The report fully satisfied all critice, if such there were, and conclusively proves the ability of the ladies superintending that part of the program. After tea the assembly was called to order and Mr. Burridge appointed chairman. Rev. Mr. Hodgins of Coboconk was expected but was unable to attend owing to sickness. Mr. Galloway gave a very instructive and interesting address. But the greater part of the program was composed of readings, recitations and dialogues by the school with music by the choir, all of which was well given and well re-ceived.... The social on the follwing even-ing was a success. The program was good considering the short notice. We wish the school much success under the care of its present superintendent, Mr. T. A. Spin-

SURPRISE AND PRESENTATION.—About one hundred of Mr. C. Fairbairu's friends and supporters in his contest for reeveship assembled at his residence on Friday evening and presented him with a handsome eight day clock and Mrs. Fairbairu with a very handsome silver water pitcher. A congratulatory address was read by Mr. W. Playfair, when Mr. Fairbairu replied at some length in a very feeling manner in behalf of himself and Mrs. Fairbairu. Then followed congratulatory speeches from several gentlemen present, closing by singing, "God save the queen." After partaking of a very sumptuous repast provided by Mrs. Fairbairn, the young folks having taken the precaution to provide themselves with music in good variety, spent a very pleasant time tripping the "light fantastic" until the "we sma' hours" in the morning. Following is a copy of the address: To Mr. C. Fairbairn,—Dear Sir,—We, your many friends and admirers around Dunsford and vicinity, have assembled this evening to show you our appreciation of your many noble acts as our municipal officer, both as reeve of Verulam and past warden of the county of Victoria, and also for your impartiality in meting out; justice to all irrespective of party feelings and as one who ever stood true and fought for the rights of the electors and ratepayers of Verulam in both municipal and county councils. You will please ascept this eight-day clock as a memento of our esteem to you as the highest municipal officer of Verulam together with the wish that your success in the future may be as in the past and that victory may always be yours when fighting in a good cause. Our sincere prayers are that the Almighty giver of all good may deal bountifully with you and yours and when called away from this earthly tabernacle you may sit at the right hand of God, ever singing praises to Him. Wishing you and your family prosperity and happiness weremain your old frienda.—Signed.

DEATH OF A PROMISING YOUNG MAN.—On Monday last the members of Mr. Pilkey's family at Claremont were filled with sorrow at the reception of a cablegram from Germany announcing the death of Mr. P. Pilkey. Mr. Pilkey was a young man of distinguished ability who graduated with honors from Victoria university. Cobourg, in 1882. Immediately after graduating he proceeded to Breslau, Germany, where he has since been pursuing an advanced course in mathematics. His sudden and entimely death will be mourned by a large circle of friends, who loved him as much for his integrity of character as his genial good nature.

Explosion of Camner Conn.—On Saturday last Mrs. Hunter of the Commercial hotel, Orhawa, met with a serious accident. She had placed in an oven some canned corn, which was frozen, for the purpose of thawing it. After the corn had become warm she took it from the oven and proceeded to open the can. In doing so she struck it against the table, when the can exploded with terrific force and the contents struck her in the face, scalding her severely. She was confined to her room for several days, with her eyes entirely closed from the effects of the burn. She is now recovering as fast as can be expected. It is supposed that by heating the corn gas generated, which caused the explosion.—[Reformer. ed an usual. A balance in the treasurer's lands of $120 in a rural section is not so slow, and it would interest a great many rate-payers to know what use is to be made of this money till next Christmae. Numerous people could be found who would gladly pay interest for this money till that time and surely the trustees do not expect to appropriate this money to their own uses till the end of 1804. And if the ratepayers have to furnish funds for the private use of snybody let us partly compensate ourselves by having school opened and get nome show of a return for the Jam.
