-Robert Conway, a fermer, suicided. Wednesday at Harrington. He was mightly deranged.

At Calway, on Thursday night, Parnell predicted that an Irish parliamment would sit in Dublin within two sears.

Bull-fighting is to be resumed in Spain with additional splendor. During one year the torero Lagartigo made $16,000. The Minnianippi house of representa-

tiven voted not to accept fullway passes, and then, horrifled at its own virtue, carfled a motion to reconsider the vote. The cure of Paspeniae writes that several of the distressed fishermen's families at that place are actually living on one meal a day, and that consisted only of potatoes

While two men, named Josiah Brose and J. Smith, were chopping wood at Wellington, Ontario, Smith's axe glassed off, striking Brown and severing an artery in his thigh, from which he bled to death.

The fart of Fife, president of the Scotch liberal association, hitherton staunch mipporter of Mr. Gladetone, has resigned, an he "can no longer support a cabinet whose policy, so far as if is definable at all, in a policy of sufferencer."

A going man living near Grafton.named William Richardson, committed sticide on Tuesday week by taking a dose of "fourth on rate." Disseption and the loss of a small sum of money is given so the reason for the terrible act.

The election in North Monaghan, to fill the farancy caused by the determination of Mr. Healy to sit for Londonderry, resulted in the return of Mr. O Brien, home ruler, by 1.032 votes, against 2,534 cast for Mr. Hall, the conservative candidate,

Mr. Shappard, er., of the Grand Trusk station, Barlin, met with a fatal accident last liftday afternoon. It appears that while shunting trains his foot caught in a frog; the passing train ran over his leg and affin, cutting them completely off.

-General Gourte is no exception to the rule "Scratch a Russian and you find a Tarrar." Called from Warraw to St. Petersburg by usexpected cabinet changes, he ordered a lot of nillitate to be haused several days before the appointed time. "I want to see all such jobs cleaved up before I leave."

-Gen. Hancock died poor, and the fact being known to hie friends and commisses a subscription fund has been started for the widow. Samuel J. Tilden headed the paper with $1,000. In Philadelphia a simior movement was started by the gift of $1,000 each by A. J. Droxel and George W.

-The recent arrest of Serge Ivanhoff was the luchtest stroke made by the Russian police for a long time. Ivanhoff turns out to have seen one of the sthilless concerned in the murder of Alexander II. He is thirty one years old, was once a medical student, and had been sentenced to exile in Siberia.

- The editors of a Polish journal printed in the city of Power have been arrested, tried and sentenced to six menths' imprisonment in consequence of the publication in their paper of an article libelling Prince Biamarck and the Prussian ministers. The publication of the article was due to the action of the Prussian government towards the Poles in Poses.

-Louding browers of the United States have written to the Canadian Pacific milway expressing a desire to purchase Manitoba baries, and saking the company to notify the farmers to that effect. One St. Louis firm mays it purchases each year one million bushels, and will have buyers in the Winnings market. the Winnipeg merket.

-A youth employed in a Manchester, N. H., print works was last week dragged head foremost through the space between two revolving copper cylinders which were only three inches apart, but the copper being thin yielded with the pressure brought to hear on it, and the young man esco without serious injury.

By the explosion of a feed mill at Oshkosh, Wie, the other day, Walter Foliet, one of the proprietors of the mill, and a laborer samed Reinhold were instantly killed and several other persons were seriously injured. The body of Foliet was blown through the building nearly a block beyond and was frightfully mutilated.

"A London cable says the latest society sensation is the formation of a new club with the singular appellation of the "High Jinks." Its function seems to be to introduce a little more vim and abandon into London social life. After the Prince of Wales' leves last Monday the "High Jinks" yave a bal poudre, which lasted until six delock Tuesday morning, and was so lively to have furnished food for unlimited floody much the week. The Prince of Wales and his two sons were present, and apparently entered with seet into the spirit of the occasion. ONTARIO COUNTY.

ONTARIO COUNTY.

Outpurate.—It is our sad duty to record the removal by death of one of our most influential public men, which took place on the evening of Monday last. Mr. Clement Dawes has been well known in this county for over a quarter of a century. As hotel-keeper in Broaklin, Whitby and Manchester he was well liked, and in that line of business made hosts of friends. The past ten or tweive years of his life were spent in Port Perry, where he warmly identified himself with and endeavoyed to promote every movement calculated to advance the interests of the place. He was the people's choice as councillor for years, and was a member of the council at the time of his death. He was a man of public spirit, generous to a degree, and by a life of activity accumulated quite a competency. Mr. Dawes had been alling for weeks from some brain trouble, brought on by injusies received last fall when he fell from his buggy. He was in his 55th year. His wife and family have the sympathy of all who know of their beveavement. Deceased was intered Friday at Oslawa with Masonic honors. Pence to his seles.

are George, David, Randall, Thomas, Alexander and Reuben, all of Brock, William and John of Kincardine. The daughters are Miss M. Rockie of Brock, William and John of Kincardine. The daughters are Miss M. Rockie of Brock,
Mrs. Andrew Bathaste of York Mills and Miss M. J. Reckie, who makes her home with Mrs. Bathaste. Notwithstanding her four-score years Mrs. Reckie is hale and hearty and bids fair to see many years yet. The old lady can tell many stories of the early history of Brock, dating back to the time when our country grouned under the tyrauny of the old family compact. Every-one of her some are staunch and intelligent reformers.
That the honerable lady may live to see tany years of happy old age is the wish of your correspondent.

HYMMNHAL.—Mr. Cupid has proved to be a destructive foe in this part of the country of late. By present indications the matrimonal harvest is surely at hand. We are also pleased to learn that our own resident clergyman receives the largest share of the interesting work of making two one. On Wednesday, the 6th ult, Mr. Malcom Morrison of Centre Eldon led to the hymeneal altar Miss Jessie McNabb, second daughter of Mr. Duncan McNabb of West Palestine. The marriage ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's father under the most pleasing auspices. A large number of friends and acquaintances were present. The nuptial knot was tled firm and fast by the Rev. D. McDonald of this place, in his usual happy manner. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Morrison many years of happiness and all the pleasmany years of happiness and all the pleasures a married life can bring them....

While your reporter is writing on this interesting sunject he will take down some more items on marrimony. On Wednesday, 20th ult., Mr. Thomas Parsons of this patighborhood took for a better half Miss Louisa Maulda Caristian, the accomplished daughter of our worthy friend, Mr. Juo. Christian. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Wilson, Methodist minister of Woodville, who can't be beat in making two one. After the marriage ceremony was performed they all sat down to a most sumptiones repositing appeared by the fair ones for the occasion in excilent style. After the appetining appeared was done full justice to all dispersed, and the young couple left for their wedoing tour. We wish them a pleasant journey and honey-moon and all bisselings a married life can bring, and help at the oars before they reach the shore.....

On Wednesday, the 18th ult., Mr. James Vice of Darlington selected for his partner through life's dreary pathway Rise Sarah. Ana Elford, daughter of Mr. Isaac Elford of Islay. The marriage ceremony was performed at the residence of the brief's father, by the Rev. C. W., Watch, Methodist minister, Fenllon Falls. Long may they live and have a due share of the pleasures of life..... Another wedding is our topic. The last one we have the pleasure of noting is the uniting in the bonds of matrimony of Mr. Malcolom McPhaden of Manilla, to Mise Mary Murchison, fourth daughter of ourselesmed, friend Mr. Domald Marchises of Islay. The indiscoluble knot-generally so is this country—was tied by the Rev. D. McDonald of Glenarm, on Wednesday, Bith lit. We wish them a prosperious journey through life with any amount of help at the oars before they cross Jordan.
