"LED INTO THE TRAP." The Lindsay Post says: "Does the Packet mean to say that Messrs. Mowat, Pardon, Hal-four and other reform members are 'deeper in the mud' than Wilkinson and his fellow conspirators and brothers 'wore in the mire'...

The Packet's position rests entirely upon the theory or contention that Mr. Mowat led Hunting and Big 'Push' into the trap...

The Packet may claim superior virtue for denouncing Hunting and Wilkinson, but the claim is purchased as a net loss of credit for intelligence in condemning Mr. Mowat for leading the poor fellows 'into the trap'.

FARMING TOPICS. We print on our second page the price essay by Mr. John Campbell, Jr., on 'Breeding, Feeding and Fatening Stock for Profit'.

The York county council have adopted the petition of the Victoria county council of last June asking for the recognition by the Dominion government of railway business granted by municipalities to roads that have since been assumed by the Dominion.

We have been patiently waiting for the Peterborough Review to copy that remark of the London Times about 'the Pacific scandal remaining a foul blot on the political annals of Canada'.

On our seventh page will be found a description of Mr. C. W. Moore's farm, to which was awarded the silver medal in the provincial farm competition.

The attention of the public is directed to the fact that the book-binders in connection with the Peterborough Examiner is one of the most thoroughly equipped in the province.

IS IT WORTH CONSIDERING? Every one requires something in the way of a token of regard or remembrance.

Quite frequently the occasion arises for a Wedding Present or a Birthday Gift. Now if the article presented is practically useful as well as merely ornamental it will be the more appreciated.

In a well-stocked jewelry store may be found goods to meet the requirements of nearly every case. Within such a small space as this advertisement it would be impossible to give a comprehensive list of articles suitable for the above mentioned purposes.

A competition for cheapness and not for excellence is sure to prove unsatisfactory to both producer and consumer. Keeping this in mind and general interest to the customer, they are attended with much less profit to the dealer or artist than those which are commonly called cheap.

While we maintain the highest standard of quality of goods, and offer them at prices which are fair and legitimate living profits to ourselves, customers will find upon examination that our prices are as low as the smallest of our business expenses, which, as we have pointed out frequently in previous occasions, are merely nominal.

This is worth considering, therefore bear it in mind. Yours respectfully, BRITTON BROS. Watchmakers and Jewelers, Foot of Kent-st., Lindsay. Nov. 25th, 1894.

"BUSTED, BUSTED." WHERE?---AT RITCHIE'S BAZAAR. WHAT?---DULL TIMES.

While others are crying Dull Trade, we are exceedingly busy. The cause no doubt is owing to the fact of our prices being lower than any house for reliable goods, and a LARGER VARIETY TO SELECT FROM, as we keep in stock everything required to furnish a household and clothe the inmates.

We have just finished marking down the prices of 175 men's and boy's Overcoats. Our reasons for reducing these goods is owing to our stock in this department being rather heavy.

Other Special Lines which we will make a bold push to clear during the next two or three weeks are a lot of Ladies' and Misses' Mantles, a large lot of white All Wool Blankets, a special lot of Ladies' and Gent's Fur Caps. We are bound also to make our Heavy Wool Dress Goods brown, as well as our Costume Cloths and Colored all wool Cashmeres.

Boots and Shoes, and the thousand and one other lines we have not time to mention. Don't fail to visit RITCHIE'S BAZAAR.
