THEY'LL FIT THE SEASON. The Country is waiting for them! The Town demands them! The People will have them!

TO THE TRADE We offer Soaps in 5 and 10 box lots cheaper than it can be bought anywhere else. Send in orders.

SOAPS! SOAPS!

We have now in stock one car of SOAPS, the best the market offers. Our stock includes the well-known Liverpool, Victoria Laundry and Empress Laundry brands. Buying these as we do in large quantities we get special Prices and can afford to retail them at the lowest possible figure.

60 CASES OF FRUIT JARS.

To meet the wants of the fruit season approaching we have brought in possibly the largest importation of FRUIT JARS ever placed in Lindsay, 60 cases. Buying as we do in large quantities we get very special prices. We sell at specially low prices. Dealers will find they can be supplied from our stock at rates actually lower than Toronto or Montreal prices.

THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE SCOTT ACT. The subject of the letter or opinion from Mr. John McSwain to the local Scott act committee will be of interest at the present time.

EDITORIAL NOTES. Mr. H. Lovering, the conservative candidate for East Simcoe, has prudently determined to retire from the field.

EDITORIAL NOTES. A Mr. Marter of Gravenhurst has been nominated by conservatives in Muskoka for the local house. They propose to make a martyr of him.

EDITORIAL NOTES. A graphic and entertaining description of the "home rule" debate at Ottawa, from the clever correspondent of the Montreal Herald, is printed on another page.

EDITORIAL NOTES. It is now in order for the Warbler to "unearth" some more "grit treachery." The last "unearthing" job proved abortive, and covered the diggers with ridicule.

EDITORIAL NOTES. Sir John Macdonald has forced his party into a square vote against any change in the senate. Many conservatives agree with reformers that an improvement is demanded.

EDITORIAL NOTES. Hon. L. S. Huntington died suddenly in New York Wednesday morning. For many years he was a prominent member of the liberal party in Canada.

EDITORIAL NOTES. We have received the first volume of "The Caricature History of Canadian Politics." It is an exceedingly interesting volume, and gives at a glance salient features of Canadian history for the past forty years.

EDITORIAL NOTES. Gladstone's home rule bill engrosses attention in Britain to the exclusion of all other topics. Its fate is uncertain.

EDITORIAL NOTES. We beg to call the attention of the Warbler and the most noble Mr. Moore, as our cotem styles him, to a very dangerous and insidious arrangement that ought to be "unearthed."
