VICTORIA COUNTY COURT.

there would have been us resistance, and consequently us shedding of blood. When the detective and constable entered the house they found two women and two menthers. The place presented evidence of recent detaking, and it is quite possible that the exciting effects of the liquor had not been slept off. The evidence of the constable and detective give the only clear account of the affair that is obtainable. The name of the immates are Lillie Brandou and Maked Ormiston. The men found there were Nelson Tolman and David Hamilton, beth employed by the Longford Lumber Co., and the latter from Sheriff's Covners, [Duneford] in the county of Victoria. In the effort to compel these persons to go to the lock-up without a was runt, Coss drew a revolver, and in a souffice with Hamilton, it was fired, shooting the young fellow in the head and killing him instantly. An imposs was held by Dr. Ramesey.

Nelson Tolman was a very reluctant witness, and either had been to drunk to remember the particulars, or determined
