Very much of the late own oats will not be gathered in Prince Edward county. A great many farmers stranded crop. Unless rain comes soon the potato crop will siso be a failure, while the corn crop is past recovery.

-A man who gave his name as Couley hired a horse and buggy at a livery stable at Belleville on Monday and vivited several farmhouses in Sidney, where he demanded money, watches, jewellery and clothing from the farmers' wives, producing a revol-ver at the same time. The women generally ran shricking from the house, and the robber got nothing except a cost at John The neighborhood was soon aroused and several men went in pursuit is buggies. During an exciting chase the horse driven by the robber fell and he took to the woods. The horse and buggy were brought to the city at noon.

-A daring burgarly was committed at Sutton on Sunday night. The thieves first Treloar, J.P., and supplied themselves with tools, It is supposed they went from there to W. Barnard & Co.'s store, broke open the back window, drilled a hole in the in the safe, blew it to please and helped themselves to what money there was. There is not much doubt but the operators were professionals by the way they went to work. To deaden the sound a barrel of rice and several rails of dry goods had been piled around the safe, which, when the explosion took place were scattered in every direction. The from door of McClellan's store was forced open. Their safe was not locked, or very likely it would have shared the same fate as the one shove mentioned.
