-A Dublin cable to a New York paper says: A movement of great importance is being queely organized among the various societies of Irish workingmen. It is proposed to form a vast federation, comprising all the representatives of organized labor in Ireland, for the sole purpose of keeping out of the country all gloods of British manufacture with the exception of such articles as Ireland is unable to produce. The movement is warmly approved of by Mr. Michael Davitt, and a deputation is about to wait on Mr. Parnell, in order to secure his approval and that of the Irish national league. Mr. Parnell has long advocated the protection of Irish industries and this is a practical effort in that direction. It will of course greatly excite English manufacturers and politicians of the Birmingham school. Mr. Chamberian is expected to be more rabid than ever in denouncing Ireland's efforts for independence, but the Irish party has already shown that it can take good care of Ireland's interest without the help of the radicals.
