School. Examination and Christmas
True.—Our school closed on the 23rd Dec., is excellent condition. Quite a number of parents and friends of the pupils were present to witness the communication. The parente and friends of the pupile were present to witness the cannination. The children acquitted themselves remarkably well. The order was very good. After the examination the most interesting portion of the day's proceedings began, a grand Christmas tree was uncovered with, your correspondent was informed, about two hundred presents on it, being an enterchange of presents among the pupile of the school. We understand the tencher, Mr. A. C. Graham, whose departure is much regretted by the scholars and parents interested in the school, received about thirty presents as tokens of remembrance from the scholars.

BALL AND SUPPER.—A denoing party was held at Mrs. Gettle's on New Year's, which was attended by some hundred or more parties. Some from a distance were among the throng, and most of the Scotch kindred round about attended. A big time was expected and took place, and after tripping the light fantastic until the "wee sma' hours" had nearly expired the company broke up 'sine die.'....All had indeed a good time and many more are in contemplation during the season.

Notes,—Farmers having a soft time now, there being no sieighing and not much work of any kind going ou.....The dancing party at Gamebridge last week was also pretty successful, and quite a few took part, and it is needless to say they enjoyed themselves immensely.

SALVATION ARMY.—The salvation army have, or are about to, assault Beaverton, we believe. If they have not already done so they ought to, as they are badly needed over there. BRECHIN.

MANILLA. [Correspondence of The Post.]

HALL—Mr. H. Harper of the Queen's aunounced a ball and supper for the evening of the 2nd inst., but had roads, bad weather and the like limited the attendance. Next time the boys will do better.

NEW YEAR. Manilla was hardly as quiet this last new year's day as usual. A large number of the men and boys had a fine game of foot-ball. We shall seen have a fine club here, School. MERTING.—The annual school meeting was held in the school house on the list uit. The attendance was rather small. Mr. G. M. Pearce was elected to the trusteeship and Mr. John Coone was reappointed auditor.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS,—Manilla has been astir over municipal affairs. Mr. Bowes, one of our townsmen, was a candidate for one of our townsmen, was a candidate for the second deputy-reeveship and was elected by a handsome majority. Mr. Bowes is an excellent municipal representative and well deserved the honor.

CHURCH NOTES.—Rev. Mr. Duke occupied the Methodist pulpit last Sunday evening and presched an eloquent sermon. He represented the Methodist missioners.

BEAVERTON. CHURCH Social. The annual social of St. Andrews congregation here was held in the basement of the church on Tuesday evening last, and was very largely attended by the people of this community of all denominations. The "spread" was beyond all praise, and after full justice had heen done to it, an excellent programme of speeches, music, and readings was rendered, Revs. Mesars. Scott, Love, Patterson and Watson were particularly happy in their efforts. The choir supplied some excellent music, and Mrs. McFadyen and Miss Watson contributed largely to the enjoyment of the evening by their solos Mr. W. Smith gave a reading with good ame in a recitation earned a reputation as a tirst-class amateur elecutionist, and Mr. J. D. McMurchy in a humorous selection more than brought down the house. The chair was ably and pleasingly filled by Mr. Frank Madill.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Grant has returned from some months' attendance at the post graduate college and hospital of New York. The doctor, in addition to the valuable experience acquired at this famous institution, has brought back with him a special diploma in the devartment of diseases of women and children. His return was welcomed by his many friends

(To the Editor of THE POST.)-SIR,-In your inate of the 28th December your Bury's Green correspondent sake for an explana-tion respecting certain items in the auditors report as follows:—"Aug. 5th, S. Suddaby, to be expended on concession line between ith and 7th con., $100;" "Aug. 5th S. Your correspondent wants to know how these sums are charged to me, and, although not a subscriber to Tife Post, I trust you will allow me space for the required explanation. First, the $100 was let in three contracts as follows: G. Hughes and G. Sheshey, building bridge, $62; 2nd, Thos. Regilah, building bridge, $22; 3rd, Thos. McGaney, repairing culest and galaying and covering crossways. $7 and relaying and covering crossways, $7-making $97, and had your correspondent been in less hurry to find fault he might have found where I returned the balance, $3. For the $50 Mr. Stainton and I were joint commissioners to expend it, and as I was going to the treasurers office I passed Mr. Stainton's and examined the work, and Mr. Stainton's and examined the work, and Mr. Stainton asked me to bring the money and I did so, and saved him a walk of some seven miles and back. I gave Mr. Stainton the money, and I don't know who did the work. I only know that who ever did it they earned every cent they got. The other $10 I expended by hiring men by the day and drew the money and paid them. I may have done wrong to draw the money and pay these men. Perhaps I should have made them travel after it, and so in some made them travel after it, and so in some cases earn it twice, as in the case of Mr. cases earn it twice, as in the case of Mr. McGahey, who would have to go about twenty miles to get his $7 after having done work worth at least $10. CENTRE MARA. WHINEY AND BRUTAGITY.—A rather brutal occurrence took place here a short time age. A two-year-old child belonging to George Anson, a hapless drunkard, had need cared for by Mr. C. Holmes, and on Dec. 14th, in the absence of the latter, the child was taken away by the father. No person here knew of their whereabours until Dec. 28cd, when the child, with its face sorely frost-bitten, had been left by its father at a hotel in Bruchin. The perpetrator of such brutality should be punished.

School. Examination.—The public school examination, held on Dec. 19th, by Mr. Loftue, was largely attended, the school room being crowded to its utmost capacity. Among the visitors were Mr. Malone and Mr. Gillespie of Uptergrove. There were several who had not attended examinations for a number of years, and who expressed themselves surprised and delighted. After the pupils were examined Mr. Malone addressed the sudience on district schools, also touching on the aptness of the scholars, who ably sequitted themselves, being the result of the diligence of the teacher. Mr. Gillespie size delivered an excellent address on the progress of education since 1873, which was both interesting and instructive. The teacher replied in suitable terms, and concluded by wishing his pupils a merry christmes and a happy new year.

KIRKFIELD. AN OMISSION.—(To the Editor of THE Aw Omission.—(To the Editor of The Powt.)—Sir,—With regard to the concert on the 10th Dec., as mentioned in your last issue, no doubt it was a success as a concert of children, with exception to the gentlemen singers, but Mr. Gillogly of Lindsay, whom they omitted to mention, gave some very fine Scotch and Irish sough, in his usual talented manner, and was repeatedly encored, and as usual bewas repeatedly encored, and as usual he was the star of the concert.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION AND PRESENTArion.—The half-yearly examination of the pupils of a. s. No. 8, Eldon, took place on Friday, Dec. 19th, and was largely attended by parents of the pupils. Messra. Ross, McMillan and Maher, teacher in the surrounding sections, were present also.

Mise McRae, of the junior department, was presented with a handsome gold watch. Mise McRae intends taking a high school course during the following year. The present was accompanied with year. The present was accombanied with the following address:—To Miss McRae:
—DEAR TEACHER. We, the ratepayers, and particularly the children of this section, having learned with sincere regret that you had resigned your position as teacher among us, concluded that it would be very ungrateful on our part to witness your departure without our part to witness your departure without attempting to show our appreciation of your services among us as our efficient teacher during a period of two years. You have striven, and we must say successfully on all occasions, to explain our work in such a practical way as to be readily understood by any one exercising any degree of thought. You have also striven any degree of thought. You have also striven to sholish corporal punishment, preferring moral sussion and firm kindness, and we can congratulate you on being successful in that respect as far as possible. Your moral conduct and example has been such, on all occasions, as would tend to influence our lives for the better, and no one will for a moment doubt the influence of such. By your genial disposition and frankness you have made many friends by whom you will be long remembered. It is true we have on many occasions in the past caused you have on many occasions in the past caused you much unnecessary trouble and anxiety, but unfortunately for those in your position, it is our disposition to be impatient and troublesome to our teachers as well as our parents, consequently, we would kindly ask you to forgive us for the troubles and anxieties of the past. Probably, ere another year rolls by, you will be far removed from your native village and the scenes of your labors as a teacher, and though some of us may possibly have the pleasure of meeting with you in a distant part of our country, the great majority of us will scarcely ever meet again in this life. Let us then endeavor to lead such lives and conduct ourselves in such a manner that when our earthly career is over, we may all meet in heaven, career is over, we may all meet in heaven, where parting is unknown. It is with feelings of sorrow we approach you on this occasion to present you with this slight token—which consists of a gold watch of our appreciation of your services, and we sincerely nope that you may be long spared to enjoy it. Signed on behalf of the whole school by a large number of the scholars.

GOOD HOTEL WANTED. -Some good sound man here with some capital, who is willing to devote himself to the accommodation of the travelling public. We have long and very painfully felt the need of a respectably kept hotel here. We are situated on the leading road from the southern townships to Muskoka. The shanty teams can just reach here from the south in one day's drive, and there is no lodging for them, neither is there any for the poor wayfaring man. The travelling public are greatly inconvenienced generally if they are so unfortunate as to find themselves in this vicinity when night overtakes them. Our lake and hunting grounds are visited by hundreds of sports every season, and there is not nearly the number come now that would if they were sure they could find suitable accommodation. There is no shelter at present for anybody only that which is offered by the goodhearted resi-

There could be five hundred cows got here and there would not have to be any milk drawn more than three miles. Come up here, Mr. Stoback, before you invest and enquire. "There would be millions in it."

THE SAW. -Our enterprising lumber man, Mr. Markle, is thinking of running his sawmill this winter so as to meet the demands of his lumberyards at Dalrymple, Brechin and Cannington. He handles only the heat and his prices are right, so he has no trouble to sell all he can manufacture. CHRISTMAS TREE. -Several sleigh loads of our young folks went down to Bolsover to the Christmas tree and report everything in first-clase style. But why did they not give some of our children some little niceys from the tree? CHIPS.—Gloomy prospects for our teameeting. It is raining all the snow off.

TRA MERTING.—Our annual gathering was held here on new year's eve and as usual a good time ensued. The tables were spread in the upper flat of the new parsonage, and had it not been for the slight crust of "hard times" encircling our hearts we no doubt would have had a feast. Our ladies here are excellent cooks. After partaking of the viands provided all were condially invited into our new church, where a splendid chunk of entertainment was about to be carved and passed. Before opening all were favored with some fire instrumental music by our worthy Sunday. school superintendent. The program was neatly arranged and carried out to the letter. Our pastor took the chair and treated us to a speech from each of his building committee, and from the same we got an idea of what debt is upon our correspondent is so auxious for knowledge why didn't he ask about others who had done the same as myself. But as a matter of fact your correspondent knew all about it but thought to injure me by having his questions come out last week, hoping I would not see it is time to explain before the elections. However, I am not and had no intention of being a candidate for municipal honors; but should I ever again be in the same position I should do as I old then rather than do as was done by a reuve in this township at one time. He had occasion to call out some men in an emergent case to fix a bridge. The men worked half the notional anthem sung and we departed.

A VISIT FROM SANTA CLAUS.—Son time on Christmas eve a few of Rev. Mr. Adam's numerous friends and well-wishers bethought themselves that they might have a good joke by playing Santa Claus, and accordingly had conveyed to his boarding-house a fine black fur coat and buffalo who resoured by his Robeaugus and robe, procured by his Bobcaygeon and Heastip appointment friends. Mr. Adam was completely surprised in the morning by finding said articles, and more particularly so as owing to his recent ill-health he had begun to think himself almost a burden to them but such a proof of their affection effectually dissipated all such gloomy impressions.

ACCIDENT.-Mrs. Welsh of Harvey met with a serious accident on Monday week. She was in the village on business, and owing to the slippery, slushy condition of the sidewalk fell and dislocated the hip joint. The joint was speedily reset, and the lady is progressing favorably.

TEA MEETINGS.—The Christmas festival in connection with the Presbyterian church.

held on Christmas evening, was a great success. Tea was served in the town hall, and was a wonderful exhibition of confectionery art. As to quantity there was such an abundance of victuals that a Sunday school social had to be held on the following night, a social at the residence of Mr. Falls on Monday, and then several baskets of cakes had to be given away. After tea on Christmas night a meeting was organized at the church, with Mr. John Aitken in the chair. Addresses usually form a prominent feature in these gatherings, but it was just at this point that the only hitch occurred. Several gentlemen had been invited, but only one had turned up, and as this gentlemen and the pastor had expected others, neither were prepared to make long and funny picnic speeches. However, the choir threw in some more music, and kept everything lively. Some good vocal music was presented, and met with a warm approval. The result of the evening, financially, was $62. This was in aid of the manse fund, and was placed with 3102, which had been collected as subscription. On the following evening the Sunday school children had a wrestle with the pro-visions, and had to give in beaten. They did nobiy, too. An address of welcome was read very nicely by Miss Livinia, Ritchie, and a long program of hymns, recitations and dialogues furnished amusement for the evening. On Monday night the comfortable residence of Mr. Falls was thrown open, and a great number availed themselves of the opportunity of enjoying a jolly time. Mr. Aitken, Miss Kennedy, Mr. Lithgow, Miss Beatty, Miss Orr, Mr. Kingsborough, and the choir contributed a long and interesting program that was much appreciated. The evening was perhaps the most enjoyable of the series. The receipts were $18.-[Independ-
