BUSINESS NOTES.—Our merchant, Mr.
Freel, has just get in a large stock of boots and shoes for the fall and winter which is a credit to his business. Parties wishing to make a purchase had better call and see his stock before buying elsewhere.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Our friend Mr. Brown is preparing for a hard winter. He is refitting his building to protect his particular body from the storms this winter, He has also built a fine fence on the front of his premises.

BUTTER SHIPMENTS.—Mr. Wilson, who has been purchasing butter for the last few days, shipped a hundred and eleven kegs of first-class butter on Tuesday, procured chiefly in Verulam, and for which he paid nearly $2,000.

NAVIGATION.—The heavy wind of Wednesday night and Thursday of last week, together with a considerable rise in the water, completely cleared the Scurgog, and on Friday evening the Maple Leat arrived with a scow load of freight and continued towing scows on Saturday. On Monday the Mary Louise arrived with twelve hundred fruit trees from Port Perry for delivery on Pigeon and Chemong lakes, and the trees went on through on Tuesday. It is probable that the frost of Wednesday night has now stopped the navigation "for night has now stopped the navigation "for
