A. Campbell.

The attention of our readers, housekeepers in particular, is asked to the tactiities of A. CAMPRELL for placing at their illupousl executions lines of Circostes, Provisions, Frills and Produce, Crockery and the infunction central (Interio, and certainly (Hamwares The business conducted by Mr. Campbell is, as is well known, one of the largest in this or edictains counties, The advantage in this to individual matomore in that where goods are purchased from After hunds in large quantities, and on the shortest possible time and for cash, it is reasonable to infer that such goods can be wold at a price comparatively lower than if only small quantities were handled. Such in the case and the large and increase. ing trade commanded by Mr. Campbell is a recognition by the public of this fact. Just now in a time when certain lines are offered at close-pared values to make foots for Christians Goods to arrive shortly, Then again an instance of the advantage of trading large quantities of goods is seen in the case of Soaps, Mr. Campbell has just received 100 boxes each of Brown and limitary Soaps, and to small dealers and those who buy in parcels the opportunity is an excellent one. Mr. Campbell is offerthe a number of bargains for people in every condition of life, and it will be to their interest to watch his advertisements. note the bargains and take advantage of those that answer their wants, Mr. Camp. bell has long been established in Linday. and his name is a household word in very many homes, Ills motto, "If the goods are not satisfactory and as represented, 40 to him and he will allow all reanonable claims," has made his place better known than any other in Lindsay, and built up the large business he is now doing. Watch his bargains and take advant-

Ray & Co.

RAY & Co.

CORNER STORE, DOHENY BLOCK, KENT & WILLIAM-8TS., LINDSAY.

SPECIALTIES FOR THIS WEEK.

Black and Colored Dress Velvets. Heavy Costume Tweeds, Only 20c per yard. Melton Costume Cloths.

Choice Goods, only 35c a yd., Worth 50c a vd.

Gloves and Hosiery, Warm Comfortable Goods. and Very Cheap.

We have secured a Case of

Mantles at an Extraordinary Reduction.

They are being disposed of at less than Bankrupt Prices. See our Astrachan Mantles, down to $20.00. Full sizes and lengths. See them.

NEW MILLINERY THIS WEEK

In this department our prices are emphatically the lowest.

RAY & Co.

Corner Store, Doheny Block, Lindsay.

Publisher's Notice. SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY.

Now to Increase the Circulation of THE POST of five new subscribers and renewals of five old state whether old or new spherihers.

The Canadian Post.

The Canadian Yost

SHAPLES D. BARR, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS

CAMBRAY. REAL ESTATE.—Mr. Richard James has purchased at private sale the fine Bowerman farm near this place. We congratulate Mr. James on his purchase.

ORILLIA. RECOLATING THE LAKES. The navigation of our lakes is likely to suffer if the "obstructions" removed at Washago be not replaced and some better method of regulating the lakes devised.—[Packet.

BELLEVILLE. WAS SHE KIDNAPPED. A girl named Mandy Fairwell, living in the 3rd con. of Murray, has been missing since the 20th of of last month. On that day she started to walk to Wooler post-office, but her whereabouts since has been a mystery.

PALENTINE. School. Report.—Subjoined is the re-port for October; Fifth class—Marks ob-tainable, 312: Minnie Pollock, 247. Senior Fourth: Edith Greaves, Archie McAlpine, M. Birmingham, Junior Fourth: Edith Staples, Bella McNabb, Emma Holmes, Third class: Lottie Pollock, Nettie Green.

WOODVILLE. [Correspondence of The Post.] over your valuable paper I came across the North Brock correspondence, and, seeing the despondent state he has fallen into, thought I might venture on a suggestion. I am sure if he were to make a request to some of those maiden ladies within five miles of his residence he would not have to repeat it in order to have company in "treading the wine press," especially if he were sincere. I am sure, Mr. Editor, you can vouch for the fact that if he knew the happiness resulting from conjugal felicity he would forever abandon the idea of living such a delsolate life.

A FAIR SUBSCRIBER.

NAGEM - MARIPONA. Correspondence of The Post.)
PERSONAL. Mr. J. Sharp has removed into the house lately occupied by the late Mr. Archer. Mr. John Goffit from the

Mr. Archer...... Mr. John Goffit from the went was visiting his friends and old associates..... Henj. Woodward is home from Dakota. He looks hale and hearty.

BUILDING.—Mr. Moses Gilson erected a new stable. Mesers. J. McKinnon and J. McDongall are the contractors..... Mr. W. Mitchell is about to erect a new house.

Local. Phraching.—Mr. Sharp, who has lately come into our midst, officiated in the church last Sabbath evening. Mr. Sharp is an able speaker and conveys his ideas well. We were only too glad to hear that he is willing to occupy the pulpit every Sunday evening.

RECOVERING.—We are pleased to learn that Miss Annie Thorburn, who had her leg broken about six weeks ago, is recover-SCRAIM. Most of the farmers have finished their turnips which were a good crop.... Nothing wrong done halloween night ... Sales all the go ... A wedding expected soon... Fall plowing behind.

LITTLE BRITAIN. [Correspondence of The Post.]
THANKSGIVING DAY. -- Thanksgiving day was observed here by means of a prayer was observed here by means of a prayer meeting at six o'clock in the morning, which was attended by upwards of fifty persons, and an evening service which was well attended. The meeting heartily responded to the object of the day by offering their united thanks to the "Giver of all Good. During the day our brass band made their first public appearance and rendered a number of airs with spirit in a fairly creditable manner. They have the well wishes of the writer and I presume the whole village.

able manner. They have the well wishes of the writer and I presume the whole village.

Prinsonal.—Mr. John Thorne, lately employed as blacksmith in the carriage works of Mr. Joseph Maunder, having completed his apprenticeship has obtained work at Thornhill. We wish him success...J. L. Allin, dry goods clerk of Bowmanville, was home on Thursday last... Missagnes Ruse of Harriston is spending a few days with Mr. Joseph Maunder.

Musical Instrument.—Mr. W. H. Pogue, merchant, lately purchased from Mr. W. Logan of your town, an expensive and handsome upright plano. It is of the Dominion Plano Co.'y make, and I understand the tone of the instrument maintains the well-carned reputation of the company.

Birms Society.—The meeting of the Little Britain branch of the above society was held on Monday evening in the Christian church which was fairly attended. The agent, Rev. J. G. Manly, presented the progress during the past year. The amount collected here shewed a very large and encouraging increase over last year, peing something better than $00. The following officers were elected for the country year:—Freeldent, Dr. A. E. Vrooman; secretary, John Ford; treasurer, S. H. Metherall. Committee: Daniel Noble, John Dix, John Broad and Joseph Maunder. The collectors, I understand, are to be appointed by the committee. Reception are good for a favorable report at the end of the current year.

Remover.—Our old friend and carter,

Ruscoven. Our old friend and carter, John Kinch, has taken his leave from smeaget us for a time. The well mown form of himself and steed will be missed

Metheredi, 2 Edith Mark, 3 Helen Mark and Metheredi, 2 Edith Mark, 3 Helen Mark and Notite Brimmel. Jun. Second: I Wesley Manuster, 2 Howard Cuthbert, 3 Editic Mallett. San, Finet: I Helena Edtheredi, 2 Rawren. Finity, 3 Herdie Earthart. Jun. First: I Alice Antis, 2 Zella Morma, 3 Gos. Rusiani. Sen. Istist class: I Alima Sheet, 2 Idu Cowle, 3 Mila Poque. Jun. Tatlet class: I Alima Sheet, 2 Idu Cowle, 3 Mila Poque. Jun. Tatlet class: I Minnie Wallace, 2 Edith Finity, 3 Fred. Allin. J. J. Bhoad and forbearance with him in his affliction and their carnest prayers for his full recovery of health and long continuance among them.

BEAVERTON. [Correspondence of The Post.]
THANKSOLVING DAY.—Thursday of last week was generally observed here as a themisogiving day, services being held in all the churches and the business places being closed.
PERSONAL.—Robert Ross, who was home in Scotland for the past two mouths, re-

PERSONAL.—Robert Ross, who was home in Scotland for the past two months, returned on Thursday last. He speaks of having a splendid time during his visit.

SUSPICIOUS TRAMPS.—There are a few suspicious looking tramps hovering round and in this vicinity. Chief Constable Rose is on their track and will attend to them.

Ban Roads.—There was not such arush of grain this week on account of the bad roads.

ON FIRE.—Last Sabbath morning the Hamilton house seek fire, but was put out by the occupants of the house.

THE WHARF QUESTION.—I understand the Grand Trunk Railway Co.have notified the reeye that it is not their intention to rebuild the wharf here nor extend the track to Lake Simcoe.

CONFIRMATION.—The Bishop of Toronto has visited this section of country, where he held confirmation and preached last Sunday, the 9th inst. At the morning service a good congregation was present, and at night the church was filled to its utmost capacity to witness the confirma-tion service that then took place. Bishop Sweatman's address to the candidates was Sweatman's address to the candidates was listened to throughout by the congregation with marked attention, breathing as it did an enlightened liberality, without sacrifice of any principle essential to true church-manship. Most favourable comments on its tone, matter and earnestness were made by the sturdy Persbyterianism of this place, which generously remembers and place, which generously remembers and seeks to endorse the friendly greeting which passed between the general assembly of the Presbyterian church and the synod of the church of England in Toronto

ELDON.

ELDON.

[Correspondence of The Post.]

PERSONAL.—Mr. S. C. Rodgers and Mrs. Rodgers left on Wednesday, the 20th ult., for Saginaw, Michigan, where Mr. Rodgers has been appointed to the position of bookseper for an organ and plano establishment there at a good salary. We expect when our genial friend visits Eldon again he will be a retired millionaire. His Eldon friends wish him many days of happiness and prosperity, and lots of wee batrns. His employers will find S. C. the right man in the right place.

CATTLE BUYING.—We see that Mr. E. Jones of Saudringham and a gentleman from Toronto named Mr. Chester are buying up all the choice cattle in this township. They have shipped a couple of carloads already from Lorneville Junction to the outer city. We expect to me. Mr. E.

the queen city. We expect to see Mr. E. Jones himself a buyer next year as we would take him to be well qualified for the

Some Trings WE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW. Where is the Palestine correspondent? Is he off on a constinue correspondent? Is he off on a constinue or a hunting expedition, or is his mind taken up with some future delights, when he forgets his spicy pieces from that vicinity. We would say to him, awake, thou siumbers, from the sleep. berer, from thy sleep.

ENQUIRY. What has happened the Sandringham correspondent? Has he gone across the border to attend the the U.S. elections? If he has we wish him much MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.—A word about our coming municipal elections. We would like to know who is going to be our next deputy-reeve in place of Mr. W. Cameron, the incorporated village of Work. W. Cameron, whom we expect to see the next reeve of the incorporated village of Woodville. We are sure if our reeve, Mr. E. D. McEachern, will come out for the reeveship for another year that he will be elected by acclamation.

year that he will be elected by acciamation or by a large majority.

ROOTS.—Several farmers have their roots out yet, such as turnips.

Hallowsen.—We saw, while driving along the 3rd con. lately, that the boys of Argyle and that locality had been out having a bit of fun. When Mr. W. H. Wright, the implement arount several along he was ing a bit of fun. When Mr. W. H. Wright, the implement agent, came along he was surprised to sees some of his ploughs taking a free ride on the very top of the old store formerly occupied by the post office, and two more single ploughs taking a teeter up and down across the peak of the roof of Hector C. McDonald's residence near the village of Argyle.

CPTERGROVE. uence of The Poet.

(Correspondence of The Post.)

A PATENT RIGHT MAN COMMITTED TO GAOL.—John M. Scribner of Port Perry was committed by Mesers. Thomson, Elder and Smith, J.P.'s, for swindling, at the instance of Mr. William McDonald, of the Uptergrove house. Scribner had Squire Gillesple of Brock on his case, who of course dissented from the decision of the other magistrates. From McDonald's evidence it would appear that Scribner got him to sign two agreements, which afterwards turned out to be notes for $130 and $165 respectively. The notes got into the hands of third parties, who sued and got judgment on them. McDonald never got any value for the notes whatever, nor did he know that he was signing notes for Scribner. The trial will come up at the sessions at Whitby in December. Such fraudulent patent right deals ought to be sat upon everywhere.

Scribner. The trial will come up at the seasions at Whithy in December. Such fraudulent patent right deals ought to be set upon everywhere.

BURGLARE.—Policeman Ennis is now engaged in tracking some burgiars that have recently been hanging around here. You bet, they'll soon have to skip or submit to the handcurfts, for Mr. Ennis is not to be fooled with when on dury. I can promise a lively time for any burglars that come around here, se Chief Ennis is well prepared for the meat daring of them.

PRESENTATION TO REV. H. SERGLAIR.—OR THOUGHT IN THE POST IN IT I

LIFFORD. [Correspondence of The Post.]
SUNDAY SCHOOL.—The Sunday school which has been lately organized here is progressing very satisfactorily. The following officers are appointed to take charge of the school: Superintendent, Mr. William Coulter; assistant superintendent, Mr. Jas. Dean: secretary, Mr. Robert Wylie. The teachers appointed are Messra Jas. Dean, James Robinson, Thomas Brown, George Staples, Mise Lizzie Arnott and Mise Annie Shea. May they daily advance in their god work.

[Correspondence of The Post.]

Heven. Cmasses.—Mr. J. H. Ruddy of Port Perry has leased Mr. J. Lang's hotel.
Mr. Ruddy is an old hotel man and will do well here. He is popular and well-liked.
PRODUCE BUYING.—Mr. Joseph Preston, grain merchant, we are informed, purchased over $2,000 worth of butter from the farmers of this section on Friday last.
This speaks well for Mr. Preston in favoring the farmers in paying an excellent figure for their produce.
FOWI. SHIPMENT.—Mr. James Morrow of Lindsay shipped a carload of fowl from this station one day last week for the New York market. BETHANY.

York market. BLACKSMITHING.-Mr. Robert Kennedy blacksmith, of our village, appears to be doing a good business in that line, and as he turns out excellent work the people of Manvers should patronize him.

KIRKFIELD. [Correspondence of The Post.]
PERSONAL. - J. McTaggart. Dominion land agent at Touchwood, N.W.T., arrived home on Tuesday evening. He obtained leave of absence for a few weeks. He made the journey from Touchwood to Qu'-Appelle station on the C.P.R., a distance of seventy-five miles, with an ordinary sleigh. He states that the bona fide settlers in that country are well satisfied with the existing land laws, but that specplators, as might be expected, are not at all in favor with them as they do not give them favorable opportunities of defrauding the people....Mr. L. McFadyen, who has been working on the C.P.R. in British Columbia for McKenzie & McDonald, has returned after an absence of five or six months.

RECOVERING.—Mr. King, who has been very ill for some time with congestion of the lungs, is now recovering and we hope to see him around in a few days.

SHOT A DERR.—Mr. R. Boynton shot a deer near Mr. L. McEachren's in Upper Palestine a few days ago.

OMEMER.

ANOTHER "FOWL" PROCEEDING. - On Friday evening Messrs. Charles Ivory carloads of fowl for New York. have been here this week on a partridge hunt. They report good fun and partridge plentiful.

New Building.—Mr. S. English has got his new dwelling house about completed. When finished it will be one of the best buildings in the village.

SURAPS.—Roads bad and business quiet.

SURAPS.—Roads bad and business quiet.
....The reeve has got a gang of men repairing the road at the new iron bridge.
....Some one stole Beaver's lantern from the salvation army Wednesday night.
OVSTER SUPPER.—On Thursday evening of last week Messrs. McNeely & Walters entertained their employees and a few friends to an oyster supper at the Bradburn house. The supper was prepared in Mr. Martin's first-class style, and in which he maintained the well earned reputation of the house. The successful completion of the stone abutments of the new iron of the stone abutments of the new iron bridge was the cause of the entertainment. The pleasing features of this contract was the good feeling and harmony which existed between the employee; during the work on the contract. After the supper had been partaken of the company adjourned to the parlour where several hours were pleasantly spent in songs and music. —[Herald. SAINTFIELD.

[Correspondence of The Post.]
THRESHING.—Threshing is now the main talk of the day between Saintfield and Greenbank, as O'Leary & Harmon have became excited and I fear have stretched the truth. Mr. Stone must have been fond of seeing his horses work if he allowed Messrs O'Leary & Harmon to thresh nearly eleven hundred bushels in two hours. O'LEARY & HARMON'S CHALLENGE TAK-

EN UP. -I would kindly ask those gentle-men, who gave this bluff, to go face to face to Malyon & Dobson, and I will guarantee they will bet $10.00 to $1.00, for as many hundred as they like, to do threshing faster and better.

PLOWING MATCH POSTPONED. - Owing to the young winter the committee was forced to postpoue the match till Wednes-

THE LOST FOUND.-Mr. John Malyon's watch that was reported stolen was found in one of his Sunday boots. If those parties who lost the oat sheaves and pumpkins their property.

HALLOWEEN. - Mr. Thos. English's waggon by some unknown means or other got the biggest wheels in front. Who did it? LOOK OUT for O'Leary & Harmon next BRECHIN.

BRECHIN.

[Correspondence of The Post.]

THE PULPIT.—Rev. Mr. Garbutt exchanged pulpits with Rev. Mr. Burns of Camington on Sunday. Mr. Burns is a very elequent speaker and the church was crowded at the evening service.

St. Andrew's R. C. Church.—Service was held in St. Andrew's R. C. church at half-past ten in the morning and half-past six in the evening. In the evening a very instructive discourse from the gospel was given by Rev. Father Davis. The singing of the choir on Sunday was excellent, as they were ably assisted by Miss Deane and Mr. Gillogly of Lindsay. Miss Deane and Mr. Gillogly of Lindsay. Miss Deane sang Ave Marie by Millard in a voice which gave evidence of the highest cultivation and training.

Personal.—Miss Kennedy of Orillia and Mrs. Deane of Lindsay were visiting here during the week.

here during the week.

NORTH BROCK.

NORTH BROCK.

[Correspondence of The Post.]

Sunday Death.—We are very sorry to have to report this week the death of Mr. Henry Jackson, which took place very suddenly at his residence near Wilfred, on Thursday morning of last week. Mr. Jackson was in the enjoyment of his usual health up to the time of his death. He was at Cannington on Wednesday evening and was in the best of spirits, nothing in the slightest degree seeming to indicate the was in the cest of spirits, nothing in the slightest degree seeming to indicate the near approach of the termination of his career. On arriving home he complained of feeling very chilly, but manifested no symptoms of illness. He retired at the usual time, and shortly after midnight Mrs. Jackson's attention was attracted by his heavy breathing, when she endergoned his heavy breathing, when she endeavored to arouse him but all efforts to de so proved effectual, and he expired in a few monents. Mr. Jackson was in the 47th year of his age and was possessed of corsiderable enterprise. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss.

VICTORIA ROAD.

[Correspondence of The Post.]
A CAPITAL BEAR STORY. - Thursday ast being an "off day" three of our promnent citizens met together to talk over old imes. They talked about Blaine and Cleveland; they talked about Utah and the Mormonites; they told fish stories till it was necessary to sprinkle salt on the floor; but hunting stories took away all the cake that was left. To hear those boys talk it was "awfully grand." It made one imagine that the stove was an old one imagine that the stove was an old she-bear; the spittoon became a two-year buck; the pictures on the walls became a pack of wolves; and the tumblers each represented a fifty pound salmon. We were all mesmerized. Mr. Chirapa w told how he was chased up a tree by a she-bear. She rooted up the tree and as it fell he sprang nineteen feet into the nearest branch. The tree fell on the bear and saved his life. Mr. Cowan told about a moose that was just springing into his beat. "to that was just springing into ms out, to be level with the bear story." He shot it through the heart. Mr. Boden knocked both of them out the first round with his both of them out of wolves." He had that was just springing into his boat, "to sleigh when a c y arose outside "A bear! a bear!" close to the village. Mr. Chirpaw got his gun, C wen examined his Wingot his gun, C wen examined his Winchester and Bo en got a cordwood stick. The night was lark. The moving object was hardly visible to the naked eye. Nearer came the brute. The hunters crouched behind a log. All was still. The Winchester was put into line. "One, two, three! Speak now!" whispered Chirpaw. Bang! bang! bang! The echo came back across the snow. Ma! ma! maa! Jehoshaphat, Cowan! bedad, it's a sheep! Boden threw away his club, and wondered where the devil his old cow had got to; Chirpaw lit his pipe and wanted to know "if us blamed fools had never seen a man looking for a cow before;" Cowen had lost a black for a cow before;" Cowen had lost a black sheep. He found it. Boden was heard to whisper, "Cowan, it's a good thing you and no more shot or we might have had to back and treated. Mr. Boden finished the wolf story and the apprentice boys stood ontside. We listened. They sang a song, the chorus of which was:

Cowan's got a little sheep. Chirpaw has a gun. Boden's thrown away his club. And we've had all the fun! WILKINS MICAWBER. HORNCASTLE.

[Correspondence of The Post.] CHURCH DEDICATION.—The new church of this place was dedicated to the worship of God on Sunday. 2nd inst. Divine ser vice was held at 1.30 a.m. and at 6.30 p.m. There was no reverend gentlemen in attendance. Mr. Sharp had applied to some but they did not put in an appearance, so Mr. Sharp had to conduct the service himself. The people assembled at the hourannounced. The morning service opened by singing that well known hymn of Dr. Watts, "Before Jehovah's awful throne ye er the international Sunday school lessons appointed for the day was then read, it being on the dedication of Solomon's temple. The dedication service in the Methodist ittel odist ritual was then read, omitting, of course, that part which says "according to the discipline and usage of the Methodist church." A short sermon was then preached from Rom. xii., 1., in which the speaker earnestly exhorted his audience to speaker earnestly exhorted his audience to put their all upon the altar that sanctifieth the gift. It was a very precious time. The evening service was in behalt of the Sunday school. Another earnest discourse was delivered from Psalms, cxlv., 10, 11 and 12. Subject, "The saints of God and their work to make known their king and the glorious majesty of his kingdom." A blessed influence pervaded the services of the day.....On Monday a public tea was served at five o'ciock p.m. in Mr. Sharn's served at five o'clock p.m. in Mr. Sharp's kitchen, where the tables seemed to fairly groan under the sumptuous and bountiful kitchen, where the tables seemed to fairly groan under the sumptuous and bountiful spread of provisions of great variety, thanks to the ladies. Over sixty sat down to tea. After ample justice had been done the edibles the friends assembled in the church, when a public meeting was held. Recitations, dialogues, addresses and singing were the order of the evening. The gathering was presided over by Mr. Sharp. The singing was ably led by Mr. Edward Butterworth, when we had another proof of the ability of these two gentlemen to conduct a religious service—Mr. Sharp to do the speaking and Mr. Butterworth to do the singing, so this neighborhood can boast of a Moody and Sankey of their own. Mr. Sharp up to a year ago had been a member of the Wesleyan Methodist church for over thirty years and twenty-five years of that time actively engaged as a local preacher whose labors had been successful and with acceptance both in the old country and in this, as quite a number had been gathered into that church under his labors.

Social.—The ladies were so liberal in their preparations for the tea on Monday.

their preparations for the tea on Monday evening that it was impossible to get away evening that it was impossible to get away evening that it was impossible to get away with half of the cakes, pies, etc., at one lift, so we had a ten cent social on Saturday evening, when about seventy assembled to clear off the aurplus. A public meeting was held in the church, when recitations, readings and singing were rendered. Our Moody and Sankey were again on hand and a very pleasant time was spent, all seeming to enjoy themselves.

DEER HUNTING.—Our local sportsmen have been out during the week infull blast.

was the only lucky one. He killed a fine deer close by here. There are plenty of them around here, but they are very wild owing. I suppose, to the fact that they are chased by every dog that comes along.

PETERBORO. STILL A MYSTERY.—The inquest, thrice ndjourned, on the body of J. Johnston was resumed at Peterboro on Monday night. It was again adjourned for two weeks. Who fired the fatal shot remains a mystery.

ENSONVILLE.

[Correspondence of The Post.]
Snow.—A heavy snow storm came here and remained two days and two nights, which raised the snow above the top of all cattle feed except what was in the straw

THRESHING. — The threshing machine "Red Rose" left here the other day after having threshed all the crops grown in here. The grain was far better than any one ex-

TIMELY WARNING. -We hope all the subscribers of THE POST took the timely and sensible warning given in THE POST last year and got their winter's fire-wood out when the leaves began to change color and fall off.

SUNDERLAND.

[Correspondence of The Post.]
BUSINESS is very dull in the village just

Personal. - Miss F. Sylvester returned home to Ringwood on Monday, after spend-ing a week with her cousin, Miss Mary Keenan ... . Mr. P. B. St. John shot a muskrat last Monday ... Mr. A. E. Micks visited Wilfrid, Udora and Zephyr

RE-ENGAGED.—Mr. C. Keenan has been re-engaged by A. Harris, Son & Co. to sell their Brantford binder in this section of the country. Mr. Keenan is just the man the handle a binder, as he will turn his back to no man at setting up and making everything work right about his binder. He has also been re-engaged by L. D. Sawver & Co. More Goods for $1.00.—The general opinion in this section is that you can get more goods for $1.00 at GORDON's than at any other place in town. There you will find goods that you can rely on for quality, and at hard-pan prices. Give him a call and be convinced. -14 1. School Report.—The following are the names of the first four pupils in each class who have obtained the highest marks during the month of October:-Fifth class: Ida Barker, William Falladown; senior fourth class: Root. McClung, Emma Barker, Frank Reynolds, Samnel Mc-Phaden; junior fourth class: Gertie Bacon, Bertie Rewan, Eliza Tocher, Phube J. Bertie Rewan, Eliza Tocher, Phebe J. Brethour; senior third class: Jennie Keenan, Lillie Brabazon, May Barker, Eliza Morgan; junior 3rd class: Herbert Feirheller, Henry Brethour, Emma Tucker, Annie Carr; senior 2nd class: Annie Stevenson, Lena Hall, Nellie McClung, Ida Clifford; junior 2nd class: Flossie Oliver, Bertie Clifford, Nettie McRae, Laura Jerman; senior lat class: Edith Laura Jerman; senior let class: Edith McDermott, George French, Walter St. John, May Frankish.

CONCERT. -An oyster supper and concert was held here on thanksgiving evening, in id of the Methodist sunday school. Cannington choir furnished music, and heir singing was excellent, particularly Miss Eyres' solos were very well received.
Addresses were given by Rev. Mr. Burns of Cannington, Rev. Mr. Reid and Rev. Mr. Stevenson. The proceeds amounted to about $40.

HYMENEAL.—On Wednesday afternoon the joyous peals of the marriage bells rang loud and clear on the village. It was the happy occasion of the marriage of Mr. Noe Ferron to Miss Tilley Smith. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Hill of Vroomanton at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Wellington Smith. The happy couple have the congratulations of the entire community.

CANNINGTON.

[Correspondence of The Post.] SALVATION ARMY. - The whole excitenent here is the salvation army. They have had several showers of eggs, but still it does not discourage them in their work. Sieps are being taken to arrest the parties throwing the eggs, and it is to be hoped they may be arrested and punished.

HARD PAN PRICES.—Remember that
HODGSON of Cannington sells both dry goods and groceries, crockery and glass-ware, boots and shoes, ready-made cloth-ing and overcoats, furs and robes, etc., all at hard pan prices.—13-tf.

ALLEGED BURGLARY.—Peter Avery and George Mayoee were before Magistrate Horn on Monday morning in answer to a charge of breaking into Munro's jeweiry store, but as Munro did not appear they were let off to appear when called upon.

FASHIONABLE MILLINERY. - If you want fashionable millinery go to Hobeson's, Cannington. His milliner buys only the best material, and from her large experience can make them up to show their beauties to the best advantage. - 13-tf.

IN FULL BLAST.—Dobson & Sons are now in full blast, having bought out the firm of Sproule Bros. They intend enlarging the stock of dry goods, and as they are men that stand high in business circles we may expect to see them do a good ENTERPRISING.—There is a young man out west who comes in several nights in the week to take lessons in dressmaking. Some of the boys want to know when he intends to open out business.

STYLISH SUITS.—If you want a stylish suit or overcoat go to Hodgson's. Canning-suit or overcoat go to Hodgson's. Cannington. He keeps a large assortment of tweeds, worsteds, overcoatines, etc., a lot of which are just being opened out. He keeps on the premises the "boss" tailor both for cut and fit. Particular attention paid to making ladies' mantles. —13-tf.

RETURNED.—Mr. Thomas Smith, who lately has been running a tailoring establishment in Woodville, has returned here to clerk for Dobson & Sons. Thomas is a great boy for the girls and many of them will be glad he has returned.

METHODIST FESTIVAL.—The festival held

METHODIST FESTIVAL.—The festival held by the Methodist church on Thanksgiving day was a grand success. The ladies deserve great credit for the magnificent display of estables provided by them.

BARGAINS.—J. H. Urquhart is selling men's long boots, solid leather, for $1.50 per pair.—14.tf.

per pair.—14-tf.
PERSONAL.—E. A. Von Buseck from Sunderland was up again this week. The boys wonder what attraction draws him up so often. JUBILANT.-Mr. Vandwart, our Yankee grocer, seems highly pleased over Cleve-land's election. land's election.

A CORDIAL WELCOME.—We are all pleased to hear once more from the popular North Breck correspondent of The Post, but we sympathize with him in his loneliness. Indeed we may say that a couple of handsome young ladies here excellent houskeepers, too, and who make, capital bread and short-cake and famous numbring piece bayes averseed. capital bread and short-cake and famous' pumpkin pies—have expressed to me a very warm interest in the forlorn young man, and would like to know (1) if he iff good-looking—that is not positively uglys and (2) if he could support a wife and family comfortably; (3) is he steady and industrious? Could you, Mr. Editor, answer these questions without revealing the identy of the correspondent, which I know, of course, you never do. [Answer.—The correspondent is one of the best-looking, men in Brock; he is very comfortably attauted. We could not give his name; but, one of the young ladies in strict confidence could have the name if required.—En.