Labour Notes.
On February 10th an assembly of the Knights of Labor was organized in Lindsay, but owing to delay in furnishing the ritual no work was done until Saturday evening of last week, when some thirty new members were initiated. The assembly met weekly in the room over the mechanical institute. The assembly will be known as "Hearts of Oak, No. 5322" and the prospects are that an increasing number will see large accessions to the membership. In fact so popular is the order among working men that it is expected that "Hearts of Oak" membership will number over 400 before the close of the summer.

Police Court.
Tuesday was a lively day at the police court and a busy one as well, for the court sat from 10 a.m. until about 7:30 p.m., disposing of the cases brought up. A row or riot at the salivation army barracks on the night of the 10th instant had ended in several parties being summoned before Police Magistrate O'Leary. The charge was laid for the assault on the sergeant, James J. Dwyer, for assault, and against J. Cameron for creating a disturbance. After hearing the evidence some of the charges were dismissed, and the case was dismissed, Ferguson paying the costs. There then was the case of Percy Fowler of the 10th inst. for assault on a sergeant, and Lander was fined $4.50. Jas. Lander then brought a counter charge of assault against Henry H. Fowler which was dismissed. Chambers paying costs amounting to $3.00. Police Officer Holt made a charge against James Macaney, Wm. Macaney, Robt. Macaney and Geo. Goheen of fighting on the streets. This case was adjourned until Friday, 19th.

Newspapers and Magazines.
We notice since the beginning of the year a marked improvement in the make-up and journalistic quality of many of our exchanges. While space prevents us referring to these sentiments we have pleasure in saying a word of commendation of the general excellence of our column, the Orillia Packet. "Mix reason with pleasure and it is the best of all things," is the motto of the Packet, and it is printed in Ontario a newspaper which contains so much to commend and so little for even the most captious to cavil at as in the Packet. We do not do from the Packet in political views we nevertheless recognize in it a reasonable and stout upholder of the conservative party, and the party for which the Packet speaks in Simcoe county have a most creditable and reputable spokesman. The Packet sets an example in its diligent attention to local matters that should be followed by a large section of the Ontario press and has made itself a household word throughout the district and a newspaper success. It is a human interest. The old and young read its columns with equal pleasure and no local happening is left unchronicled. The merchant who would forget his care and brush the cobwebs from his brow reads the Packet. The lawyer who thinks he suffers from too much work peruses its columns and finds a happy respite from Coke and Blackstone. The business man of whatever nature in his view of life more reasonable and his digestion improved the longer he subscribes for the paper, and the working man finds in its columns, some, entertaining reading and interesting news. As a stout and uncompromising advocate of temperance the Packet has won the respect of all classes and the esteem of a very large section of the community among which it circulates. Success to the Packet.
