—The winter's snow has almost disappeared without bringing on the annual spring floods as heavy as anticipated. As the snow clears off the fact is painfully evident that careless people are in the habit of dumping rubbish, ashes and general refuse on the sides of the streets. This should not be. Better things are expected of a community the size of Lindsay, and the sight of such piles of refuse on the streets strikes the casual visitor very unfavorably and he is apt to draw his own conclusions.

casual visitor very unlaworably and he is apt to draw his own conclusions.

The meeting of the railway committee of the town council and officials of the Midland-Grand Trunk branch held at the council chamber on Monday atternoon was well worth the price of admission. The proceedings grew interesting and the speeches were varied, full of energetic statements and more or less convincing. Applause was given from time to time as points were scored on either side—the people against alleged monopolies and combinations.

—Some impatient people in town are certainly open to the imputation of trying to rush the season—that is the building season. So eager were they to commence building that men were set at work at one or two places to dig out cellars. At one spot in the north ward where the men had literally a soft thing they worked for fifteen minutes and then hauled off for repairs. They decided that life—though short, and as Mr. Mantilini puts it, "one demnition grind,"—was worth looking after, suggesting to the swarer that he needed a canal, not a cellar. The works are closed down temporarily.

Who! G. A. WEESE, and his entire stock in Lindsay must be cleaned out with a rush. Storekeepers in town and country, now is your chance.

April, 1886, will be remembered in Lindsay as the month of bargains.—86-1.

On Monday evening last a meeting of parties nterested was held in the sitting room of the Royal hotel and the reorganization of the Lindsay base ball club talked over. After a lengthy discussion it was unanimously considered advisable to endeavor to form a joint stock company, and by this means awaken a deeper interest in our people favorable to true manly sport in general and the Lindsay base ball club in particular, and a committee was appointed to lay the matter before a number of leading citizens. The idea is to issueshares—at a low rate—to the amount of say $200, and by this means put the club on a solid financial basis—the company to have the management of the club. We have no doubt this scheme will prove successful and can safely rely upon our champion nine coming to the front again this season under such an ororganization. ... In connection with the above the committee have called a meeting for this (Friday) evening in the parlor of T. McConnell's hotel, at eight o'clock sharp. A number of leading citizens have promised to attend and an interesting meeting may be expected. All those who wish the Lindsay "duffers" prosperity are cordially invited te attend. On Wednesday the local postmaster, Mr. H Gladman, received by express from London four of the eight street letter-boxes to be put up at Lindsay. The boxes are of regulation size and design and colored a bright red. Four boxes more are to arrive this week and Mr. Midland division, were in town, and during the afternoon met the railway committee of the town council and a deputation from Mariposa, and settled the grain warehouse and Manilla junction road questions.

-Now look well to the condition of your back yards and outbuildings, not forgetting the celler. A fair supply of elbow grease energetically used in connection with a spade or hoe will do a world of good at this season of the year in removing a fall and winter's accumulation of rubbish, and may save a doctor's bill later on when the warm weather comes.

-Town council meeting on Monday night of next week. Meeting of school board on Tuesday evening following. Matters of interest will come before both bodies. Ratepayers should show by their attendance a greater interest in the transactions and deliberations of our civic parliaments, especially as to matters coming up in connection with our schools.

-On Monday night the rink was closed for the season. The ice gave out and curling, if persisted in at all, would have been difficult. On Monday night was played a match, Skips v. —Probably the last foreign match of the season was played at the rink on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Two rinks from the Peterboro club came up and tried conclusions with their Lindsay conferes. The temperature was mild and play was made in short coats and stiff hats and by one or two zealous players in shirt-sleeves. Lindsay won after a keen contest by 12 shots. The score stood as below:—
