Not "Besident The The Thaching Properties of "Belittling the teaching profession" the paragraph printed in The Post last week was a velled and undeserved attack on an estimable gentleman residing at Upsergrove. We were not aware of the circumstances of the case and regret having published the paragraph. The gentlemen referred to is a warm friend of education, and a casual and not uniriendly remark has been twisted and distorted into an attack on the teaching prefession. The remarks of "Onlooker" were ridiculous and uncalled for, and, if made with sinster purpose, merit severe condemnation.

BUILDING.—Messes. Wilsen Bros. are now completing a shop and dwelling house for Messes Hanna and Elliott, harness-makers....

Mr. Coulter is building a hall and shed, Joseph Murphy has the contract......Mr. Wm. Brown. late of Janetville, is building a residence north of the station.

BUSINESS.—Perhapsesst of Toronto there is not a more thriving village than Pontypool. We have three general stores doing a thriving business. Mr. Williamsen, our obliging postmaster, has a full and well selected stock of all the public requirements. Coulter & Perrin on the north end are doing a booming business also in general merchandise; while on the south side Mr. Stanton keeps a choice stock of dry-gooda, general groceries, etc. Mr. Laidley is engaged in the boot and shoe business and is prospering. Dr. Drummond has opened a drug store near the post-office. Mr. Henry Parker, the village blacksmith, is doing a very active trade. The planing and sash and door factory is kept coastantly going and builders here find it a very great boon to have such an industry so convenient. SHAMEFUL. - Some parts of our church look like a bar-room every Sunday owing to the pools of tobacco spit that can be seen. Some one is to blame, and who is it? Sickness.—We are very sorry to hear of Mr. Young's continued illness, but under the able treatment of Dr. Gilpin of Brechin we expect to see him around again shortly.
SIDEWALK. - We want a sidewalk from the post-office to the church—not the bank.
PERSONAL.—Mr. Williamson of P. M. attended the marriage of his sister Thurs

NEW Goods.-Mr. Stewart, our worthy merchant, has received a large stock of new goods. Come one and all. Give Mr. Stewart your orders. LEAVING. We are very sorry to announce that Rev. Mr. Patterson of the Presbyter-ian church is to leave us. Can we not try some means of keeping this worthy minister among us? We will mise him greatly as a sincere and earnest speaker. We hope in some future day he may return and he will be made welcome by his many friends in Gamebridge.

NARROW ESCAPE. -On Friday last Mr. W. Allison had a narrow escape from being torn to pieces in some machinery in Mr. Donnell's planing mill. He was placing the belt that runs the circular saw on its pulley when his feet slipped and he involuntarily grabbed the belt, which immediately tightened, and had it not been going at a high rate of speed, which threw him from it, he must inevitably have been torn to pieces. FENCES.—The village has a number of new fences in progress, which give the place a nest and comfortable look.

ARBOR DAY should be and probably will be a grand success. The schools have been thoroughly overhauled and are now in splendid condition. A couple of men have been at work on each of the grounds since Monday and are making a good job.

completely cleared the lakes, and Monday the Estucion commenced the season's trips.

What They Say.—Many of the conservatives of this village are at present saying "Hudspeth deserved re-election," "Cowan deserved the dressing Cameron gave him," and "Coal Oil Sam deserved the dressing down he received at the Finger board and at Brown's school house."

The Band.—Our band are doing well under the guidance of Mr. Webster. They are a credit to our village.

Boating.—Boating is again troubling the young men of the village. Sails are being looked at, boats painted and everything promises a good summer's sport.

Pressers.—Last week Mr. A. Kennedy was presented by his wife with an instrument of music in the shape of a handsome beby boy. Mr. John Bell aise received a similar gift.

Changes.—Mr. Thomas Collins has removed from the Rokeby hotel and Mr. Jackson Reid has taken his place. Mr. Reid is a popular and respected hotel keeper and will do a good business. Welcome back again to our village.

Summer Visitors continue to become better heaves are expected this year. As the industries of the place become better heaves the visitors continue to become more numerous. They know its worth.

Parsing.—The conservative majority in this place would have been pulled down a good deal but for the heavy outside tory vote brought in. They scoured the progradies of expense. A reformer at Peterboro paired with a conservative at that place, but the latter slipped away and voted. When taxed with bad faith he tried to get out of it by saying there was no arrangement, but the "pair" was made in the presence of two witnesses, and was not arranged for the convenience of thereformer. The tory who broke the pair should be and no doubt is ashamed of himself.

SEVEN HORSES BURNED.—A serious fire occurred at Tweed Sunday by which Latchford's hotel, stables and shed, with seven horses, a valuable heifer and $100 in cash belonging to Mr. Latchford were consumed. The stables belonging to Messrs. Davies & Restall mess also humand. The Davies & Bartell were also burned. The horses, which were owned by different parties, were worth from $150 to $200 each. The total loss and insurance are not known. Mr. Latchford had $600 on his effects.

And it is evident to all in the surrounding neighborhood that this great temperance movement, which was set on foot a few years ago in Janetville, has completed a reformation for which the rising generation will bless those who first unfailed the temperature.

those who first unfuried the temperance banner in Janetville.

OBITUARY.—It is our sad duty to have to report the death of Mr. Robert Johnston's little daughter, aged two years and six months. This is the fifth time that the angel of death has entered the house of Mr. Johnston and removed from the fam-ily circle his dear children. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

CONTRACT,—Mesers. Brown and Trew, two of our enterprising business men, have secured the contract of repairing the Methodist church. As these men are good me-chanics we feel sure of a first-class job from IMPROVEMENTS. - Mr. Heaslip has put a fine stone foundation under the Temperance house. Mr. Sproule was the mason,

THE ROADS in this portion of the township have been almost impassible the last two or three weeks. The roads were flooded for over a week. Who is the forged Maple Hill correspondent who has robbed this place of its good name? They leave the blame on the preacher, but the fault lies somewhere else. his present sobriquet, but wants seemingly to earn a title to the character of "Slandering Sam." Fancy the abuse of all and sundry in last Warder! In old times bears appeared and devoured even children who mocked bald heads. Though bears now-a-days would not venture to tackle such a "tough" as the Warder man seems to be. D. R. Anderson of Toronto, Mr. Gregory of Toronto and D. E. Cameron of Lucknow ought to send cards of thanks.

SEEDING. -All the farmers in this section are well on with their seeding.

PROMOTED. -Mr. J. Paulton, who has been section foreman here since the C.P.R. opened, has been transferred to Toronto Junction yard. The boys all miss "Jim" and join in wishing him every success.

Mr. E. Beaman takes his place here.

BOUND TO "DYE."-We notice quite a number of our old men with their moustaches dyed as black as tar. Grey hair and black moustaches are very becoming. We think the old lads must be getting young

CHILD DESERTION CASE.—On Saturday

CHILD DESERTION CASE. - On Saturday night last Peter Campbell of Eldon was brought before D. S. Brown, J.P., on a charge of child desertion. From the evid-ence it appears that on the 20th ult., Campbell, in company with Christina Ann Campbell drove to the farm of Mr. Hugh McKay, where the illegitimate child of Miss Campbell, whose father was alleged to be Hugh McKay, a so of Mr. Hugh McKay, er., was deposited and left on the verandah in spite of the protests of the McKay family. An effort was first made to leave the baby in the house, but Mrs. McKay picked it up and pu it Campbell's buggy. The latter, however, put the child on the verandah and in company with its mother, who by the way is his niece, drove off. The infant was shortly afterwards taken into the house. An information was subse-quently laid and the arrest of Campbell was made on Saturday afternoon by Constable McBain. Justice Brown committed him for trial, but he was subsequently released on $1,000 bail.—[Gleaner.

[Correspondence of The Post.] A WORD IN REPLY. - I notice in Cresswell correspondence an article referring to merhants trade leaving this place. Undoubtedly some have left which has been and always will be the case, which your corresspondent had he a scintilla of merchantile knowledge should have known, and were he honest enough to admit it he could give a just cause, of which he could and should have been a preventative. But that day is gone and I am reaping the benefit of a remedy from another quarter. As to the volume of trade leaving this town I have simply to say that if such was the reference of your correspondent he is stating what is untrue. As regards Mr. Milne as an obliging p.m. we can heartily endorse what was said and do not doubt he could control a fair business here, and we would be quite willing to see him open up, though we can assure him that he should not seek the advice of the one who is now attempting to pave the way for him. He may pave it for a time but it will be to get you surrounded with stumbling blocks. If you are going in don't let Yerex stop you, but I would say for your benefit pay no heed toadvice from the writer of the article regarding mercantile trade in last week's issue. You will please publish the above in next week's issue of your valuable paper, which I claim I am entitled to as a reply to what was said last week. I would say to my customers, best thanks for past parronage; those that have left, come back; those that have never come, come now; those that are coming, come on. We shall be glad to see you and and can give you as good value as you can get elsewhere. Most of my customers will know the origin of this controversy and will know about how much below par it is -about 99 per cent below. - Yours ever, obediently, E. Z. YEREX. PERSONAL.-Mr. Wm. Conskell of Monmouth, son of Henry Conskell, formerly a resident of this place, is intending to spend the summer here. He is looking well.

Convalescent.—We are glad to learn that Miss Mary McIntyre is somewhat better.....John McCollum's child is also improving.

GRAND OPPORTUNITY. -There is an excellent opening here for a good shoemaker, and there would not be the slightest doubt SEEDING. - Some farmers would have been done seeding had it not rained on Thursday.

TRADE.—Any amount of trade left our village again this week. We fear some one will be having pains again similar to those following an overdose of green cucumber. If he gets too bad and is likely too cramp we might get someone to rub him down with Wizard oil.

CHURCH MATTERS,—Correspondent No. 2 more familiarly known as Black Horse (more familiarly known as Black Horse correspondent) was away behind with his Mr. Salmon news. He should have known that Mr. Salmon could not be here ere he wrote, but we presume he was quite out of his balance at that time. We are now likely to have a Mr. McCallum.

NEW ROAD.—Correspondent No. 2, seems the council will not give contractors. to fear the council will not give contractors proper notice ere letting jobs on road. Is it the Dutch pig again away from home? How easy it is for some to watch others and neglect their own until it is too late. HAND-WRITING ON THE WALL.—How did the young man find out Archie had so much lumber cut?.....Who left Sandy Grant's gate open so early one Monday morning.... How is it that The Post, Warder and Gleaner are so similar if not exactly the same in certain Cresswell (No.2)

Think of it. Fifty Toilet Sets so low in price licits patronage. Orders will be promptly Me housekeeper can afford to let this opportunity pass. The goods must be cleaned out at from Warder does not seem to be satisfied with
