did so, and an happy to say that is elped me at once. By continued use this medicine cured my cough, and, I am satisfied, saved my life. — Mrs. E. Coburn, 18 Second st., Lowell, Mass. I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for over a year, and sincerely believe I should have been in my grave, had it not been for this medicine. It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs, for which I had almost despaired of ever finding a remedy.—D. A. McMulles, Windsor, Province of Ontario.

Aver's Cherry Pectoral saved my life. Two years age I took a very severe Cold which settled on my lungs. I consulted physicians, and took the remedies they prescribed, but failed to obtain relief until I began using Ayer's Cherry Pec-foral. Two bottles of this medicine completely restored my health.—Lizzis M. Alien, West Lancaster, Ohio.

An Ottawa despatch says: A Northwest man who was in Ottawa few days ago, and who was concerned in the job, tells how Mr. Dewdney sought to impose upon the members of the Presbyterian acceptly whe recently visited some of the Northwest Indian reserves. Having invited the delegates to visit the reserves Mr. Dewdney sent instructions to the various Indian agents to issue extra rations to the Indians and to feed them up well so that they could be induced to do a few bours' work on the day the visitors arrived. His instructions were sbeyed. The Indians were treated like fighting cocks for a few days, and on the day that each reserve was visited by the ministers the bucks were at work hoeing in the fields and the square number were the hocks of the ministers the such work. In fact it is said that Mr. Dewdney's arrangements came very near being spoiled on one reserve because the visitors did not reach there on the day they were expected, and the Indians an immense lot of pork and flour were issued to them.
