FAST BINDING.—A report reached us from the Connaught settlement that on a trial of their binding abilities for one hour Mr. Thomas Corrigan bound seven sheaves per minute, thus making a total of 420 sheaves in an hour. Others at the same time bound five sheaves per minute during the hour. This should be reckoned very fair work. The above trial was witnessed by a merchant of East Atherley.

Personal.. The genial and jovial Mr. John Flynn of Syracuse, N. Y., who for the past few weeks has been on a visit to Mr. T. Flynn, has returned to his duties on the police force of Syracuse. He was a great favorite among the boys while here, and many a merry night was spent by them in his company. Mr. Flynn expressed himself sheing greatly taken up with Mara, and his wish was that he could have remained off duty longer so as to have the pleasure of a longer visit here.

What We Want.—A cheese factory in the Ceutre... To know when Fred Kelley is going to complete his house... To know if Joseph Bones is going to be married as soon as reported... Our farmers to capture a majority of prizes at the comient of the second of the trial of their binding abilities for one hour

HYMENEAL.—Miss Doble has forsaken her grandfather and been joined to Mr. Linton of Pickering in matrimony. We wish them much happiness.

ATHERLEY. METHODIST PICNIC.—A very successful picnic was held in connection with the Methodist church in Atherlev on the 7th inst. About three p.m. on that day a large number of parents and children gathered at the church, where vehicles were in readiness to convey them to Couchiching park. It was raining at a desperate rate; and disappointment seemed to be depicted in every face, especially in those of the committee who had worked so enthusiastically to make it a success. However, on cally to make it a success. However, on reaching the spot the prospects of a good time seemed brighter, and altogether, though the day was dark and gloomy, the cheerfulness and happiness of all present seemed to disperse the gloom for the time and a very agreeable time was spent. Rev. Mr. Greatrix, the esteemed pastor, is manifesting a great deal of interest in the young in connection with the several confrequencies throughout the circuit. In fact the stand has have taken and the salute and regations throughout the circuit. In fact the stand he has taken and the spirit and zeal which he manifests in connection with the work in general all seem to point to a general revolution, which will add much not only to the spiritual but sies to the temporal welfare of the circuit. The people of Atherley circuit ought (and no doubt they do) consider themselves fortunate in getting a man of such rare talent and willity. To the Improved Dominion and Water-Proof Paint Company. Paint Company.

GENTLEMEN,—I have much pleasure in recommending your roof paint. The roof you painted on my woollen factory was leaking so badly that I considered it impossible to stop the leaking without reshingling, but I was advised to try your roof paint as it was so highly recommended by some of the first men in Ontario that had used it, and I did so and found it to be everything it was recommended to be, a first-class water-proof paint, as it stopped the leakinge and saved me reshingling my factory.

OLD DR. WARREN'S BALMofLIFE An Infallible Remedy for the arrest of Inflammation in all

READ THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIALS:

WOODVILLE, Aug. 1, 1883.
Mr. McKinnon, Oakwood, Ont.—I have been Asthmatically affected for a number of years and never used anything so effectual for it as Dr. Warren's Balm of Life. I can say it has given me an immense amount of comfort and recommend it to those thus affected. Yours indeed, MRS. D. SMITH. A Victim of Asthma Cured,

Mr. A. J. McKinnon, Oakwood, Aug. 12, 1883.

Mr. A. J. McKinnon, Oakwood, Sir, Since I was two months old I am told I have been a victim to Asthma. My parents tell me they tried many remedies for relief, but to no effect. I have used about one dollar's worth of Dr. Warren's Balm of Life, and believe if I continue it I will be radically cured. I have got cured of pain in the stomach also by its use, W. H. RICH.

18 Years Asthma Cured.

MANILLA, AUG. 22nd, 1883,
Arch. J. McKinnon, Oakwood, Ont.—Sir.—
I have suffered over eighteen years from Asthmatic affection brought on from immediate exposure to cold after overheating. I applied to many Physicians and used many different kinds of medicines for it, up till the summer of '82, but all proved a total failure. I finally used Dr. Warren's Balm of Life, and to-day I can cheerfully testify to its virtues as a grand specific for the disease, and would ask all sufferers from the disease to give it a fair trial. Your old acquaintance, EDWARD ASHTON.

Chronic Pain Cured. SUNDERLAND, AUG. 2nd, 1883.

Mr. McKinnon, Oakwood, Ont.—Sir.—For six or seven years I have been afflicted with chronic pain in the side. It always troubled me when I lay down more than at any other time, and was accompanied with a copious water-brash. I used three dollars worth of Dr. Warren's Balm of Life and can testify to its excellent propensities and effect on my system. I am totally free from the above affection and can conscientiously recommend it to those afflicted as I was.—Yours most truly, ALEX. McMILLAN.

Pain in the Back Cured. SUNDERLAND, Avg. 8, 1883.

Mr.A.J. McKinnon, Oakwood, Ont.—Dear Sir,
—For over four years I have been a sufferer from pain in the back caused by heavy lifting. I used various liniments and prescriptions, but to no purpose. One bottle of Dr. Warren's Balm of Life cured me. All troubled with Chronic pains should try it, NEIL C. McLEAN.

Beautheris Cured.

Beautheron, Aug. 18, 1883.

Mr. McKinnon, Oakwood Ont.—Diphtheria came into my family in Aug. of 1882. I applied Dr. Warren's Balm of Life to the eldest and the first of the family that took it. By it she was quickly and thoroughly relieved. In nine or ten days two of the others took the disease but unfortunately had none of the remedy to apply. Telegraphed to Cannington for it, but could not be had nearer than Oakwood. Did not get it at all. The children were medically attended, but both died: I believe the disease could have been arrested had I the Balm. I carnestly recommend it for diphtheria, Yours, etc., MRS. W. CLAYTON.

Mr. Arch. J. McKinnon, Oakwood, Ont.—1)ear Sir,—I hereby certify that I have used Dr. War-ren's Balm of Life and have found it an excel-lent remedy in checking Asthma. I cheerfully recommend it as a first-class specific for diseases of the lungs. I remain, your servant, ELIZA-BETH BROKENSHIRE. CCHOOL BOOKS.

Dear Sir.—I have suffered so much from Sciatica in my hip and along the whole length of my leg that I have lost hours of rest by it. I used many means given by physicians and patent remedies, but got no permanent relief. I finally used Dr. Warren's Balm of Life and by its use I am to-day a sound man. I applied it with equal parts of fresh beef's gail, and believe if used this way it will cure any rheumatic pain. Yours indeed, JOSEPH TRIPP.
