They will be brought to this country next spring, and placed uson lauds where buildings have previously been erected for their accommodation, and it is intended to provide them with all necessary implements, stock, seed and food for making a commencement.

-The potato rot is playing havoc with the crop in the section around London, On-tario, and there are those who talk of not ligging their potatoes at all. One farmer dug ten bags in the township of Westmin-ister last week, and it took four men, two diggers and two pickers, the whole day to accomplish the task. Half the quantity wasfleft on the ground. While this is the case around London, from other quarters very favorable reports in reference to the crop are received.

- Mr. Waneman of Sand Lake, N. Y., received word that his son Thomas had died at Toronto from the effects of a dose of a dose of Paris green. Young Waneman was employed at the Cataract house, Niagara. There he met a young lady and made an engagement of marriage. The girl met snother lover and ran away with him. This so grieved young Waneman that on Saturday he purchased some Paris green and, going to the Queen's garden, Toronto, took the fatal dose.

At St. Williams, Ont., on Friday 10th, a terrible explosion occurred while threshing on Mr. Edgar Price's farm news, killing instantly P. Caidwell and, it is thought, fatally scalding and cutting Mr. L. Howick. Both were standing at the side of the engine at the time. Many others had a very narrow escape. One piece falling buried itself three and a half feet in the earth, and nothing was left of the engine and boiler to show where it stood. Pieces have been found 130 yards from the place of explosion. The rear of the boiler struck the separator and core that to pieces completely. No one was feeding at the time, although two men had just stepped off to fix the belt and thereby saved their lives. The explosion was caused by the steam indicator being out of order and misleading the driver, Mr. Caldwell.
