REABO.
[Correspondence of The Post.]
A CRYSTALLINE PROJECT.—A movement is on foot in this section among some of our leading men to have a crystalline established for the manufacture of all aged butter. Of course if the farmers are to be benefited by going into the crystalline business the cheese factory owned by Mr. John Holbert could be utilized for that purpose, as no doubt Mr. Holbert could make a manufacture of butter equally as profitable as any other cheese. We think we ought to see the sentiment of every farmer in the community when we say we hope to see this project carried out, and feel sure it will receive the hearty co-operation of the farmers.

CARTWRIGHT.
SCHOOL REPORT.—On Monday of last week Mrs. Keenan, and old lady living a few rods west of our village, fell on the road and greatly injured one thigh. She is a great sufferer and perhaps the injury may prove fatal. Her brother-in-law, Mr. Keenan, arrived yesterday evening from New York State, and will doubtless see that she and her feeble partner are properly cared for, as they have no very near relations here.

GOVE TO THE POST.—Messrs. Matthew and Thomas Emmerson of Creswell, builders, have purchased a plating mill, door and sash factory, etc. in Port Perry. We expect to see them from our township with their every success in their new home of business.

REYNOLDS.—Mr. Elias Spinks, not of our township, has taken to himself a few rods west of our village, and has taken possession of the home and farm, half a mile north of our village, formerly occupied by Mr. Robert Spinks and Miss Spinks, brother and sister of the school.

JANETVILLE.
[Correspondence of The Post.]
IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. Jas. R. D. is adding to his farm, and has commenced to erect a new shop and public hall. The latter will be of a general benefit, as there was no place of the kind here before. Mr. D. is also erecting a new house, and it is believed the contract for erecting a house for Mr. James Armstrong.

A HORSE TRADE AND A CRASH.—Quite a lively time was created here by Prof. Ferrin, who held an exhibition and school here, and all went well until the morning he went away. Previous to starting he "swapped" horses with one of our inhabitants, who was not an expert at the business. After the "prof" had started, our friend thought he would try his new horse, but as he would sooner stand and kick than go forward, he expressed sentiments to the effect that he would rather sell the horse than to a general public after the "prof" and away went three of our heavy young townsmen on horseback to run him down, while two more brought up the rear in a cutter. After waiting a long while the horse was flooded, they sought up to their necks in mud, and after some strange demonstrations and persuasive powers the horse was exchanged and came home again, happy and victorious, with three who went on horseback do not want such a ride again for some time.

PORT PERRY.
REMOVAL.—We regret to hear of the intention of Mr. Jonathan Hong to leave Port Perry and move to Toronto in the spring. He has been a main stay to the town for years, and will be greatly missed.

HEAVY CATTLE.—Mr. J. W. Adams, Grosbeak, has an imported Durham bull, "Vice-President," which was two years old on Wednesday, the 24th of March, and which weighed 1800 pounds. Whom beat this?

A CANADIAN PATROL.—Mr. Amos Wilcox died on the 18th inst., at Cobden in the county of Pelee, in his 66th year. He was the uncle of Mr. Francis Howard, Mrs. J. H. Gerrie and Mrs. W. H. Adams of Wilby, and of Mrs. W. M. Adams of Port Perry. He was step-father of Mrs. J. M. Adams of this village. He was born at Chippewa, near Niagara, and fought at Queenston Heights, Lundy's Lane and Detroit. He and his brother took an active part in some of the early battles of Ontario by Indians.

OBITUARY.—In another column will be found notice of the death of Mr. John G. Gray, who left this vicinity about a week ago, and was about seventy years of age, and who has not been here for 10 years, and which time he spent in a few months' visit. Deceased has left a considerable estate in extensive mining operations, in company with other capitalists, having done in the time of his death. It was reported that he was carrying to his friends here, as he had been in good health when last heard from.

MILDEN.
[Correspondence of The Post.]
DIFFERENCE.—This great disease has broken out in the family of Mr. Almer Baker a third time, and as we write two children members of his family are prostrated by it, one of them being in an exceedingly dangerous condition and the other with fair hopes of recovery. In the previous attacks of this disease, Mr. Baker was fortunate to have his children restored to health. Every precaution was taken in the way of cleaning and disinfecting the premises, but notwithstanding the most careful attention, the disease kept away from it before he had taken it. The disease seemed to have completely disappeared for some time, and its effects in one of the present cases are likely to prove fatal. Mr. Baker is a member of the sincere sympathy of the entire neighborhood under their present trying circumstances.

CHURCHING.—Mr. J. G. Deas, Eastlake church missionary here, has been confined to his room by serious illness for the past week. His many friends, however, will be glad to hear that Dr. Curry's skillful treatment has produced a marked recovery. His excessive weakness, however, will prevent him from assuming any heavy duties for the next couple of weeks.

MONEY TO LOAN.—$50,000 private and company funds at six per cent. LOUTH M. B. & CO., 100 Queen St. W., Toronto.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.—The fourth annual meeting of the Lindsay Presbyterian women's foreign missionary society was held in the school room of Knox church. Representatives were present from nearly all the societies in the presbytery. The ladies of the Resurrection auxiliary provided luncheon for the delegates and members of presbytery. When the hour for the afternoon meeting arrived, the school room was well filled with ladies from the congregation and neighborhood. The secretary reported that the society had been organized during the year, maintaining its aims and objectives and one mission fund in the presbytery. From the treasurer's report it was seen that the amount had been made by all the societies in their contributions. Last year the amount contributed was $240, this year it is $304. Very interesting and instructive papers on missionary work were read by Mrs. J. G. Deas, Mrs. L. J. Peterson, Mrs. J. A. McEwen, Mrs. J. S. Thorburn, Mrs. J. W. Woodward, Mrs. J. F. Peterson, Mrs. J.
