BOSEDALE.
[Correspondence of The Post.]
[HYDRAULIC.]—A large number of friends met at the residence of Mr. W. F. Brookes of this village, on the 28th inst., to witness the marriage of Mr. Robert McGee of Fescote, to Miss Martha Brookes of Boscadale. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. McPherson. The young couple all happiness and prosperity. Surely Boscadale is improving, this being the second wedding this month and a prospect of more.

RECOVERING.—The many friends will be rejoiced to hear that our old and esteemed friend, Mr. John McIntyre, who has been ill for some time, is recovering and able to be out again. We trust Mr. McIntyre may still continue to improve and that we may have him amongst us for many years yet.

NOTES.—Our snow is fast disappearing and the farmers will soon be preparing for the coming year. A good deal of sickness around here. A good deal of sickness around here. A good deal of sickness around here.
