This is but another evidence of the bungling carried on at Ottawa, where they seem to know as little about musicipal institutions as they do about the primary principles of honor and konesty. With the Scott act fines going to the municipalities some sesistance might be expected in enforcing the act. But with the moneys going to the county councils nothing whatever can be expected in that direction."

-Last Wednesday Mr. J. W. Mauning, chief officer license branch Canada Tem-perance set division, met a number of the principal temperance workers in Barrie to hear wint they knew of the unworkshie features of the Scott set.
