By the way they managed it on the start we presume for them a good crew of their own before they reach the harbor of old age. We also extend to them our hearty congratulations and wish them many pleasant years and all the happiness a wedded life can bring them. Mr. and Mrs. Hickaby left on the evening train for their new home on St. Joseph's island. This was a red letter day in the history of Glenarin, as flags were fluttering in the breeze from all the business places. When the wedding party started away several shots were fired as a parting salute.

BARNS BURNED.—About two o'clocks Friday morning P. C. McGinty noticing a blaze at the south end of the town, sounded the fire alarm. It was accertained that several buildings owned by Mr. W. Yelland in Monoghau, just south at the driving park, were in fismes. The fire brigade turned out promptly, but before they arrived on the scene the fire was beyond their contrel. Two barns, a stable and driving shed with contents, were burned to the ground. The contents consisted of several tons of hay and straw, plows, harrows, a respect and mower, and one cutter, also a quantity of hubs, spokes, and other raw materials used in the manufacture of vehicles. The loss by the fire will amount to miserials used in the manufacture of vehicles. The loss by the fire will amount to $1,500, partly covered by insurance. Mr. Yelland had the whole insured for $1,000, $300 of which was on vehicles, which had since been removed from the buildings. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.—[Examiner.
