KINMOUNT.

THANKSGIVING DAY. — Thanksgiving day was observed in about the usual manner, most of the stores being closed in the morning, but the afternoon saw them in active operation. In the evening Rev. Mr. Fusee preached a thanksgiving sermon...

By request of the trustees Mr. Fusee is to occupy the pulpit of the union church every other Sabbath evening as well as every alternate morning.

DIPHTHERIA.—Diphtheria has again appeared in our midst. Two of the family of Mr. Haines are at present ill with it. The attack is esid to be slight and we heartily wish it may prove so. The board of health meet to-night and we will soon know what steps they intend to take.

NEW MILL.—It is reported that Mr. Jns.
Dovey intends to rebuild his mill. The work is to begin at once. Success!

DIPHTHERIA.—This dread disease has been prevalent in the neighborhood about here this fall. We are thankful, however, to be able to state that through the skilful treatment of Dr. Frost very few cases have proved fatal.

Snow.—For the last week and a half the runners have had preference to the wheels, and for the last few days we have had good sleigh-

IMPROVEMENT.—The Orangemen of this IMPROVEMENT.—The Orangemes of this place have through their energy and perseverance erected a spacious and well furnished hall, which not only reflects credit on themselves, but also is a boon to our village. It is very convenient and well adapted for all public gatherings. And we have no doubt but that it will be used for such purposes on all necessary occasions. See item on another page.

BLACKWATER.

New Arrivals. - Mr. and Mrs. Matthew New Arrivals.—Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Shannen of Centreville in the county of Lennox. arrived here on Thanksgiving day, having decided to settle down in Blackwater in order to be near their son, Mr. W. J. Shannon, who has taken hold of the general store and grain business here. Mr. and Mrs. Shannon, who gained for themselves the respect and friendship of all who knew them in their old home, left there last month regretted by all, laden with every good wish and many substantial tokens of good will. Mr. Shannon has leased his large farm in Camden, and will retire from settive farm work. We think he has done wisely to settle here for we don't know a handler place than this will be for a retired farmer to settle down.

BAY HORSE HOTEL.—The hotel has been leased by Mr. W. J. Ramsay, who has given his BAY HORSE HOTSI..—The hotel has been leased by Mr. W. J. Ramsay, who has given his hotel the above name, a very appropriate one for a good, plain country hotel, which it professes to be, and at which he expects a farmer to feel at home. Mr. Ramsay is a very busy man, willing to oblige, always polite, and trying his best to get his establishment into order. He appears to be pleased with the successe his venture is meeting with. Mr. Ramsay has a keen eye to the cleanliness of the house and to prompt attention in the dining-room. What between farmers marketing grain and travellers from the trains the house is kept busy.

Livery.—There is a frequent demand for horses here. Mr. Hanna lets his out and so does Mr. Ramsay. The latter intends to get another. A proper rig or two could get regular employment here.

THE GRAIN MARKET continues good.

THE GRAIN MARKET continues good.
Large sums of money are paid out every week.
Where the money is paid out there the merchants flock together. It is only a matter of time when we shall have a number of them.
TRAVEL increases steadily at this station.
More people get on and off the trains here as they realize the convenience of it and drop out of their old habits.

JOTTINGS.—Mr. M. Shannon brought a nice horse and carriage up from the east with him. It is a grey (that is the horse is). The skop will be in full swing shortly. It is a pity they are missing the present good opportunity of trade... Political feelings are commencing to warm up a bit around here.... There is an advertisement in the Toronto Mail for a waggon-maker and blacksmith shop here. Doubtless one would pay here... There is one fat thing about the hotel, that is the horse The Post has put on top of the hotel etter-heads.

clusion proposed "The day and why we honor it," remarking that he rejoiced to learn from Mr. McKenzie that charity was a chief feature in the association. Without charity, he claimed, all good movements must perish. The good book toid us, he said, "the' I give my goods to feed the poor, the' I give my body to be burned and have not charity it availeth nothing." Of all the three, faith, hope and charity, each one of which our associations should poses, the greatest of all was charity, and so he was glad to know that St. Andrew's society in Woodville possessed from its beginning the greatest of all. Our sister societies were replied to by Mr. Sanderson, Mr. Jas. Forrest and Mr. P. McSweyn. "The ladies" brought Mr. Gillogly again to his feet, when he feelingly explained that he had not many more days left to him within which he could respond to this toast. After the "Press" was toasted, dancing was begun and away on in the wee hours of morning terpeichoreans were still doing honor to St. Andrew's day, 1896.

Factory Meeting.—The patrons of the cheese factory met on Thursday in the Rockland house at a supper to celebrate the fifth year since the opening of the factory. It was a very pleasant gathering.

Butter.—Upwards of 200 lbs. of butter have been sold to the buyers here.

A QUESTION FOR Mr. Meredith.—What does Mr. Meredith mean when he condemns the Mowat government for attempting to give fair play to the back country farmers by giving them passable roads! As the Bobaygeon Independent says, the farmers of Galway will not thank Mr. Meredith for his hostlity to their interests by condemning Mr. Mowat for improving their roads. In fact if Mr. Meredith had to drive over those roads he would think twies before he told Galway farmers their roads were too good for them.
