INVITED TO REMAIN.—At the meetings of the quarterly board of the C. M. durch here the following resolution was usanimously carried and forwarded to the chairman, but we suppose because of his absence from home before the district meeting he did not reserve it in time to lay it before the meeting. It reads thus: "Bre. G. Ruttle, seconded by Bre. H. Whitmer, moved that Rev. A. B. Osterhout be invited to remain on the Atheries circuit another year, and that the stationing committee be requested to allow him to remain because of his earnest endeavors to advance God's cause here and the interes s of his church everywhere."

A New Steam Yacht,—A new steam yacht, named the Express, the property of Mr. Josiah Bail of Bail Point, was launched at the wherf here on Tuesday evening last. It strived from Toronto on the five o'clock trains and soon attracted a large crowd of "the boys," who lent a helping hand in the work of removing from the car to the water. It is quite a handsome little craft, some thirty feet in length and nine feet in width, and is guaranteed to run nine miles an hour. The boiler and engine are of the best, and carry a government cartificate of a pressure of 130 lbs. It cost Mr. Bell a thousand dollars, who purchased it for his own use and pleasure. He expects to have all he can do this summer in towing lumber, etc., from his portable saw mill and in hauling timber and lumber for a large barn which he intende building on his farm at Ball Point. He has no intention of running regular tripe this season but may do so next, between Port Perry and Cartwright, Manvers, Cresares and Port Hoover. We may, however, expect to have the Express a frequent caller at the wharf here.—[Standard. PORT PERRY.

A Model School Teacher.—In 1850
Mr. A. Clark, sr., now of Feneton Falls, was doing business in the village of Manilla, in the township of Mariposa, and did some work for a young man, a school teacher, who left without paying him. As the supposed loss was very small Mr. Clark soon. posed lose was very small Mr. Clark soon forgot all about it; but the other day, twenty-eight years after the disappearance of the debtor, he received a letter from him written at Cape Breton, and containing a five dollar bill to pay the old account with many spologies for not having settled it earlier. If that young man—we beg his paydon, he is an elderly gentleman now—isn't a model worthy of imitation by all teachers who skip without paying their tailors, we should like to be introduced to one who is.

WHAT A MOUSE DID. -The crean in St. James's church having for some time past given evidence that it was suffering intermaily Mr. D. M. Caraon was requested to try and find out what ailed it, and when on Monday last he took it to pieces, (what a pity it is that human patients can't be served the same way.) he found that a mouse had used it as a barn and had stored there in about a quart of seeds of cedar; but whether they had been brought from out of doors or had failen from some of the evergreens used in decovating the church at Christmas cannot be told. The mouse was not seen, but it had gnawed some of the four sets were so chocked with the accumulated seeds as to be useless. Mr. Carson, who is a skilful musician and a good judge of instruments, says the organ is an excellent one and after he has set it to rights it will no doubt be as powerful and sweet toned as ever. sally Mr. D. Not that you are likely to forget, but to tell you that we are alive to the demands of the locality, and make ample preparation to meet the demand. Its our business to do so and it is what we are here for.

We ask our farmers, especially those who make and have butter to sell to remember that we are supplying very Fine Dairy Salt. This Salt it pays to use. Pays the maker, the seller, the merchant and pays the consumer too. We offer fine CANADIAN DAIRY SALT, which is well recommended for the purpose. We keep ASHTON'S factory filled Dairy Salt, and as to its value there can be no doubt. Buy Ashton's if you want the best.
