ANNIVERSARY.—The anniversary in consection with the Christian church at this place was held in the church here Wednesday evening, 18th fast. The program was all that could be desired. The pieces were well rendered and the singing was of the best. The address by Rev. N. E. Scott, Wesley as minister of this place, on the subject of "Habit" was a good one and well suited to the occasion. He was followed by the Rev. J. C. Pilkey in a nest speech entitled "Luck and Pluck." It was amusing as well as instructive. The church was crowded and the proceeds were something over $70. The affair went off in the most pleasant manner.

OBSTUARY.—It is our sad duty to chronicle the sudden death of Mr. Archibald McNeil, sear., who resided on the 8th con. of Eldon, about three miles from here. He had been ailing for some months past, but of late—previous to his death—his conditions was much improved, for we learn that the evening before he died he was visiting at his son-in-laws, and after he came home he was in his usual health to the hour of his death. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause of his death. He was one of Eldon's piomeers and lived in this country some thirty years ago. He passed the allotted span, being three score years and fifteen or seventy-five years of age at his death. His remains were followed to the Eldon church cemetery by a large number of averantising relatives and acquaintances. The wife and family have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement. His end was peace. The funeral was the largest seen in that locality for years past.

He afterwards gave a reading entitled "Moderate Drinking." It was well received and was worthily accorded hearty applause from the audience. Mr. John A. Graham of Palestine gave a reading entitled "John and his Sweetheart." It was exceedingly well read. Mr. Graham was becoming quite an elocutionist. Mr. Peter A. Ferguson gave a breef speech, and also Mr. Angus McFadyen of Islay gave another practical speech. It had some good hints for the drinking class of people of this renowned age. It was well received. We expect to hear another speech from Mr. McFadyen at some future time. The choir interspersed the program with excellent selections. The meeting was brought to a close by singing the doxology the chairman concluding with prayer.
