That Trotting Challengs.

[To the Editor of The Post.]

SIR,—I observe in the last issue of THE Post a challenge from Mr. Chas. Bartlett especially intended for me, an advocate of "high-breeding," etc., to trot my mare "Lucy S." for $50 a side, play or pay. It seems quite evident from the tone of the challenge that Mr. Bartlett was seriously disappointed that his "high bred" mare, "Maud Bartlett," did not even secure a place in the county trot, much less distance the field as he do doubt anticipated, judging from the loud said the curling club are instituting an action of the rendering of their different parts was exceedingly good and shewed marked ability and the care with which they always endeavor to please their audiences. Miss Silver's piano solo was very pleasing and greatly appreciated. The attraction of the evening was of course Miss Howden, who long before had become a great favorite with Lindsay audiences, she sang in her used to find the county trot, much less distance the field as her of course brought down the house—or rather the rink—and it is saying a great deal. respective parts. Organizing for the Reception. There can be no question but that the decision arrived at to give the returning volunteers a good hearty reception will be generally approv. ed, and that the idea will be popular. The comed, and that the idea will be popular. The committee who have undertaken to make arrangements have had several sittings and a summary of the proceedings since last week's issue will be found below. On Friday night the issue will be found below. On Friday night the question of whether or not to have a banquet as a part of the reception was re-discussed. It was felt by several that such an occasion following the burial of the late Col. Williams would be in bad taste. It was pointed out that the usages of military service made such permissable, and also that a banquet would afford the best possible opportunity of getting the men together and hearing them tell the story of their exploits. A banquet was decided on and a banquet it will be. The matter of paying the expenses of the outside banquet was decided on and a banquet it will be. The matter of paying the expenses of the outside companies of the 45th Batt. attending the reception at Lindsay was discussed and it was decided that the expense would be greater than the committee could undertake to meet. A resolution was then carried that the whole of the 45th Batt. should be invited to come to Lindsay, and that the Battalion would be considered the guests of the town while here. It was intimated by letter from gentlemen of Cartwright and Bowmanville that those places proposed to give receptions to the men from each locality, and by letter from gentlemen of Cartwright and Bowmanville that those places proposed to give receptions to the men from each locality, and the committee for the Lindsay reception were instructed to correspond with them so as to arrange, if possible, that a clashing of dates might be avoided. Mayor Wallace will be asked to issue the customary proclamation appointing the day for the banquet a public holiday. A subscription list was then circulated, those present contributing over $75. It was decided to send representatives from Lindsay to attend the funeral of Col. Williams at Port Hope and the committee were instructed to procure a floral wreath to be placed on the commo of the deceased soldier as a tribute from the county of Victoria. Mr. F. C. Taylor was requested to see what arrangements could be made for a special train to and from Port Hope on the day of the funeral.

.... On Monday evening the reception committee met and completed further arrangements. The date fixed for the banquet is that of Tuesday, July 28th, to take place during the afternoon, and probably in the curling rink. It was leasned that the funeral of Col. Williams would take place at Port Hope on Tuesday of next week, the 21st, and it was decided to bring the Lindsay men of the Middand Batt. out to Lindsay after the funeral. The train to reach town not later if possible than 9 p.m. With this view it was decided to have the town brilliantly illuminated, and a sub-committee was appointed to ask ettisens on the priscipal streets to contribute say after the funeral, the train to reach town not later if possible than 9 p.m. With this view it was decided to have the town brilliantly illuminated, and a sub-equamittee was appointed to ask citizens on the priscipal streets to contribute all in their power to make this a successful feature. A committee of hadies was named to assist in getting up the hanquet, and this committee were advised to meet at the council chamber on Thursday afternoon to talk matters over and organize for the occasion... Tuesday afternoon the meeting was held and the ladies present agreed to take charge of the details of the proposed banquet, and to provide a part of the viands and give their assistance as waiters. It was decided to have a quantity of evergreens provided, from which the ladies agree to make a quantity of wreaths for decorative purposes. ... Ca Wednesday night the general committee met and assessed their decision of Friday night to the effect that the expenses to and from Lindsay of all members of the 45th Batt. who served in the Northwest should be defrayed by the committee. It was decided to engage the services of the 45th Batt. band (Dowinson Organ Ca of Bowmanwille) for the day of the hanguet. As matters now stand the returning volunteers will be received on the night of their arrival with a berchright procession and general Haminatian. Then about a week after will follow the grant hangest and amoral halifer. Sootheran, Cathro & Mark.

FALL IMPORTATIONS

are already beginning to arrive and room must be made for their reception, and in order to make a speedy clearance we have resolved to raise a commotion by painting the town and county red with bargains; and those who do not take advantage of this pic-nic will paint themselves green with envy when they learn of the golden opportunity they have missed. We quote as follows:—

22 Canadian Straw Hats for One Solitary Dollar.

14 Yards Check Shirting for another " Dollar. 20 Yards Towelling for - - - One Dollar.

30 Yards Factory Cotton - - - One Dollar.

14 Yards Apron Linen - - One Dollar.

20 Yards White Print - - - One Dollar. All MILLINERY at less than half price.

500 Remnants of Dress Goods and Prints, none long enough for a full dress, but all long enough for something—a polonaise, a wrapper, a child's dress, etc.
