A HOLD THIRF ARRESTED.—A colored man, who gave his name as George Foster, was arrested on Monday night on a charge of stealing a whip, the property of James Smith of Tyendinaga. In his possession were found two saws, two pick-locks, a pair of false whiskers, a box containg about 86 in coppers, and a quantity of ribbons, braid, knives, thread and other articles which are usually found in the stock of a country store. There is little doubt that Foster is the thief who burglarized the store at Harrowsmith on Saturday night and stole a horse there. The horse which he drove was not that stolen from Harrowsmith, but he traded that for the one he he drove was not that stolen from harrow-smith, but he traded that for the one he has now while passing through the Indian reserve to Tyendinaga. Prisoner was brought before the police magistrate and elected to be tried summarily. He was remanded for a week.

ONTARIO COUNTY. ENTERTAINMENT AT THE ONTERIO LA-DIES' COLLEGE.-The conversations at the Ontario ladies' college Wednesday evening of last week was well attended by the friends and relatives of the pupils. The musical entertainment, presided over by Prof. Edward Fisher, displayed a high order of talent in the pupils and remarkable taste and correctness in the execution of the parts assigned them on the program. Mrs. Bradley's singing was highly appreciated and loudly encored. Mr. G. Y. Smith, president of the college board, Judge Dartnell and Mr. David Ormiston, chairman of the town board of education, delivered brief addresses, at the instance of Rev. Principal Hare, speaking in eulogistic terms of the pupils' proficiency, of the beautiful college building, and of the high degree of success which the college is attaining under the able and careful man-Ontario ladies' college Wednesday evening attaining under the able and careful management of Rev. Had I thought last night that such a scene as this would take place I should have effectually prevented it. When I came amongst you I was solely impelled by a desire to labor somewhere in the sacred ministry and to aid for a while your pions and zealous pastor in the discharge of the arduous duties which his scattered parish imposed upon him. I could not brook a life of inactivity. To work for the glory of God and the salvation of souls must ever be the sweetest occupation of every priest that seeks his own safety and the surest way of finding it. To such an occupation you lent an additional sweetness by your kindly disposition and eager aptitude to benefit by his ministrations. As the toiler smiles to see the generous fields teem with gratitude for his labor, so the priest exults with an exceeding joy when he beholds blooming before him the glorious promise of a bountful harvest that will one day be gathered into the barns of his heavenly father. You have done your part weil in requitting the laborer for his pains, and God will not be outdone by man, you shall receive the hundred fold. A CORRECTION.—A paragraph has been going the rounds that Rev. Father Campbell denounced the Orillia mechanics' institute as having in its library books inculcating the doctrines of unbellef. This is a mistake. Father Campbell merely complained that Roman Catholic authors were represented only by Justin McCarthy and D'Arcy McGee. We think that the R.v. ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION TO REV. FATHER SHEA.—On Monday evening, Dec. 10th, quites number of the congregation of this parish assembled at the presbytery to present Rev. Father Shea with a purse and an address. The presentation was made and the address read by Mr. J. H. Curtis, J.P., Derryville. Subjoined is the address: Received Father,—It was with feelings of deep regret that we, the people of this parish, heard of your departure from amongst us. During your stay you had endeared yourself to us all by your good example and advice, which we will long remember. We trust you will accept this purse not for its intrinsic value but as a token of the respect and good will we bear for you. Trusting that in whatever place your lot is cast God may shower his choicest blessings on you is the wish of every member of this parish. Father Shea, who was much affected, made in substance the following reply: My dear friends. In accepting your address and presentation I thank you most sincerely.
