Your Children

Are constantly exposed to danger from Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup, and diseases peculiar to the throat and Jungs. For such allments, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, promptly adminissered, affords speedy relief and cure.

As a remedy for Whooping Cough, with which many of our children were efficied, we used, during the past winter, with much satisfaction, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For this affection, we Consider this preparation the most effi-cacious of all the medicines which have come to our knowledge.—Mary Park-hurst, Preceptress, Home for Little Wanderers, Doneaster, Md.

My children have been peculiarly subject to attacks of Croup, and I failed to find any effective remedy until I commenced administering Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This preparation relieves the difficulty of breathing and invariably cures the complaint.—David G. Starks, Chatham. Columbia Co., N.Y. Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y.

I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for many years, and have found it especially valuable in Whooping Cough. This medicine allays all irritation, prevents inflammation from extending to the lungs, and quickly subdues any tendency to Lung Complaint.—J. B. Wellington, Plainville, Mich.

I find no medicine so effective, for Croup and Whooping Cough, as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It was the means of saving the life of my little boy, only six. months old, carrying him safely through the worst case of Whooping Cough I ever saw. — Jane Malone, Piney Flats, Tenn.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

LINDSAY, MRIDAY, DEG. 10, 1886. HE LEADETH ME.

In pastures green? Not always; sometimes He Who knowest best, in kindess leadeth me In weary ways whice heavy shadows be,

Out of sunstine, warm and soft and bright, Out of the abline into darkest night; I oft would fain with sorrew and affright.

Only for this I know he holds my hand! So, whether it. U. weeen or desert land, I trust, although I may not understand. And by still water ! No, not always so:

Offfimes the heavy temptests round me blow. And o'er my soul the waves and billows go. But when the storm beats loudest, and I cry Aloud for help, the Master standeth by,

And whispers to my soul, "Lo, it is i. Above the temptes' wild I hear him say. "Beyond this doknow lies the perfect day; In every path of thine I lead the way.

I dwell, or in the and a valleys where The snadows he who matter! He is there. And more than " here'er the pathway lead.

He gives to me no helpless, broken reed, But his own hand, afficient for my need. So, where he leads not I can safely go: And in the blest here fer I shall know Why in his wisdom He hath led me so.

PORT PERRY. "SCOTTISH CHAMPION" DEAD. - Last Monday M. S. Graham of this place lost his heavy imported Clydesdale stallion, Scottish Champion. His death was caused by an attack of coile, a disease with which he has been slightly troubled for some time. It was a painful sight to witness the animal plunging in the pangs of pain, even while under the influence of chloroform. Mr. Graham has sustained a heavy loss, not only in the value of the horse Mr. Graham, however, has another horse. "The Bright" a very fine looking and well-bred beast, and he will place him on "Scotty's" route next season.—[Standard.

MINDEN. Accident.—A Child of Mr. R. Gainer's happened with what might have proved a very serious accident on Saturday last. A NEW SWINDLE is being perpetrated on the farmers. Two men drive up to a farm house, and talk about the high price paid for groceries. A barrel or two of sugar is taken from their wagon and offer-ed for sale at about half price. The farmer buys the sugar, and in a few days discovers that he has purchased ordinary salt with a few pounds of sugar on top.

Accident. We are exceedingly sorry to learn that Mr. Walter Smith, of the Scotch line, Anson, met with a very severe acci-dent on Saturday last. While putting down some straw in his barn, he did not notice that a hay fork stood against the side of the niow, pronga upward, and after putting down the straw he went to slide down upon the barn floor when he got impaled upon the tine of the fork which went entirely through his thigh and threw him across the threshing-floor. He is now laid up in consequence, and it will be some time before he can resume work. We understand that so far he is progressing favorably. He has the sympathy of a large circle of friends who hope soon to see him on his feet again.—[Echo.

SELLING LIQUOR TO INDIANS.—On the 25th November, Mr. D. J. McPhee, Indian Agent, tried a case of selling liquor to Indians. The charge was laid by Constable Simon Rockymountain, against Alexander Macauley and Mrs. Macauley. Mr. Patrick Gettings appeared for the defendants. Two Indians—Gilbert Williams, Jr., and Peter Jacobs—gave straightforward evidence of having, with several other Indians, been served with liquor by Mrs. Macauley, ou the 13th November. A fine of $50 and costs was imposed, Macauley to go to gaol for three months if fine be not paid forthwith. These Indians showed an example worthy of imitation by many whites in the way of telling the whole truth when under oath.—[Orillia l'acket. RAMA.

He also knows that there is more contained in these selections than any scholar of average ability will ever acquire even a fair knowledge of during his school life. ONTARIO COUNTY.

C. P. R. ENTERPRISE.—The Chronicle says there is to be a telegraph line run from Myrtle te Cobourg via Whitby, Oshawa, Bowmanville, Newcastle, Pert Hope, etc. This line is to be a branch of the C. P. R. line, which is expected to compete with the Great-Northwestern line. It may not be the case, but it looks as if the C. P. R. intends at no distant date to tap these towns with a branch of its road. Whatever advantages this increase in the system might have for the railways there is not the least doubt that the towns would be greatly benefitted by it. Good rates could then be secured both for passengers and freight. ONTARIO COUNTY.

[Correspondence of The Post.]
A CONSERVATIVE FARMERS' OPINION.-In speaking recently to a farmer who at the last election voted for Mr. Dundas, he expressed himself in words to this effect:-"I, at the last election, voted for Mr. Dundas, not because I favored protection, but of my father being a conservative, since then I considered itmy duty to follow my own opinion, and the result is that, if things do not change, though it is with a pang I leave my party, I will poll a reform ticket. My reasons are, 1st, I cannot see a single point in the conservative policy favourable to farmers, we are taxed unjustly, being compelled to pay a tax equal to that of the richest of our capitalists. There is nothing just in the system; taxes are levied on almost every imported necessity of the farmer; whilst our produce is taxed going out. Thus we have to bear a double tax. Little wonder farm property has depreciated in value. 2nd, We have a government so corrupt and extravagant that the credit of the at the last election, voted for Mr. Dundas, rupt and extravagant that the credit of the country is endangered. The cost of the C. P.R., Indian grievances, and worst of all the shameless unhesitancy with which the most prominent of the conservatives grabbed up timber limits, railway subsidies and hard cash has become too burdensome and lothsome to be borne in silence. Conservalothsome to be borne in silence. Conservatives say: The reformers if in power would do likewise, but they did not do so in the Mackenzie regime and they are now under better leadership, so the probabilities of better management are in their favor. It is common saying that a change of government does the country good. Certain it is, reformers can do no worse. Give them a title and if they can do no better than the trial and if they can do no better than the present ministerialists, God help the country. Lastly, we were told by the government candidates last election that protection would raise the price of our crops, but experience proves the fallacy of the state-ment. We have to pay the tax both ways and receive no better prices for our crops indeed many of our products are debarred from entering the United States altogether by the tax levied and so limits our trade. For instance our potatoes are seld below their real market value. import their potatoes over ten days journey and find a good market in New York whilst we cannot, owing to the heavy tax, send ours a days journey across the line. I think these are sufficient reasons for turning any thinking man from voting for so expensive luxury as protection, but re-member although John A.'s policy is not a good one for farmers and laborers, it is a splendid one for capitalists. They can charge what they please for the machinery the farmers use and have no competition. For instance, the combination among manufacturers of self-binders it being taxed out of the country. The farmers must have machinery and get it at a price which would equalled by the force with which the farmers will fight for their rights at the coming soon be reduced were we to be allowed a foreign trade both ways, but free trade means fair play to all and that would de-stroy John A.'s chances of capitalistic back-
