A CIDENT.—We exceedingly regret to announce that our estcomed friend Mr. About Corner inflicted a very painful wound on his foot with an axe while enopping in the woods last week. Dr. Hart of Carpington was immediately summoned and sewed up the cut. Under his able trea ment the patient will soon be able to be around again. I NS OF SPRING. - Thunder was heard here to-day and weather prophets tell us it is the sign of a late spring. We hope they sre false prophets.

FOOT BALL MATCH.—On Friday evening

the Pefferiaw foot ball club, the "Invincibles" played a lively game with the amateur players of the village. The number of players on each side was about equal and the eagerness and enthusiasm with which they played shewed that each side was confident of victory. The game was witnessed by a large number of interested spectators and was long and exciting, but when time was called the "Invincibles" were ahead. The "unknown" from Lindsay was there and displayed much shilled. say was there and displayed much ability as a player. He played with the amateurs had we are enclined to think he is an old

"Stager" and has been on duty before.

BAO MAIL ARRANGEMENTS. - Very great inconvenience is felt here for the want of s duly mail as places of much less im-portance have daily mails. Several attempts have been by the citizens to have suchange made, but so far their efforts in that direction have falled.

Distriction nave raised.

Strictions.—Business in our village has been unusually brisk here this winter.

Our postmaster, Mr. Johnston, from his in reasing business contemplates enlarging his premises... Mr. Johnston is also been paring for a great trade in lumber the in his premises...Mr. Johnston is also proparing for a great trade in lumber the coming summer and has got his sawmill fully equipped to cut all kinds of lumber and has now apwards of ten thousand sawlogs at his mills...Mr. Wm. METHODIST UNION. The bill respecting the union of the Methodist churches was passed through committee of the whole without amendnent, and read a third time and passed. THE ORANGE BILL.

The second reading of the Orange bill was passed over on the ground that the bill had not been printed in French. THE BUDGET DEBATE was continued Thursday's session. It was resumed Friday by Mr. Chariton, who was still does the ironwork. Mr. Williams has followed by Messrs. Dundas, Mills. Me-proved himself a good workman, deserv- Lelian and Sir Richard Cartweight. THE ! HARD CASE was brought up Monday by Mr. Mulock. who showed that Col. Williams should have called for a military investigation and not made charges as a member of parliament. Several conservatives expressed the opinion that Gen. Luard had been badly treated. The Mail was again badly sat upon by tory members.

THE GRANGERS AND THE TARILL. A large delegation of the Dominion Grangers waited on the government on Saturday and pre-ented several memorials to which an early reply was desired. In the first place, they asked that the prayer of the petitioners should be heard desiring that the duty on salt and other fertilizers should be removed and that the duty on agricultural implements should be reduced 10 percent ad valorem. A memorial was also presented praying that the insolvency bill should not be passed or if it should be so passed that it will include farmers, grangers and labouring men. Another memorial was presented asking that instead of two hundred dollars deposit now requisite for a candidate for the house of commons that a qualification of not less than three hundred dollars of real estate in the riding for which the candidate desires to run be demanded before he is qualified to contest any constituency. Some changes were also asked by the delegation in regard to the law respecting the inspecthe law affecting agriculture. The mem-bers of the delegation left for their respective homes on Saturday night.

COMMERCIAL NEWS.

OFFICE OF THE CANADIAN POST, LINDSAY, March 13th, 1881. Eusiness and Produce.

Local business has been very quiet owing to the bad roads. Something must be done to prevent the terrible drifts. There is no material change to make in quotations. Montreal Horse Market.

A pretty good business has transpired in horse flesh during the past week both on American and local account. Quite a number of American buyers are still in the city and a fair business is in progress. The quantity shipped from Montreal to the states last week was 102 horses costing $12,776 against 88 head costing $10,428 for the corresponding week last year. The average price paid last week by American shippers was $123.70 against $118.50 a year shippers was $123.70 against $118.50 a year ago. The following is a detailed statement of the shipments during the week ending March 8th: March 4th, 8 horses $1,025, 1 do $100, 1 mare $150, 1 horse $100, 1 horse $145, 15 horses $1,569, 6 do $663; March 6th, 9 do $1,464, 15 do $1,755, 5 mares $605, 3 do $425, 7 horses $927, 9 do $928.50, 1 mare $118, 12 do $1,646; March 7th, 6 horses $917.50, 2 mares $230. Montreal Live Stock Market.

There were about 175 butchers cattle ffered on Viger market on Monday, and as some of the butchers had been buying at Point St. Charles early in the morning. the demand was not so brisk and prices were again declining, being from ic to per lh lower than the high prices of last Monday. A few head of the best steers and heifers were sold at 51c per 1b, but the general run of pretty good steers were sold at 5 c to 5 c and rough leanish animals sold at about 5 c per lb. There were very few milkmen's strippers on the market Monday as the butchers have a musical treat Tuesday evening, as the world-famed coloured warblers are to give an entertainment in the B. C. church.

NOTES.—A great lot of wood is coming into Manilla this winter. ... A boom in the tea business. ... The salvation army should send a "wing" of the force to Manilla. ... Mr. D. J. McIntyre, M.P.P., was in town Saturday. ... Trains delayed today. ... R. T. Edwards's trotters are at Fenelon Falls, in training on the ice. ... Look out for something in the marrimonial line next week—sufer than Wiggins's prophecies.
