence of the skill and enterprise of the publishers and the taste and ability of the engravers and contributors. A fine portrait of Alphonse Daudet, the French novelist, adorns the frontispiece, and a finely illustrated paper on "Bob White," the game bird of America, comes first. "Southern California," Songs of the Sea," "The Oldest Club in America," and the "Grosvenor Gallery," afford abundant scope for the artist in those fine illustrations for which the Century has the highest reputation. Henry James writes about Daudet and John Burroughs about Carlyle—two able papers. The light reading in the number excels. The chapters of "A Woman's Reason" are highly interesting, and very clever. The editorial departments are good as usual. Published by The Century Co., New York; and for sale at Porter's and Easton's.
