

LEATHER PROBABILITIES.

It may rain, it may snow, and it may do neither; but one thing is certain, the latter end of summer is hotter than the beginning, but, nevertheless, he is shaping to skeddaddle suddenly, and the result to those who have not cultivated the bump of precaution will be cold or cough, pneumonia, neuralgia and other ills whose name is legion, and causing them to wear a face as long as a pumpkin vine.

Our new Stock of FALL & WINTER GOODS is now very complete, while the prices are UNTOUCHABLE (copyrighted) elsewhere, and never before we have shown such a large and varied stock of elegant New Goods.

If you are a customer elsewhere it will well repay you to have a look through the City Store before making your choice, as we carry goods different in styles, different in quality and different in price.

WHEN WHEAT MOVES Trade Brightens Up!

There's no doubt about this. The farmer has his hand on the money bag of the capitalist. Until the farmer markets his grain the merchant and the mechanic must wait for money.

For the next two weeks the farmers of the county will take their holiday. And why not? With fall ploughing well on and things fairly fixed, give the boys and girls a day or two and take the wife to the city.

Then sell your wheat. Put money in circulation. Let the wheels of business revolve without grinding and growling.

If you've money to spend—and you doubtless will have—and need household necessities, you can't do better than lay out your money at Lindsay. We are a pushing careful business town.

We have merchants that are keen buyers. We've retailers that are keen traders. And you'll get no better value nor better treatment than at our hands.

Now a word about our prices for these goods. In the first place we don't say they're lower than everybody else's. Such a statement would be untrue and deceive no one.

As low comparison will prove. And with a view to proving it we ask you to make the comparison. Call and look over our stock whether you wish to buy or not.

We'll not ask you to; it's not our way. Nor do we count it a trouble to show goods; on the contrary, we take pleasure in doing so. It's human nature, you know, to want to show a nice thing when you've got it, and—well, we plead guilty to the weakness.

Coming down to the question of GROCERIES—which after all is the thing we are going to jog you about—do you need GROCERIES. We are handling such quantities that what we've on hand MUST be fresh. This is an important point.

Then we've bought at figures a stride below prices of this time last year. That's another point. And we'll sell you either a bill of one dollar's worth or one hundred.

We've a stock of Teas, of Sugars, of General Groceries that can't be duplicated in the country. We've such a stock of SPECIAL GROCERIES—canned goods and such—that you can't ask for anything that we cannot place in your hand.

Now a word about our prices for these goods. In the first place we don't say they're lower than everybody else's. Such a statement would be untrue and deceive no one.

IMPORTANT CHANGE

Coming to an important change that I am about to make in my business, and as such change necessitates a large sale, and unusually large sales must be made at a great sacrifice, I will give very great inducements to buyers of large or small parcels who pay cash.

Children, if you have any girls you want to buy dresses for, I have a quantity of short ends that will be sold at 50 per cent off of a 50c piece for 25c, a 75c piece for 37c, and for the boys and young men who require clothes, I will give you a choice of 10 short ends at the rate of a $2.00 piece for $1.00, a $1.50 piece for 75c, and a $1.00 piece for 50c.

If you can get for 25c a yard what you pay 50c for, is means a saving to you of $1.20 in a 12 yard length, and you can get it. If you can save 10 to 15 cents a yard on a velvet, its worth doing and you can do it.

In the Millinery and Mantle Room the same unfortunate state of affairs exist. New and beautiful goods are being slaughtered. But the change must be made and we must get rid of the goods to do it.

GENTLEMEN, Now is the time to order your breeches, for you can have the choice of a choice stock at a low price, if you are willing to buy at once. In Overland we have some dainties for you to look at, and if you can't buy they will make you feel bad.

READY MADE CLOTHING of our own make, and every garment guaranteed as good as it looks, and will keep shape, color and appearance as well as ordered clothing, at a little more than half the price.

Come soon as you can, but if any should not get here until the week of the fair we would advise all such to come in as soon as you come to town, do your business, and then go to the display. It is going to be a big show. We intended making a big display at it, but on account of this sale we will not have time.
