TARIFF REDUCTION IN THE STATES. There is a good deal of significance in the fact that President Arthur in his annual message to congress...

At Ottawa the great object is a high tariff, a big revenue, and extravagance of all kinds. Tariff reduction or lower taxes, and economy in expenditure are usually needed in the true interests of the country...

Down in Hell they call it "the New Street Policy."

Mr. John McQuinn has returned to Ottawa in improved health. The proposition for the grand demonstration and banquet for the officials in Toronto next week are progressing and a big affair is expected.

The Toronto Globe says: "Christmas has already arrived at Lindsay—or, more accurately, the Xmas number of The Lindsay Post has been issued, full of varied and interesting matter suitable to the season."

The Governor (Hess) believes and believes most are up in arms with burning passions and patriotic fervor with Canada and in favor of protecting "the interests of American fishermen against the numerous complaints which must result from leaving their waters open to the products of the Canadian fisheries."
