

FLASHING LAMPS.

We beg to announce to the public that we opened up this week and have ready for inspection a line of magnificent LIBRARY, HALL and PARLOR LAMPS.

As we had none left over from last season we can give the benefit of a year's progress in the art of Lamp manufacturing. Both in Beauty and Durability our Lamps excel everything that has been offered to the public of Victoria County in the past.

An early inspection is invited ere some of the leading lines are sold out. If wanting anything in the LAMP line give us a call.

LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS

FOREST FIRE. - A number of cottages here had their fences burned, but happily no grain was burned in the field. Although some have suffered a great deal of loss, the loss is not as heavy as it might have been. Mr. Heron, merchant of this place, had fifty acres burned over, and with a little labor will be ready for crop, which he estimates before the fire would have cost him $10 per acre to clear.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENT. - The new Presbyterian church will be opened on Sunday, 4th inst. by Mr. Cookburn of Edinburgh and Rev. Mr. McLaren will take part in the ceremony.

HEAD LARK.

THE FIRE. - The chief occupation of the settlers here is fishing. Mr. James Parks had his barn and contents burned. He was insured in the London Mutual for $500. Wm. Auld had his barn and house both burned. Insured in same company for $125. Mr. Corneille Sullivan had his barn burned. We heard he was insured. Nothing like being insured, as had those people not been insured their losses would have been serious. Many here have lost their fences. Mr. Butterworth north of here, had a barn burned. The roads in many places are impassable from burned trees falling across them. Mr. John Bailey, our respective roads, had some fences and buildings destroyed and sustained some burns himself in fighting the fire.

NEBRIGHT.

THE FIRE. - The recent fire here made things pretty lively around here, a great many of the houses have been completely burned off. Mr. George Sandford had his house and barn burned, no insurance. His entire crop was consumed. This is the only serious loss that has occurred here, but his barn and stable burned, but as they were insured his loss will not be so great. Mr. John Fleming had his barn and quantity of hay burned.

HYMERA.

Mr. Chas. Ormer was united in marriage to Miss G. G. Ormer. Rev. H. N. Grant performed the ceremony.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENT.

The new church has been furnished with seats during the past week.

NEW TEACHER.

Our new teacher, Mr. Alex. Houston, is doing good work here and is very popular.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Wolfenden of Whitby is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Young.

WOODVILLE.

DARING BURGLARIES. - There was quite a sensation in this village on Wednesday morning when it became known that the store there were several burglaries in town during the night. Mr. D. McLaughlin, manager for Mr. R. Wilson of Cambridge, had his attention called to some broken panes of glass in a side window of the store. This was discovered by him Monday, and on visiting the store he found that the front door was pried open and on entering was not a little surprised to find that the safe was blown to pieces. A small scale which stood on the counter in front of the safe was also broken into atoms, scattered likely by the door of the store, which was thrown open the shop. The burglars had their hopes on doubtlessly dampened when they discovered that there was no money for them after all their labor. Mr. McLaughlin says there could not have been a dollar of change left in the safe. While the escape most was at fever heat over the work done that the parties had been through the G. T. R. station and that Mr. Pritchard had lost several dollars of private funds. They also went through several values that had been left in the station. A our correspondent had no tips to get further news at present. There is no one as to the parties. There were some Macmillan notes of E. H. McLean found in Mr. Wilson's store.

RETURNED.

Mr. L. Gilchrist and bride have returned from their wedding trip and report a very pleasant one. They will now settle down for the enjoyment of married life.

OBITUARY.

An old and respected citizen, Mr. John Smith, has passed away at the age of 80. The funeral was on Thursday. Lower notice next week.

STRATFORD, May 3.

I had been a victim of one of the worst blood diseases and I was treated by a number of the best medical men in the country, and my constitution was completely undermined, a friend advised me to try Dr. J. C. Gilchrist's medicine, it restored my appetite and freed me up completely after using seven bottles. I strongly recommend it to all who are afflicted with blood diseases. FRANK G. COOPER, of Stratford & Co., Stratford, Ont., 29th, 1887.

STRATFORD, March 15, 1887.

For several years I was troubled with such a face, tried several remedies without effect. Dr. J. C. Gilchrist's medicine completely cured me and improved my general health to such a degree that I can now enjoy life as a healthy man. I can highly recommend it as a genuine purifier of the blood. ERNEST CHAS. BROWN, Stratford, Ont.

The Remembrance Feast.

The Remembrance Feast and picnic under the auspices of the congregation of St. Martin's church, Bradburn, will be held at Channing Park, Bradburn, on Thursday, Sept. 1st. Every member of the church is invited to attend. Last notice. BRADBURN & Co. - 3-4.

Remembrance Feast.

Mr. T. Covensack of Peterborough has been Lindsay during the past few days in quest of a few fine horses, and we believe he has secured the same. Among the animals purchased was a fine mare from Mr. Covensack's stable for $100. Mr. Covensack is a well known horse dealer in Peterborough. Mr. W. W. Wagon, our local lawyer, also purchased this week a very superior pair of horses, weighing in the neighborhood of 3,000 pounds, which were secured by him generally. Mr. Wagon is every ready to purchase superior animals as well as all classes, colors and ages of equine stock.
