COMMERCIAL NEWS.

OFFICE OF THE CANADIAN POST, LINDSAY, AUG. 8, 1883.

Business and Profits.

The markets have been quiet during the week. The first spell of harvest work is on and farmers are busy. The indications are that the harvest on the whole will be an average one, if not in advance of last year.

Cheese.

The market for cheese this year has been good and the price high. Sales of the product of this county were made for May cheese as high as 10c, delivered in Lindsay, and for June at about 9c to 9c.

Wheat Prospects.

The Corn Trade List of the 20th ult. reviews the position of the English wheat market as it stands at present, and indicates the next couple of months, as follows:

Importers.

The importers have naturally had to enter upon their operations at a long range, and it is they who have had to sustain the entire weight of the market.
