HEAD MASTER'S REPORT. Mr. J. C. HARSTONE, head-master of the high school, briefly addressed the board and read a report, which, he said, he had placed on paper no so that suggestions theron, which night to decide worthy of some consideration by the board, could be referred to. The work accomplished in the high school was commented on; a comparative statement submitted of the attendance at high schoole in other localities; the suggestion was advanced that with certain improvements and the addition of auditer teacher the school could be raided as a training school for teachers. The imposition of a fee on pupile attending the high school was suggested, and that a strong effort should be made to obtain a large grant from the county council.

The report was accepted and the thanks of the board tendered to Mr. Raretone, and afterwards referred to the finance committee. high school, briefly addressed the board
