A LARGE PANILY GATHERING.—Mr. and Mrs. Gould celebrated the 47th anniversary of their marriage on new year's day. This custom has been kept up by them without a single ommission since their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Gould were surrounded by their children and grand children to the number of fifty-seven. Had Mr. Watt of Brant ford and his family been present they would have numbered sixty for bey would have numbered sixty-four Few families in the county will ". Goa'd's in number. The venerable couple, though well advanced in years, enjoy better health than for several years past and were greatly delighted with such a large and happy gathering. May they continue for many years to enjoy such hapey reunions. | Journal.

A FINE DISTRICT. -Mr. George Gander of Wycliffe college, who was placed in charge of the mission of Milford and South river in the Parry Sound district by the Bishop of Algoma, states that the district contains some good farming land and that settlers, many of them from Halton and Wentworth, are taking it up rapidly. Sundridge he considers a rising place and likely to become a town of some import-

DROWNING ACCIDENT. - Richard Smalley of Unord, Muskoka, left Dee Bank early on Saturday morning, Dec. 26th, intending to skate across Rosseau lake to the place where he was working. On Sunday last a hat and a pair of mitts, which proved to to be the property of the young man, were found in an air hole close to Mr. Forge's

THORAH ELECTIONS.—The Thorah municipal elections resulted as follows: Reeve, Alexander McRae; deputy-reeve, Charles Galloway; councillors, Frask McRae, W.L. Fraser and James Donnels. Mr. McRae and Mr. Westcott polled the same number of votes. The casting vote therefore lay with the township clerk, who elected Mr. McRae.

McRae.
SOCIAL.—The social held at Knex church on new year's night was a decided success. The attendance was very large and all appeared to enjoy themselves thoroughly. The chair was occupied by Mr. John Leslie. Mr. Sherlock, the favorite tenor, sang several times and as usual was received with loud applause. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Mr. Ross of Woodville and by Mr. Patterson, pastor of the church, of Beaverton. The net proceeds amounted to over $80.

BOWMANVILLE AND WEST DUR-HAM.

ATTACKED BY A VICIOUS HORSE.—Mrs. W. Ruse, Church-st., had a very narrow escape from being killed on Tuesday last. A friend from Hampton had driven in to visit, and being about to return home the children—in Mr. Ruse's absence—went out to hitch up the horse. On being taken from the stable tne animal chased the children round the yard and they found shelter in the dwelling. Mrs. Ruse then went out and the animal tried to crush her to the ground with his fore-feet. One foot only struck her on the shoulder, the toe-calk catching and tearing her clothing, but fortunately not knocking her down, or it is probable she would have been trampled to death. Hastily retreating to the house Mrs. Ruse sent for assistance, when a neighbor came and with some difficulty ATTACKED BY A VICIOUS HORSE.-Mrs. a neighbor came and with some difficulty brought the animal into submission. It was a narrow escape for both Mrs. Ruse and the children.—[Sun.

TORONTO.

BRUTAL BOXING.—A brutal set-to with gloves took took place in the boxing academy, Millstone lane, Toronto, last Wednesday night, between Harry Gilmore and Paul Patillo. Nine rounds were fought, when Gilmore was declared the winner. There was not a spot of Patillo's face, shoulders and chest that was not covered with blood. Gilmore had no marks on his face, but was bleeding from the ear, and his shoulder blades were also covered with blood.

THE MAYORALTY.—Mr. Howland's majority by the official count is 1,718 in a total vote of 13,868. The women voters numbered nearly 700. One young woman had her marriage postponed for a week in order that she might vote for Mr. Howland.

GONE TO CANNINGTON.—A constable from Cannington arrived in the city on Friday to convey back to that village Jas. H. Greer, who is wanted in that village for safe bursting. It will be remembered that Greer and a companion named David Woods were arrested, charged with stealing a coat and a pair of pants from Catherine Camden. When Greer was seen by the detectives he was recognized as a "professional" who had made a tour through the province with disasterous results to several shopkeepers in various towns and vilal shopkeepers in various towns and vil-lages. Woods pleaded guilty to the larceny of the pants and coat, and was sent to gaol for 30 days by the police magistrate on Saturday. Greer started on Saturday for Cannington, in charge of the constable.

BECOMING SERIOUS.—Your Cannington correspondent has given us another specimen of his logic. Because our merchants keep large sizes in ladies shoes, he concludes that our girls have big feet. What a Henry Clay head he must have. Better widen out that head so fearfully and wonderfully made to the calbrie of a simple conclusion. Did Occasia never hear of a new line of goods being ordered in antici. new line of goods being ordered in anticipation of a boom from new comers, who should have a vital want supplied. Surely Occasia; but by the way why has Occasia dropped that fancy name of his, and will Occasia tell us where he got that nice name and what it means.

OMEMEE.

HE WAS NOT A CLAM. - A story is in circulation that a village editor not a thous-and miles from Omemee was in Toronto recently and thought he would attend the theatre. Securing a seat, he was intently viewing the stage when some one at his side, thinking from the squint of his eyes he was near-sighted, kindly handed him an opera glass. Our editor was profuse in thanks, and hiding the glass behind his hat, turned it up to his lips for a moment, and then handed it back with a whispering remark that the "blamed thing was dry."

EMILY ELECTION.—Reeve, McQuade, 315; Graham, 174; councillors, Switzer, 292; Scully, 252; Guiry, 228; Cassidy, 179. Mr. Mitchell was re-elected deputy by acclamation.

A FINE COLLECTION.—There is now on exhibition in Mr. I. McNeely's store a very fine assortment of gold, copper and lead oar, beautiful crystals and petrified moss. Mr. George Rice, who returned from British Columbia several weeks ago, is the fortunate possessor of this valuable collection, and they are more valuable to him as he had the pleasure of gathering them with his own hands from a cave in the Rocky mountains near Otter Tail bridge. Mr. Rice will leave them on exhibition for several weeks, and we would advise all who several weeks, and we would advise all who like curiosities to call and examine them.

OBITUARY.-On New Year's day Captain Evans went to the county of Peel to attend the funeral of his nephew, Thomas Evans. The many friends of Mr. Wm. Evans in Emily and Omemee will be sorry to learn of his bereavement.

ONTARIO COUNTY.

A CALL.—We understand that the Rev. J. F. Ockley has received a most hearty and unanimous invitation to assume the pastorate of the Picton first Methodist church, at the completion of his term here and has accepted. Methodism in Picton is exceedingly strong, and we learn that it is considered one of the best appointments in the gift of the Methodist conference, and yet none to good for Mr. Uckley.—]Port Perry Standard. last Wednesday morning a fire broke out in the cellar of S. J. Martin's hardware store. The entire contents of the cellar were completely destroyed, and considerable damage done to the shelf goods on the ground floor. Loss about $2,000.....At five o'clock Thursday morning a fire broke out in the paint shop of Bambridge's carriage factory. The building and contents, together with a frame dwelling on the north and the blacksmith's and wood shop, with their contents, on the south, were burned to the ground. Loss about $5,000. ..... About half-past three Thursday after noon a fire broke out in the blacksmith's shop of Dingle's agricultural implement factory. The roof of the building was damaged to the extent of about $25.

A Big Crop.—Mr. Thos. Sleep of Cedardale sold 200 bushels of black-eyed marrowfat peas off a little over five acres of ground and got 90 cents per bushel for them. The crop gave him $180 cash, and about $36 per acre.—[Oshawa Reformer.

Serious Accident.—On Monday foremoon last a little boy named Joseph Stevenson, aged 10 years, (son of Mr. Charles Stevenson of the 4th con.), was playing around a threshing machine, and while engaged in counting the cogs in one of the wheels of the gearing, his left hand was caught and and two fingers were badly smashed.
