In this campaign the opposition critics do not attack the administration of public affairs, or the pub-He expenditure, or any particular question or policy, except in s'hazy, indefinite way. that practically admits that there is no ground of attack. The opposition tactice are devoted solely to questions of race and greed. Vigorous attempts have been made to stir up race and religious prejudices, and appeals have been made to long dormant passions with the hope of making politisal capital. Fortunately these tactics have had but very limited encouse; and it is not surprising that Mr. Meredith in the anguien of despair trice to hedge by denouncing the flaming "patriote" of his own party as "enemies to their country and their

MR. FELLAND MR. R. KENNED'S

Mr. Fell, it is understood, deales the truthfulness of Mr. Robert Kennedy's assertion that at his Dunsford meeting Mr. Fell assured his sudience that the law was lifferent between a Protestant and Catholic tenant in so far as his school taxes are concerned. We prefer to accept Mr. Kennedy's statement, who heard Mr. Fell try to create prejudice by mis-stating the law. Mr. Fell may not have done so intentionally. His method of speaking is such as to make it difficult for him to know just what he does say; but that Mr. Kennedy is correct, no man but Mr. Fell will venture to

REPUDIATED.

As incident of the liberal meeting at Quister's school house was the decided way Mr. Fairbairu, reeye of Verulam, repudiated the Warder sewepaper when driven into a corner by Mr. Barron. The latter gentleman when speaking read from the Warder of the 10th inet., its twentyone allegations against the Catholics, and se he took up each one in turn he turned to Mr. Fairbairn and challenged him to speak out and say whether the Warder was stating what was true of not. At first Mr. Fairbairn declined to snewer, but se allegation after silegation was proved by Mr. Barron from the statutes themselves to be positively full to get elected another time. false, Mr. Fairbairn finally stood up and nonestly and fairly admitted that he could no longer justify the statements of the caper which he felt were untrue. The Mail repudiated. The Warder repudiated. What next.

NOT YET DENIED.

Mr. Cruess has not yet ventured to deny or satisfactorily explain the following declaration. Toe the mark, Mr. Cruese, and let the people know under which flag you

We, the undersigned electors of the riding of West Victoria, hereby certify that at a meeting of electors held at Grant's school house, in the township of Mariposa, on Saturday, the 11th day of December inet., John Cruese, a candidate for election to the legislative assembly for the province of Ontario, stated that he intended to vote with the Mowat government in the election of speaker; that he had no fault to find with the Mowatgovernment; that he would give a general support to the Mowat government; and unon being asked if he would give a hearty support to the Mowat government, he answered that he would. He further stated that he was not nominated at a conservative convention, but was composed of reformers and conservatives.

THE ONTARIO SURPLUS.

As the reslity of the Outsrio surplus of over six millions claimed by the Mowat administration is disputed by the opposithe last budget speech of Mr. Ross, provincial tressurer, but omitting the odd cents. But the great trouble is the book has the endorsement of Archbishon Lynch and the Roman Catholic clergy. Why don't we object to the doctrines of the Trinity, the Devinity of Christ, and the personality of the Hely Ghost because these also are endorsed by Roman Catholics! Let ue have charity and fair dealing. I rejoice that two-thirds of the Roman Catholic children of Ontario are in our public schools and that they are growing up under the influence and teaching of bible truth. It is very well to champion Protestautism, but when we cry out against Roman Catholic dominancy do let ue find semething a little more rational than this scripture reader controversy, for in this all the churches must take their share of the odium along with the government and the minister of education. Party politics is getting pretty low when it has to trade on prejudice and religious antipathles. I never gave a vote in my life on party issues, but I do protest against the dragging of religious feuds into a question which ought to give the sincerest rejoicing to all parties—the extended reading of bible truth in all our public and high schools. and said that he was using it in family de

John Shields says "Meredith will carry the province; that the grite are not "enthused," they are careless as in 1878, when Mackenzie was defeated. John's opinion is evidently warped by his hope of being 'recouped" from the Unterlosurplus-what what a time he would have but his notice that the reformers are careless and indif-ferent ought to spur up any one who can put that cap ou. We do not think it is the case.

The reduction of Mr. Norquey's majority of seventeen in the old Manitobe five in the new, as the result of the general elections is another indication of the pop. ular feeling against conservative misrule and alliance offensive and defensive with Sir John at Ottawa. Norquay has been particularly obsequious to the "chieftain," and his rule cannot last much longer. The strengthened opposition will seen turn him cart.

A cable item says: "Without question the largest farm in England has been thrown on its owner's hands. It is in Lincolumbire, and consists of 2,700 seres. The tenant paid $5 per acre this year. The Blake-Laurier demonstration in Peterbero last Friday was a grand success Elequent addresses were made by Mr. Blake, Mr. Laurier and others to the largest and most enthusiastic gathering ever seen in the burg. Mr. Stratton's prospects of carrying the riding are of the brightest. A great many conservatives admit that Mr. Carnegie's chances are slim. West Peterboro will, it is expected with confidence, count in Mr. Mowat's increased majority. So, too, will East Victoria, if our friends work with confidence and vigor, and we are glad to learn that they are doing so everywhere.

The Ottawa Free Press says: Ottawa conservatives have entered upon the Ontario general election campaign in a most them, with an eye to the main chance, have shrewdly made bets that the general majority of the Mowat administration will be increased.
