1. NUSAY, FRIDAY, FEB. 22 1884. NORTH VICTORIA AND NORTH

The Petition Against Mr. Gould Dismis-

JUDIMENT IN NORTH VICTORIA CASE TO BE GIVEN NEXT MONDAY. Justices of appeal Burton and Oder sat in the court of appeal room, Toronto, last Monday morning, it being understood that if possible jadgment would be given in the North Victoria and in the North Outsrio cases. Their lordships stated that they were not prepared to deliver judgment in the former, and it was arranged that they should give their decision on Mondaynext. Mr. B. B. Osler, Q. C., stated that he wished to remind the court that one of the charges, namely, that of corrupt payment of five dollars by one Elliott to a voter had not been abandoned, as there seemed to have been a misapprehension on that point.

Mr. Watson for the respondent stated that if ha i been understood by counsel for the ing member that this charge had been dropped. The judges said that under the circumstances if necessary they would show the testimony of Edicit, who had not a examined at the attings at lindsay, to be received. If such a course was de sired by the respondent, notice must be given of the intention to produce Elliott

THE WORTH ONTARIO CAPE.

The petition against the return of Isaac J. Gould, M. P. P. for North Ontario was dimis-ed. There were 10s charges in the particulars, of which 31 were personal charges against the respondent. The judgments given Monday dealt with only 20 of these charges, the rest having been abandoned or disposed of during the trial. Of these 26, eleven were personal charges. Mr. Justice Burton exhaustively reviewed the charges, and came to the conclusion the charges, and came to the conciusion that not one of them was made out, that the petition therefore wholly falled, and should be dismissed with costs.

Mr. Justice O.ler thought that the netitioner had succeeded in proving the kiyle be charge, which was to the effect that John an M. Patterson, an agent of the respondent, had bribed one Kyle, by promising his wife that if she got her husband to vote right he would make it all right with her afterwards, and that he afterwards gave her $4.48 worth of groceries. Judge Burton agreed that this was a corrupt practice, but f. Gould. The sole difference between Mr. Gould. The sole difference between the judges as so the agency of Patterson, for Judge Osler thought the Kyle charge cause under sec. 159, being too trifling to affect the result of the election. The report to the speaker will therefore be that the election was a pure and valid one. Upon the quistion of costs there is a difference, as Judge Osler holds under the authorities that the certification was such costs. that the petitioner is entitled to such costs as he would have if the Kyle charge were the only one on his record, and Judge Burton this bette petitioner should pay all the costs. This point will therefore be open for either party to take to the corts. for either party to take to the court of spheal.

Julie Burton took occasion to remark unfavourably upon the practice of appointing per lean returning-officers and deputy returning-officers. The local particular, the thought, had very wisely limit d the obolice of the former to certain officials, and the latter should be chosen with discretion and without regard to their political lean-

They finally come upon a gentleman who at first denied having lost anything, then suddenly with some excitement he said that he missed his pocket-book, and giving his name, said it was printed on the missing "leather," which contained $2,500. They exchanged cards, and Mr. McMurtry heard no more of the matter until yesterday he received the following letter: "Some time ago you returned to me my pocket book, which I had lost in the railroad car while book, which I had lost in the railroad car while on a trip to Montreal. I received your address that time, but lost it. However, while moving I found it again. I now take the liberty to hand a small rememberance, which I hope will find your approval. F. M." The remembrance was in the form of an exquisitely carved meerschaum eigar-holder, the ornamentation being a lady seated at a nicely appointed tea-table. Mr. McMurtry, as may be supposed, was surprised and is chagrined that he lost the gentleman's card, and cannot therefore thank him by letter. Toronto News.

A Deputation in Peril. (in Wednesday night of last week a smash-up occurred on the Midland at Milliken's corners. which considerably imperilled a deputation of reeves from Lindsay. The Mail gives the folfollowing account of the accident: A heavy freight train had just been turned into the siding to allow the express to pass. Owing to the length of the train two of the cars did not enter ing to allow the express to pass. Owing to the length of the train two of the cars did not enter the siding and were left standing on the main line. When the express came rushing along the locomotive dashed into the two cars, crushing them into splinters and throwing the engine off the track. On leaving the rails the engine stopped, and the express was brought to a standstill. Over sixty passengers were on the train bound for Toronto, and although several of them got a severeshaking, none of them were injured. The engineer and fireman escaped serious injury almost by a miracle. Assistance was at once telegraphed for to the city, and about an hour latter an auxiliary was despatched to the scene of the accident, with orders to clear away the debris and bring the passengers to Toronto. The passenger train did not get in until three in the morning. The deputation consisted of Col. Deacon, Dr. Norris, Messrs, David Walker, Wm. Cameron, Robt, Adam and Adam Hudspeth, and they were pretty badly shaken. No vacancies were caused, however, but the county council will have to vote them a "special grant" for the perils they had to undergo... The deputation waited on Attorncy-General Mowat on Friday and asked for an amendment to the statute that would meet the case of Peterboro and Victoria in the Kinmount bridge matter, where Peterboro is trying to escape her fair and inst share of the expense of building the bridge. The error made in consolidating the statutes was pointed out. Mr. Mowat promised to consider the matter. .... The same deputation also asked the government to consider a scheme similar to the municipal loan fund, under which municipalities may be releived of the burden of taxation they are now bearing to pay railway similar to the municipal loan fund, under which municipalities may be releived of the burden of taxatien they are now bearing to pay railway bonuses. They presented a petition from several municipalities in the county of Victoria, which set forth the very great benefit which had accrued to the province from the opening up of the timber and mineral lands by the construction of the Victoria railway, as well as to the Dominion. A petition was also presented from townships which had subsidized the Toronto and Nipissing railway. Consideration of this matter was also promised.

St. Paul's Church Mission Service. The Rev. Mr. Jones is about to issue a letter to he members of the Church of England announcing that a ten days mission will be preached (I.V.) in his church commencing March (30th. by the Liev. F. H. Duvernet, the missioner of the diocese of Montreal. The Bishop of Toronto has given his heartiest approval and hopes the mission may be productive of much spiritual blessing to all concerned. The circular letter sets forth clearly the object of the mission, which is:

1. The arousing of the thoughtless and indifferent in order that they may turn in heart to Him who is the savieur of sinners.

2. The quickening of believers that they may be led to whole hearted consecration to Christ, and with souls at real in Him may serve Him without fear in holineas of life.

It then proceeds to show that the Holy Spirit only can bring about such results, and therefore calls upon all well-wishers—

1. To pray daily for themselves, their friends and relatives, for their neighbors, that the work may be blessed to their souls, and for the mission preacher, that he may come in the power of the Holy Ghost, with nothing to hinder God from speaking through him.

2. To make the time and place of these meetings as widely known as possible.

3. And to come as regularly as they cas, and in taith to expect a rich blessing for themselves and their friends.

The letter concludes by giving an extract from a speech of the Archibshop of York's bearing witness to the goed work that has been accomplished by mission services throughout he of York. nouncing that a ten days mission will be preach-

In the present day there are searcely any members of the Church of England who decline to acknowledge the benefit and necessity of such evangelistic services. Both high and low churchmes agree in loudly sounding their merits. When such men as the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, the Bishops of Durham, Lichfield, Rochester, Ripon, Sorior and Man, Hedford, Manchester, Liverpool, Glouce ter, Bristol, Nova Scotie, Montreal and Torontound doubtless many more, besides thousands of other clergymen, are warm supporters of the movement, people may fairly waive precenceived ideas and at least give the matter a trial before pronquincing an opinion.

My Duvernet has met with unlocked for success in the discass of Montreal and his advent amongst us will be cordially welcomed.

Sunday School Institute According to announcement in our last week's issue a Sabbath school institute was held in this town last Sunday and three following days, conducted by Itev. John McEwan, Toronto, secretary of the Sabbath school association of Canada. This association organized in 1865 and has held eighteen provincial conventions in large centres of population. It has strengthened in zeal and knowledge both the delegates who attended its meetings and also those among whom they mingled on their return home, and has done a good work. The first service of the institute in Lindsay commenced on Sunday afte noon, February 17th, when a mass meeting of the several Sunday schools in town gathered at three o'clock in the Methodist church, crowding the large building to its utmost capacity. Mr. McEwan delivered an address on the subject of the lesson of the day, the conversion of the Philippian jailor....On Monday evening the service was held in the Bible Christian church, commencing at 7.30 this town last Sunday and three following Bible Christian church, commencing at 7.30 o'clock, Sabbath school workers being present o'clock, Sabbath school workers being pr-sent in large numbers. After singing a hymn Rev. Mr. Emsley led in prayer, and next Sunday's lesson was read responsively, Rev. Mr. Jones leading responses. The Rev. Mr. McEwan immediately proceeded to the subject of the evening. "The Sabbath school teachers' working law of the Bible," making free use of the blackboard. Erge discussion was invited in which mediately proceeded to the subject of the evening. "The Sabbath school teachers' working law of the Bible," making free use of the blackboard. Free discussion was invited, in which many participated, the service closing at 9.30. On Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock primary class teachers assembled at Mr. Mckwan's request to consider the best methods of imparting instruction to primary classes, when a very pleasant and instructive hour was spent. At 7.30 again the Sunday school workers assembled, when after singing and prayer by Rev. Mr. Limbert and responsive reading of part of the 19th Psalm, Mr. Mckwan, in accordance with his announcement of the night previous, answered questions on Sunday school work and then concluded the subject of the evening before proceeding to the consideration of the question "How to Teach," which was listened to with great interest some discussion being evoked at certain stages of the address. Wednesday evening closed the institute. The service was commenced by singing "Jesus, lover of my soul," when Rev. Mr. Anderson led in prayer and part of 119th Psalm was read. The subject was then taken up of "The teacher and his work, 'illustrations being copiously given and discussion solicited. At the close of Mr. Mckwan's address Rev. Mr. Jones proposed that the thanks of the institute he presented to Rev. Mr. Mckwan for his high y suggestive addresses and lessons, which was seconded by Hev. Mr. Anderson, supported by Rev. Mr. Emsley, and unanimously carried. The collection was then taken up and the institute was closed, a very enjoyable time having been spent by all. No doubt the result will be seen in increased efficiency in all our Sunday schools.

[To the Editor of The Post.] Sir.-Knowing that you, through your valuable paper The Post, are ever ready to present to its many readers for their consideration or discussion anything calculated to be of good to the country and to the best means for securing that good, I regret that this privilege is not taken advantage of much more than it is. There are many questions most important to each of us, especially us farmers. I would like to see a large column filled with information sought for and given. This is a time of the year when we know or ought to know how ench crop or venture succeeded and draw our own conclusions, these to be used as a basis in another year. Without such thoughts I question success. Now as we all wish to gain or possess all the knowledge we can I think we cannot estimate this privilege too highly. Then let us utilize these long winter evenings in contributing something. What proved a benefit to you may prove a benefit to others. I set us while we protect ourselves be willing—yoa glad—to protect our neighbor. This is the only protection we will ever get. Then let us try to work for each other's good in this way and we will all be benefited. What do you think, Mr. Editor Now, sir, I will set the example by offering for the consideration of all a suggestion as to the best means of delivering our roads of these anow b ockade. Results of Proper Methods. Under the above heading the Whitby Chronicle says:-"The liberal clubbing offer made by the Chronicle in October last, combined with a thoroughly organized canvas of the entire county by a regular appointed canvasser, aided by local agents, has given to the Chronicle a subscription list of which the publishers have every reason to feel pleased. There are newspaper publishers who seem to believe that the lists of a country newspaper cannot be increased. The Chronicle is is not of them. Some years since, when Mr. C. D. Barr purchased The Lindsay Post, he found it with a circulation of about 2,000. Making the paper indispensable to his constituents, pursuing the plan of keeping on his regular staff a canvasser and collector for The Post, and by other means vigorously pushing the paper, he is enabled today to boast of a circulation 3,500—or an increase of nearly double over what it was when first he became its proprietor. The first year's experience of the present proprietors of the Chronicle in the employment of those of similar methods is equally satisfactory." The remarks made by the Chronicle are sound and indicate good business ability. It may be said, however, that when the present proprietor of the The Post took control of the paper the circulation was but little over a thousand. The advance has been more marked than the figures given by our cotem. ty by a regular appointed canvasser, aided by marked than the figures given by our cotem. would indicate. Aug. 29th, 1883, Dalmeny P.O., Tp. Osgoode Messrs. Churchill and Co., Dear Sirs.—I have been troubled with Piles for the last five years and during that time I have taken medicine from five doctors which failed to effect a curc. I have used only one box of your Clymax Eye Salve, which I purchased from W. F. Ritchie of Osgoode Station, and can recommend it as a safe cure to all afflicted with the same disease. I consider your Fountain of Health an excellent tonie to build up the system.

Yours truly ARCHIE McDIARMED.

Dear Sirs.—For over twenty years I have suffered greatly from Nasal Catarrh; sometimes being unable to smell or taste properly. The disease caused a severe pain over the eyes, and frequently stopped my writing on account of dizziness. The phlegm in my throat gave me much annoyance, especially in company, balls of which would occasionally fall down into my throat, and I could seldom breathe through my nose. I have taken quarts of various medicines without any apparent benefit, until I was induced, by your agent of 69 Muter street, to try your Fountain of Health. After using five bottles I am prepared to give it as my honest opinion that for the cure of Catarrh it is a grand success. I have recommended it to many of my friends, one of whom encloses his testimonial with mine. imonial with mine.
Wishing you deserved success.
