A CLOSE CONTEST.

THE LIBERALS LEADING.

THE GOVERNMENT 3 BEHIND. The Ministerialists Claim 25 or 30 Majority. The Mail Given the Government Only 13.

The contest last Tuesday gives the closest results of any general election since confederation. The liberale claim a majority of three so far with eleven elections yet to take place, in which they may fairly Count five. The ministerialists on the other hand beast of twenty or thirty, but they make this by counting in most of the French bolters, who will undoubtedly vote the government out. The situation resembles that in Quebec after the last provincial election, when the Ross-Taillon ministry claimed a majority and hung on to office for mouths before they dared to meet the house. They loudly claimed a big majority, just as Dominion ministerislists are now doing, but the first vote shewed the claim to have no foundation. A similar result is likely to follow the first yote in the new house. Below are

Barron Elected by About 300. THE TEN PER-CENT. COMMIS-

NORTH VICTORIA REDEEMED

The Popular Verdict against Selfseeking Members.

SIONER REJECTED.

Great Rejoicings at Fenelon Falls. Magnificent Procession Accompany ing Mr. Barron to Lindsay.

The South Riding Honors the North for its Noble Victory. The campaign in North Victoria, carried on with remarkable vigor and activity by Mr. Barron and his friends, and with considerable energy by Mr. Hector Cameron, resulted in perhaps the grandest victory in the Dominion. The result in so wide a constituency was uncertain, but Mr. Barron was ever confident of success, and the verdict Tuesday night justified his confidence in the electors of North Victoria. The excitement began at Fenelon Falls at once, when the small majority of 7 for Cameron was known to be the result of the village vote. The Cameron tories looked glum; but the independent conservative seemed pleased at the result, while the liberals with difficulty restrained their euthusiasm. About 5.30 p.m. Mr. Barron reached the village with the result from Brown's in Fenelon, and when it was known to be 32 of a liberal majority the rejoicing was to follow. Next came the result from the Scotch settlement in Fenelon, 48 for Barron; then the Cambray vote, 41 for Bar. joined hand in hand with the liberal party. After tea Ingram's hall was engaged and was soon tilled with an anxious and excited while as contingents came in from the country round about. Then the news came from Minden, 27 for Barron, and 31 in Anon for Cam. ron, follo ved by Lutterworth's 28 for Barron. By tols time several prominent referiners from outside had arrived, ties. The full vote will be printed next week among whom were Mr. P. W. Ferguson, Mr. Isaac Kuight, Mr. Murchison, Mr.

Gould, and others, each of whem was heartily weicomed to the pl tform. Next came down the result from the Coboconk division of Somerville, and Bexley, with 4 and 7 respectively for Barron. Then came the associated press despatch: " Barron. (liberal), elected by over 200;" and the cheering :nd excitement fairly shook the hall. A little later the returns from Eldon came in, and when it was found that the honest yeomanry of and given Mr. Barron amajority the excitement knew no bounds and a rush was made for torches, a platform and chair, and Mr. Barrou was borne upon the shoulders of stalheaded by the new band of L.O.L. 996. In the meantime a large pile had been prepared for a bonfire, but two or three Cameron tories in their frenzy and foolishness pulled the boxes down and for a time delayed the bluze. Opposite the McArthur house the procession stopped and Mr. Barron ad dressed the crowd for a few minutes and announced his majority, as far as heard from, of 284. Conducted back to the hall Mr. Barron spoke again, thanking the riding for its victory, which indicated what could be accomplished in a good cause wnen "cast-ironism" in politics was laid aside and right allowed to prevail irrespective of party. The rejoicing was kept up until a late hour, when the large and happy gathering broke up to meet next morning at ten to drive in procession to Lindsay and escort Mr. Barron to his home. A little after 10 some fifty sleighe assembled. before the McArthur house and headed by the band drove through the village and then on to Lindsay. It was a pretty eight to see the narrow line of joyful sleighs wending its way over the ice, and the singing of the bandsmen added enthusiasm to the procession. About three miles out of Lindsay the North riding sleighs were joined by seventy-five or more from the South riding, and the greetings and cheers when South congratulated North ran up the enthusiasm to its highest pitch. Many ladies came out from Lindsay to show their appreciation to the men of the North for the honor they had done Mr. Barron and their efforts in behalf of honest government, and among the ladies was Mrs. Barron, who, with her two children, joined

Mr. Barron in his sleigh, wherein were

Mr. James Dickson, Mr. J. E. Gould, Mr.

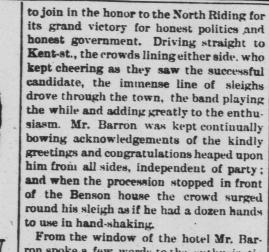

C. W. Moore, Mr. Nevison, Mr. John A. Ellis, Mr. E. Edwards, Mr. W. E. Ellis and Dr. E. S. Wilson. Headed by the Lindsay band the many sleighs, with flags flying and horses decorated, drove on to Lindsay.

being joined on the way by others whose feelings were in harmony with the victors.

The procession was the largest ever seen in the town of Lindsay, being not less than one mile and a half in length. On the way

From the window of the hotel Mr. Barron spoke a few words to the enthusiastic crowd. He congratulated the liberal party upon their victory in North Victoria a victory in securing which honest, independent conservatives had joined with the liberal party in the north. (Cheers), Or ganization, hearty and willing work and a good cause had won the day, and although he thought there was a reform majority on the Dominion list in North Victoria, yet efforts had not many of his friends from the conservative ranks given him notice. able aid towards his large majority of over

280. His heart was too full to speak as he wished to, and his used-up voice made it as painful for them to listen as for him to speak; but he wished to tell his Lindsay friends that the victory had been celebrated the night before in a manner worthy of the North, and that it was titting and right that the procession from the north should be met, as it just had been, by his good friends from the south. (Cheers). They should remember that it was a south riding resident whom the north had yesterday honored with the highest and most sacred trust they had in their gift their votes (cheers) and he felt that the meeting of the two ridings on the ice of Sturgeon lake would help to weld the north and south closer and closer together in party harmony. He requested the contingent from the north to be his guests for dinner, and to come and have it at once. and calling for three cheers for the queen he withdrew from the window amidst the cheers of the crowd below.

A great crowd had assembled about the town hall, expecting it was the intention that Mr. Barron would speak, but he disappointed his south riding friends, saying those from the north should first have began, for it was a fair indication of what ron's supporters will assemble to honor him for the gallant victory he has fought and won against Mr. Hector Cameron, who Mr. Hudspeth and friends occupied the ron, a liberal majority of 121, in the piling up in which the Warder promised Mr. Barron would be on the evening of the 22nd.

miles on election day, remaining long enough at points of polling to satisfy himself the work was going on right, and ended at Fencion Falls within half an hour after the poll there was closed.

(Correspondence of The Post.) THE RACES.-As we remarked last win-

She done so in the open trot at Bradford last week-three straight heats-in a field of sev-n of the best horses in Canada. Mayflower is a had 'un, but she can't come up to our stock when we're in genuine going order - no, THE CHECKER LACROSSE CLUB. - We must candidly admit that the Beaver in a correspondent of the Cannington Gleauer ses our opinion on the so called joining or amalgamation of the Orilli.'s and Beaverton clubs. Such a silly thing in sporting or athletic matters was never heard of. The McMillan and Davidson boys are first class players and good fellows in every way individually, but they are not the Checkers collectively, and until we learn that by a resolution of their club they joined the Orillias on behalf of the ckers we will still have the same opinion as above stated. It is a pi y the Orillias did not look for more suicable game. What has "Baldy," "Jack the N—," or "Doige" done that they are not invited to join the Orillias? These gentlemen are the stuff the Orillias want. We guess our Checkers are not quite dead yet. If defeated they are all the more eager for the fray. We have heard of some new blood intending to join—men that have shewn what they can do in Montreal, Toronto and other places, and after a little practice we guess we can measure sticks with the Orillias or any other club. If we Beaverton people have lost the support of the Messers, McWilliams and Davidson we can udon the places, and after a little practice with the Orillias or any other club. If we Beaverton people have lost the support of the Messers, McWilliams and Davidson we can on as above stated. It is a pi y the Oril-

SOUTH VICTORIA. MR. BUDSPETH ELECTED BY

day Night. The campaign in South Victoria resulted in a conservative victory, Mr. Hudspeth being elected by a maj rity of about 47. The campaign was conducted with much energy on both sides. Mr. Lownsbrough made a capital and satisfactory canvas and proved in every respect a strong and desirable candidate. The polling on election day went on same as usual-everybody working hard on both sides and with glorious uncertainty as to the result. After five o'clock both sides repaired to their respective committee rooms.

AT THE REFORM HEADQUARTERS. A large crowd soon gathered at the reform headquarters. The Lindsay vote was, of course, the first in, and when it was seen that Mr. Hudspeth had a majority of 41 there was naturally considerable anxvictory might not have crowned their lety. Ops nearly tied this with 36 for Lownsbrough; but a little more than this was expected from the two. It now became a question what Emily and Mariposa would do. The first returns showed gains for Lownsbrough, and hearty cheers were given Oakwood and Manilla. But reports from Little Britain and Brown's showed a falling off from the figures expected with confidence; and returns from Emily and Verulam shewed a vote that would evidently elect Mr. Hudspeth. Returns from North Victoria showing the heavy vote for Barron and the probable rejection of Hector Cameron elicited hearty cheers. The returns from the Dominion indicated if not the defeat of the government at least a reduction of their majority to a margin oo narrow that it would be insignificant and unsafe-while the prospects of a minority for the government seemed very good. This was revized the next day. A considerable number remained until a late hour receiving news. . We are unable this week to give the official count, as the deputy returning officer is snowed up somewhere in Mar poss and will not be back until to-day, but will have it in full next week.

AT THE CONSERVATIVE HEADQUARTERS. By nine o'clock on Tuesday night returns taken in left no doubt that "r. Hudspeth had been elevet. His friends did not waste much time discussing the probable majority, but organized an impromptu demonstration. F fry or sixty torches were brought out and lighted. A procession was formed headed by the band and It is expected that shortly a dinner will marched along Kent st. twice and drew up come off at Fenelon Falls, when Mr. Bar- at the town hall. A large crowd followed is not now likely to rise from the oblivion stage and received the congratulations of his supporters who gave hearty cheers. Mr. Hudspeth addressed the audience and Mr. Barron. M. P., covered eighty-six aftercongratulating his friends on their sucagain, and that issues raised during the heat of the contest would be allowed to drop. He said he intended to represent the riding both for conservatives and reformers, and should so conduc himself as their representative that they would not regreteiec ing him to the position. Prominent members of the tarry who were on the platform, Meser. D. beon. S. Hughes. Moore, Beall, Dubdas and others made remarks. At the conclusion of the meeting the procession reformed for re-conservative e) and conducted Mr. Hud peth to his residence on Russe leat, where more congra-tulations were extended and the exercises of the evening terminated.
