AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Sarraparilla and other blood-purifying rests, combined with Iodide of Potasofum and Iron, and is the safest, most relicole, and most economical blood-purifier that can be used. It invariably expels all blood noisons from the system, enriches and renews the blood, and restores its vitalizing power. It is the best known remedy for Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Blotches, Sores, Boils, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin, as also for all disorders caused by a thin and impoverished, or corrupted, condition of the blood, such as Rheumatism-Reuralgia, Rheumatic Gout, General Debility, and Scrofulous Catarrh.

I INDSAY, FRIDAY, FEB. 27, 1885. A CLEVER PARODY.

The following reply to Burns' popular poem taken from a Meibourne paper:

"A man's a man," says Robert Burns,
"For a' that and a' that" But though the song be clear and strong It beeks a note for a' that.
The lout who'd soirk his daily work,
Yet claim his wage and a' that,

Or beg when he can earn his bread, is not a man for a that.

If all who dine on homely fare Were true and brave, and a' that; And none whose garb is "hodden grey" Was a fool or knave, and a' that; The vice and crime, that shame our time, Would fade and fail, and a' that;

And ploughmen be as good as kings, And churis as earls, for a' that, You see you brawny, blustering sot, Who swaggers, swears, and a that; And thinks, because his strong right arm Might fell an oxi and a that,

That he's as noble, man for man, As duke or lord, and a' mat; He's but a brute, beyond dispute, And not a man for a 'that.

Have onlice, park and a' that: And not for birth, but honest worth, Be thrice a man for a test And McDonald herding on the muir. Who beats his wife, and a' that, But nothing but a rascal boor, Nor half a man for a that.

It comes to this, dear Robert Burns The truth is obtained that.
"The rank is but the gaine a's stamp,
The man's the gold for a' that."
And shough you put the minted mark
On copper brass and a' that. The lie is gross, the eneat is plain, And will not pass, for a that,

For a' that and a' that. That makes the king a gentleman. And man with man, if rich er poor,

Who stands creet in a self respect And acts the man for a' that

Fire.—Sunday morning about two o'clock a fire broke out in the large brick building owned by Mr. A. Leach, situated on Kells-st., opposite the town hall. The first flat was occupied by Mr. Leach as a drug store. The second flat contained the dental office of Mr. S. W. Clarke, while the third and upper flat was used by Mr. Ham. third and upper flat was used by Mr. Ham-mill as a photograph gallery. It was in the front part of this flat that the fire seems to front part of this flat that the fire seems to have originated and must have gained considerable headway before the alarm was given. The fire brigades were soon on the ground and quickly had powerful streams playing upon the building. In about two hours from the arrival of the fire engine the flames were totally extinguished. The uppermost and the back part of the second flat were completely gutted. Though the fire did not reach Mr. Clarke's dental effice or Mr. Leach's drug store, yet both places are in a sad plight, everything being either thickly encrusted with ise or saturated with water. We understand Mr. Leach and Mr. Hammill were both well insured, yet the loss, especially of the former, must be considerable. Mr. Clarke was not insured and estimates his lose at $400.

SENT TO THE ASYLUM. For some time past Robert Baxter, blacksmith at Greene & Ellis's mill, has had fits of temporary insanity, brought on by drink, and as he was unreasonably jealous of his wife—though apparently without cause—it was necessary to have some one in the house te protect her when her husband was under the influence of liquor, as it was feared that he might take her life, as he had repeatedly threatened to do. Lately he has been so violent that Dr. Wilson declared it was not safe for him to be at large, and on Wednesday Constable Nevison, armed with proper authority, arrested him and took him to Lindsay and lodged him in jail, and from there he will be-or perhaps already has been—sent to the seylum at Toronto. ONE MORE UNFORTUNATE. -Two weeks ago Dr. Adams, dentist, of this town, hired as a servant a girl of sixteen who came from Mariposa. Mrs. Adams, who is not well, went to the girl's room and there learned that a babe had been born in the night. It was dead, A physician was summoned, who reported on examination that a healthy female child had apparently been done to death.
