STILL CONTINUES

and will keep up until the entire stock is disposed of retail—if that is possible. The business under the present management at the end of the year, and all goods remaining unsold will be disposed of en bloc to parties who propose carrying on the business.

Look Alive if you would

While we are selling rapidly and giving more than satisfaction, we are not replacing the goods sold by others. There is not the slightest intention of doing any such thing. The more we sell the less there remains for you to choose from. Therefore come early. Therefore come promptly. Therefore come prepared to buy, for we most earnestly wish to sell you everything we can that suits you.

evidence indeed that they were not disappointed in pracuring their wants on advantageous terms. But direct proof can be easily had by any one who calls at the aforesaid store that Dry Goods and Clothing—either ordered or ready-made—are honestly and squarely offered at COST PRICE. Although sales continue very large his stock is still well assorted,—19-1.

The concert given on Thursday night of la veek, under the auspices of the Methodist church, passed off very successfully. The house was crowded. The program was given entirely by a corps of Toronto artistes, including Miss Berryman, Miss Curlett, Mr. F. Warrington, Mr. J. C. Arlidge and J. W. McNally, solo pianiste and accompanist. Miss Berryman made her first appearance before a Lindsay sudience and sang charmingly several solos, and in response to well merited applause gave several encores. Miss Curlett made a very faverable impression and her solos were admired and deservedly encored. Mr. Warrington is always well received and well sustained his popularity as the best all round concert baritone before the public. Mr. Arlidge took the audience by storm with with his magnificent flute playing. He is a finished performer and of ability very seldom reached. His tone is clear, sweet and powerful, while attitude and fingering are faultless. He was encored after each performance and responded with well executed selections. Mr. Arlidge will "take" when he again appears before our townspeople. He also Berryman, Miss Curlett, Mr. F. Warrington

PROTECTION SALE

WE PROTECT OUR PLEDGE TO THE PEOPLE.

Our motto is to undersell any other house in the trade, and we are determined to uphold this motto.

We have earned this reputation fairly, squarely and honestly. By dint of perseverence, energy and square dealing we have succeeded in building up a large business and deservedly earning the confidence of the people. We have always guaranteed our prices the lowest, and now in the face of low prices for all kinds of grain and produce we have decided to meet our many friends and patrons with the lowest possible prices in return for what they want want to buy in

DRY GOODS, MILLINERY and MANTLES, CARPETS, CLOTHING and CHOICE FURS.

This we contend is the proper course to pursue. You have stood by us when you got good prices and now that the prices are low we will stand by you by selling you all the goods you require at exactly cost price. One good turn deserves another. This sale will continue through the month of November.

If you have any doubts that this sale is other than a genuine reality call and see us. We ask no better fun than dispelling and removing all such ideas. We never yet advertised anything we did not carry out, and we are determined this sale shall be no exception. Remember all goods at exactly cost price and no deviation.

OUR DEPARTMENTS ARE:

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods,

Millinery and Mantles,

Mantle and Ulster Cloths,

Carpets, Oilcloths, Linoleums,

Mattings and Housefurnishings,

Ready-made Clothing.
