DRAMATIC.

DRAMATIC.—There is talk of a dramatic entertainment at Christmas, and the dramatic association will probably be reorganized for the winter season.

COBOCONK.

PROSPERITY.—The Orilla Packet says:—In addition to the progress of the church of England at Cobocok, since the Rev. W. H. French took charge of it, we learn that the people subscribed $10 to purchase a surplus for their pastor, and that the congregations there and in Rosedale are very large—so large, indeed, that the church cannot hold them all. We rejoice to hear of the success of the young missionary who is a son of the Rev. W. H. French of Coldwater.

CANNINGTON.

PHOSPHOROUS INDUSTRY.—Reynolds Bros. plating mill is in full blast this season. They are about making extension improvements in the mill. They have been plating at the rate of 60,000 feet of lumber per day during the summer.

WICK.

PRESBYTERIAN INDUCTION.—On Tuesday week at 2:30 p.m., the interesting service was held with the induction of the Rev. Mr. Johnson as pastor of the Presbyterian church at Wick and Greenbank, which commenced in this place. Rev. E. Cockburn acted as moderator of the session and presided over the service, which was very acceptable. Rev. Mr. McLaren of Cannington preached the induction sermon; Rev. Mr. McLaughlin of Leaskdale acted as minister, and the Rev. Dr. McTavish of Lindsay the congregation. There was a good attendance, and it is hoped the union auspiciously begun may soon continue.

PETERBORO.

A BOUNCING BABY GIRL.—On Tuesday evening a gentleman residing on Stewart-st. presented her little girl with a daughter weighing the unusual weight of 18 lbs. Peterboro is thus entitled to the credit of producing the champion heavy weight infant.

GALLANT DEED.

GALLANT DEED.—Two ladies of Peterboro saved a man's life the other day by dragging him off the railway track where he had fallen in a drunken stupor. A train was just approaching the place where the man was lying, and he would have been cut in pieces if it had not been for the gallant act of the two women. They deserve a medal.

ENTIRELY FREE FROM SMALL-POX.

ENTIRELY FREE FROM SMALL-POX.—The child that was ill with an attack of varioloid has now recovered and Peterboro is entirely free from the disease. Dr. Job, who had charge of the case, is to-day engaged in fumigating the furniture used in the hospital and in preparing to vacate the building. On Monday the inmates of the hospital will be removed from it, and the bedding and many other articles used there will be burned. The unfortunate child will bear evidence of having had the disease, as it carries many marks. The prompt action of the health officials and the satisfactory results of the measures adopted to confine the disease to the initial case are matters for congratulation. [Review.]

HONESTY.

HONESTY.—A few days ago some clothing was received at Parker's dye works from the country. In searching the pockets before placing the garment into the vat of dye, Mr. Parker was somewhat surprised to find he had pulled out four five dollar bills. The owner of the dry goods was at once corresponded with, and the money was made happy by again regaining his means. [Review.]

FENELON FALLS.

DIPHTHERIA.—On Friday of last week Mr. J. J. Power's son John, a lad about 15 years of age, complained of a sore throat, which gradually grew worse, and on Monday he was taken to Dr. E. S. Wilson, who pronounced it a case of diphtheria. The disease spread and caused some little trouble in the village, especially as Mr. Power's residence, which was once placed in the next lot to that on which the school house stands, and at home by the pupils were kept at home by their parents. The boy is now out of danger.

GRANDER SOIRÉE AND ENTERTAINMENT.

GRANDER SOIRÉE AND ENTERTAINMENT.—Although the evening of Thursday, Nov. 19th, was dark, wet and chilly, there was a very large attendance at the soiree and musical entertainment under the auspices of L.O.M. No. 945, in Ingram's hall, which was so crowded that some of the present were unable to obtain seats except by crowding them for a few minutes from good natured acquaintances. The tea, as it was called, though it better deserved the name of a banquet—lasted from five until eight o'clock, and after it was over Dr. E. S. Wilson was appointed chairman and the entertainment commenced. The vocal and instrumental music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. John D. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Phyllis McDonald, Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. H. Jones, Mr. Arthur, Mrs. E. S. Wilson, and Messrs. McKewen, Lundy, Podger, Wood and Christian. During the evening Mr. John Power gave an interesting and amusing account of his experience in the Northwest as war correspondent of the Globe, and brief addresses were delivered by the Revs. Logan, Lochend and Watch. The entertainment was said by all present to have been one of the best of the kind they ever attended. [Gazette.]

AWFULLY SUDDEN DEATH.

AWFULLY SUDDEN DEATH.—On Thursday week Mr. Geo. Hoag, an old and well-known resident of Baltimore passed away. He appeared to be in his usual health, and was eating a hearty dinner, and shortly afterwards his death is said to have been caused by striking of a blood vessel.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.—An old man named William McMann, who lived about two miles east of Baltimore, was found dead in his house a few days ago, having put an end to his life by taking Paris. The old man lived alone, was a hard drinker, and it is thought that while suffering from the effects of his recent spree he resorted to the above to end his existence. The coroner on learning the facts, deemed it unnecessary to hold an inquest.

A GOOD YIELD.

A GOOD YIELD.—Mr. E. J. Hickey, east of this town, threshed 710 bushels of barley of fourteen ears. This is the best we have heard of this season, and shows that Isaiah knows how to farm.

A NEW DANGER.

A NEW DANGER.—One day last week a stranger called on Mr. S. Sowden, living north-west of Port Hope, in the township of Hamilton, and requested the loan of $10, saying that he had been stopping at the Commercial house, Cobourg, where he had a gold watch and about $20 stolen from him, but a warrant had been issued and placed in the hands of Chief Barkin for the arrest of the guilty party. Mr. Sowden placed confidence in the story of the man, and gave him the amount, and then came to Cobourg to learn the facts of the case. His trip was useless, as he found that nothing of the kind had happened and that he had been tricked out of $10. Mr. Sowden does not even know the stranger's name. [Sentinel-Star.]

GET RAPIDLY LOST.

GET RAPIDLY LOST.—Some thieves make hauls, and some don't, as the following shows:—One day recently Mr. Linton of the town of Hamilton placed a load of barley and left it standing on his wagon ready to start to market with the next morning. During the night he thought he heard a unusual noise and went out to investigate. He found that somebody was taking so lively an interest in that load of barley as to be transferring it, on the quiet, from the wagon on which it had been left to another one, which was being dragged to a nearby place. Mr. Linton removed the drawbolt from the wheelbarrow, thus locking the team. He then went back to the house, got his lantern and again went to the barn. This time he alarmed the thieves who attempted to escape, with the result that the driver was jerked over the dashboard, and Mr. Linton found himself the owner of a brand new wagon. He knows just where the laugh comes in on that deal. [Sentinel-Star.]
